Roman De Renart A Guide To Scholarly Work:

The Roman de Renart Kenneth Varty, 1998 A comprehensive guide to the scholarly work that has appeared pertaining to the Roman de Renart The guide not only details the evolution of various manuscripts and their present locations but also provides information concerning translations adaptations scholarly and critical studies and facsimile editions Codex and Context: Reading Old French Verse Narrative in Manuscript, Volume II Keith Busby, 2022-06-08 Codex and Context: Reading Old French Verse Narrative in Manuscript, Volume I Keith Busby, 2022-07-04 Introducing the Medieval Fox Paul Wackers, 2023-02-15 This book is an entertaining informative and enchanting introduction to its subject just as those medieval banes of the farmyard the Fox and the Vixen were enchanting in escapades from fables and funny tales from beastly epic poems and bestiaries and from medieval material culture in Danish wall paintings and Dutch manuscript illustrations and statues stained glass and Italian mosaics There exist books on medieval fox stories and on the animal s iconography which are important themes in this study but this book is the first holistic approach to all types of manifestations of foxes in medieval culture from medical recipes and fur trade to Bible commentaries and hunting manuals Truth and the Heretic Karen Sullivan, 2005-09-15 Exploring the figure of the heretic in Catholic writings of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries as well as the heretic s characterological counterpart in troubadour lyrics Arthurian romance and comic tales Truth and the Heretic seeks to understand why French and Occitan literature of the period celebrated the very characters who were so persecuted in society at large Karen Sullivan proposes that such literature allowed medieval culture a means by which to express truths about heretics and the epistemological anxieties they aroused The first book length study of the figure of the heretic in medieval French and Occitan literature Truth and the Heretic will fascinate historians of ideas and literature as well as scholars of religion critical theory and philosophy Reynard the Fox Kenneth Varty, 2003-11 There are many stories featuring the villainous hero Reynard the Fox in many languages told over many centuries going back as far as the early 12th century All these stories are comic and much of the humour depends on parody and satire resulting in mockery sometimes the subversion of certain kinds of serious literature of political and religious institutions and practices of scholarly argument and moralizing and of popular beliefs and customs The contributors to this volume all of them experts in one or more of the Reynard stories and their backgrounds focus on the transformation of these tales through various media and to what extent they reflect differences in the cultural class and generational background of their tellers Codex and Context Keith Busby, 2002 Expectations of the Law in the Middle Ages Anthony Musson, 2001 This book represents the first systematic examination of the expectations people had of the law in the middle ages Up until now historians have used medieval legal records to demonstrate the operation of legal rules the functioning of legal institutions and the development of the legal profession but they have rarely considered the attitudes that arose as a result of the processes of law The papers in this volume investigate the way expectations of the law were generated captured revealed or replayed for posterity in medieval Europe in jurisprudential reasoning the activity of charter writing the framing of definitions of liberty the concern for historical justifications and the phraseology of various forms of legislation and chancery bills Attitudes and perceptions are also considered with regard to the active role played by rulers of European states in law giving and in the organisation of legal institutions Contextualising some of the developments in medieval law this volume not only enables generalisations to be made about expectations of the law but also highlights the existence of national and supra national similarities as well as differences arising in medieval Europe Dr ANTHONY MUSSON teaches in the School of Law at the University of Exeter Contributors RICHARD W KAEUPER D HEIRBAUT M KORPIOLA JUDITH EVERARD CYNTHIA J NEVILLE JULIA C CRICK H SUMMERSON G SEABOURNE G DODD T HASKETT ANTHONY MUSSON C STEBBINGS P TUCKER Performing Medieval Narrative Evelyn Birge Vitz, Nancy Freeman Regalado, Marilyn Lawrence, 2005 A survey of an investigation into whether medieval narrative was designed for performance Old French Narrative Cycles Luke Sunderland, 2010 This is a study of four colossal medieval works the Cycle de Guillaume d Orange the Vulgate Cycle the Prose Tristan and the Roman de Renart that are normally considered separately By placing them side by side for analysis Luke Sunderland is able to argue for an aesthetic of cyclicity that cuts across genre He combines detailed readings of the narrative infrastructure of each cycle with attention to the shifts and transformations that come with successive acts of rewriting Book Jacket
