Quality In Higher Education:

On Q Daniel Seymour,1992 This book is about rethinking reworking or reinforcing past solutions It outlines not only the importance and history of quality in education but also the basic principles that underline the management of quality and different quality opportunities This book is unique in its desire to merge the philosophy and tools of strategic quality management from industry with the thoughts of campus administrators and call for sharply defined measures of educational quality that can shape the perceptions of our constituencies Quality in Higher Education Brent D. Ruben,2018-04-24 The concept of quality in higher education is by no means a new one By one set of definitions or another colleges and universities throughout the world have always held the pursuit of excellence as their primary goal Why then has the quality approach developed and popularized in industry and how increasingly applied in health care and government receiving so much attention in higher education at this moment What does this perspective add to the approaches to excellence with which they have long embraced These are the two primary questions that this book seeks to address Chapters and contributors include The New Productivity by Peter F Drucker World War n and the Quality Movement by J M Juran The Quality Approach to Higher Education Context of Concepts for Change by Brent Ruben The Big Questions in Higher Education Today by L Edwin Coate An American Approach to Quality by Marilyn R Zuckerman and Lewis J Hatala Quality in Higher Education Critical Issues in Definition and Assessment by Brent Ruben and Ten Areas for Future Research in Total Quality Management by A Blanton Godfrey The volume is graced with an opening essay by Francis L Lawrence president of Rutgers University Higher education is in the public spotlight today due to the many challenges it now faces rising tuition costs frustration about a tight job market for graduates calls for increased faculty productivity concerns about political correctness and criticisms regarding the use of grant and research funds among others Quality in Higher Education is a particularly timely book that will greatly benefit educators university administrators students and sociologists and all those who are interested in higher education today

Quality of Higher Education Yihuan Zou,2013 This book is about constructing a more inclusive understanding of quality in higher education through combining the macro meso and micro levels i e from the perspectives of national policy higher education institutions as organizations in society individual teaching staff and students Achieving Quality Learning in Higher Education Peggy Nightingale,Mike O'Neil,2017-02 This study argues that there is little hope of maintaining quality in higher and further education unless those in academia share common goals It demonstrates how results can be achieved if the principles of high quality learning are applied along with total quality management type strategies Total Quality in Higher Education Ralph G. Lewis,Douglas H. Smith,1994 This book provides a framework for implementing total quality principles in the college or university environment It includes the history and principles of quality management and an assessment of factors in the college and university environment that are leading to serious questions concerning higher education effectiveness and efficiency Quality Assurance in Higher Education Maria João Rosa,A. Quality Assurance in Higher Education in Eastern and Southern Africa Peter Neema-Abooki, 2021-08-23 This book examines the critical aspect of quality assurance maintenance of competitive standards in African higher education It explores both the micro and macro levels of continental African higher education regulatory authorities and analyses different institutional regional and national practices for moving towards continental quality assurance approaches Contributed to by scholars across Eastern and Southern Africa the book considers conceptual practical epistemological and policy dimensions of quality and quality assurance especially in relation to higher education in Africa It therefore draws on research and local expertise to open up debate about how to assure and enhance the quality of higher education providing a comprehensive review of eight countries and considers societal challenges It aims to satisfy the need of more thoughtful and critical works on African education as produced by African educators The uniqueness of this book lies in integrating both the theoretical and practical dimensions of quality to devise appropriate strategies for ensuring quality and standards in higher education in continental Africa and beyond This authoritative book advocates for a timely discussion around the provision of good quality higher education and research in African universities and will be of great interest to academics policy makers researchers and post graduate students in the fields of higher education comparative education and African studies

Quality in Higher Education Ming Cheng, 2016-09-27 Many countries now employ national evaluation systems to demonstrate publicly that universities provide a quality education However the current processes of quality evaluation are often detached from the practices of teaching and learning In particular those who teach and those who learn still have to be won over to such audit processes This book argues that it is time for the higher education sector to concern itself with the human dimension so as to develop both academic professionalism and students commitment to their learning Based on five completed research projects which explore academics and students experiences and their views of quality evaluation the book argues that developing the intrinsic values of teaching and learning held by academics and students is key to achieving high quality education In this book the author critically reviews the four most frequently used terms related to current quality evaluation fitness for purpose value for money student satisfaction and students as customers and argues for a motivationally intelligent quality approach emphasising the moral dimension and the intrinsic values of academics and students The author also outlines an improved quality evaluation system that encourages and increases academics and students commitment to teaching and learning

Academic Initiatives in Total Quality for Higher Education Harry V. Roberts,1995 A compilation of 31 papers addressing the improvement of teaching and learning through total quality Case studies cited in many of the papers devote attention to the idea of regarding students as customers and emphasize making the student teacher relationship more mutually responsive

Annotation co Quality of Higher Education Yihuan Zou,2022-09-01 Quality in higher education was not invented in recent decades universities have always possessed mechanisms for assuring the quality of their work The rising concern over quality is closely related to the changes in higher education and its social context Among others the most conspicuous changes are the massive expansion diversification and increased cost in higher education and new mechanisms of accountability initiated by the state With these changes the traditional internally enacted academic quality keeping has been given an important external dimension quality assurance which requires higher education institutions to continuously demonstrate and improve performance and which also provides new systems of rewards and sanctions However the complex impacts of quality assurance policies have shown a need to further understand the quality issue in higher education This book is about constructing a more inclusive understanding of quality in higher education through combining the macro meso and micro levels i e from the perspectives of national policy higher education institutions as organizations in society individual teaching staff and students It covers both theoretical constructions for understanding quality and empirical investigation in the Chinese context The questions addressed are How is quality of higher education perceived by the institution teaching staff and students respectively What are the main concerns for the institution teaching staff and students in their own pursuit of quality It has been concluded that quality of higher education is not only about educational quality but also about expanding life chances for the students prosperity in the administrative system for the teaching staff and organizational prosperity for the institution With regard to quality assurance and accountability in higher education special attention should be given to the values pursued and be careful to balance between immediate single value efficiency and sustainable development and a wider range of values that higher education serves

Quality Assurance in Higher Education David Lim,2001 An investigation of the recent adoption of quality assurance by universities in developing countries The book demonstrates how quality assurance can improve the standard of university activities in these countries but also argues that it will only be effective if kept simple in design modest in expectations and realistic in requirements

Quality Assurance in Vietnamese Higher Education Cuong Huu Nguyen, Mahsood Shah, 2019-10-03 This book provides a comprehensive overview of quality assurance in Vietnamese higher education under the centralised management of the government after 15 years of development By implementing quality assurance and accreditation mechanisms the Vietnamese government expected to be able to control and improve the quality of the higher education system The editors and contributors therefore examine and analyse policies and practices related to the establishment and development of Vietnam's quality assurance system Amongst other things the chapters investigate drivers of quality assurance stakeholders engaged in quality assurance and the future of quality assurance in Vietnamese higher education in benchmarking with other quality assurance systems in the region and across the world This book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of Vietnamese higher education as well as quality assurance in higher education more generally but particularly in developing nations
