Romano British Coin Hoards:

Romano-British Coin Hoards Richard Abdy, 2008-03-04 The best testament to Britain's participation in Graeco-Roman civilisation is its hidden monuments hoards of household valuables or decorations and also rich hoards of gold silver and bronze coins This book provides an introduction to Romano-British coin hoards and places major discoveries in the story of the Roman province's monetary system An Inventory of Romano-British Coin Hoards Anne S. Robertson, 2000-01-01

Iron Age and Roman Coin Hoards in Britain Roger Bland, Adrian Chadwick, Colin Haselgrove, David Mattingly, 2020-06-30 More coin hoards have been recorded from Roman Britain than from any other province of the Empire This comprehensive and lavishly illustrated volume provides a survey of over 3260 hoards of Iron Age and Roman coins found in England and Wales with a detailed analysis and discussion Theories of hoarding and deposition and examined national and regional patterns in the landscape settings of coin hoards presented together with an analysis of those hoards whose findspots were surveyed and of those hoards found in archaeological excavations It also includes an unprecedented examination of the containers in which coin hoards were buried and the objects found with them The patterns of hoarding in Britain from the late 2nd century BC to the 5th century AD are discussed The volume also provides a survey of Britain in the 3rd century AD as a peak of over 700 hoards are known from the period from AD 253-296 This has been a particular focus of the project which has been a collaborative research venture between the University of Leicester and the British Museum funded by the AHRC The aim has been to understand the reasons behind the burial and non-recovery of these finds A comprehensive online database <https://finds.org.uk/database> underpins the project which also undertook a comprehensive GIS analysis of all the hoards and field surveys of a sample of them Coin Hoards and Hoarding in the Roman World Jerome Mairat, Andrew Wilson, Chris Howgego, 2022-08-04 Coin Hoards and Hoarding in the Roman World presents fourteen chapters from an interdisciplinary group of Roman numismatists historians and archaeologists discussing coin hoarding in the Roman Empire from c. 30 BC to AD 400 The book illustrates the range of research themes being addressed by those connected with the Coin Hoards of the Roman Empire Project which is creating a database of all known Roman coin hoards from Augustus to AD 400 The volume also reflects the range of the Project's collaborations with chapters on the use of hoard data to address methodological considerations or monetary history and coverage of hoards from the west centre and east of the Roman Empire essential to assess methodological issues and interpretations in as broad a context as possible Chapters on methodology and metrology introduce statistical tools for analysing patterns of hoarding explore the relationships between monetary reforms and hoarding practices and address the question of value emphasizing the need to consider the whole range of precious metal artefacts hoarded Several chapters present regional studies from Britain to Egypt conveying the diversity of hoarding practices across the Empire the differing methodological challenges they face and the variety of topics they illuminate The final group of chapters examines the evidence of hoarding for how long coins stayed in circulation illustrating the importance of hoard evidence as a control on the interpretation of single coin finds the continued circulation of Republican coins under the Empire and the end of the small change economy in Northern Gaul Coin Hoards and Hoarding in Roman Britain AD 43 - C498 Roger Bland, 2000-04 Britain has a uniquely rich heritage of coin hoards of the Roman period with over 3 400 known from the Iron Age through to the fifth century AD This book is the product of a lifetime's work studying these hoards and is the first comprehensive survey for eighty years There are chapters on the study of hoards on hoarding in general on the Iron Age to Roman transition to AD 69 the denarius period AD 69-238 radiate hoards AD 238-96 the fourth and fifth centuries AD 296 c 491 and late Roman precious metal hoards It also contains a full checklist of all Iron Age and Roman coin hoards The book is an expanded version of the author's Presidential Addresses to the British Numismatic Society with two new chapters About the author Roger Bland was President of the British Numismatic Society from 2011 to 2016 He retired from the British Museum in 2015 where he was Keeper of the Department of Britain Europe and Prehistory and Head of the Portable Antiquities Scheme Before that he was curator of Roman coins at the Museum

Coin Hoards from Roman Britain Andrew Burnett, Roger Bland, John Orna-Ornstein, 1997 This volume presents details of 57 coin hoards from Roman Britain all but two of which were discovered within the last ten years They include a unique group of 110 plated denarii from northern Suffolk a rare hoard of 2nd C gold aurei from Didcot Suffolk and a late 4th C hoard of nearly 7 500 coins from Bishops Cannings Wiltshire All the hoards are listed in detail and the catalogues are complemented by pot drawings discussions where relevant and plates The Numismatic Evidence of Romano-British

Coin Hoards Anne S. Robertson, 1956 The Oxford Handbook of Roman Britain Martin Millett, Louise Revell, Alison Jane Moore, 2016 This handbook is currently in development with individual articles publishing online in advance of print publication At this time we cannot add information about unpublished articles in this handbook however the table of contents will continue to grow as additional articles pass through the review process and are added to the site Please note that the online publication date for this handbook is the date that the first article in the title was published online Roman Britain is a critical area of research within the provinces of the Roman empire Within the last 15-20 years the study of Roman Britain has been transformed through an enormous amount of new and interesting work which is not reflected in the main stream literature

Archaeology in Hertfordshire Kris Lockyear, 2015-10-01 Celebrating the rich heritage of archaeology and of archaeological research in Hertfordshire the 15 papers collected in this work focus on various aspects of the region including the Neolithic to the post Medieval periods and include a report on the important excavations at the formative henge at Norton Several chapters focus new attention on the Iron Age and Roman periods both from a landscape perspective and through detailed studies of artefacts while a discussion of the rare early Saxon material recently excavated at Watton at Stone makes a vital contribution to the existing corpus of knowledge about this little understood period All of the papers in the volume focus on the local scene with an understanding of wider issues in each period and as a result the papers are of importance beyond the boundaries of the county and will be of interest to scholars with wide ranging interests
