The Romantic Journey Edmund Swinglehurst, 1974 The Art of Travel Philip Dodds, 2013-08-21 First published in 1982 The Art of Travel is the first collection of critical essays to be devoted to British travel writing It attempts to give a sense of the wealth of such writing to map some of its forms and conventions and implicitly to claim a place for travel writing in any revised definition of literature For this collection travel includes sea voyages European tours commissioned enquiries into social conditions and urban writing travel writing ranges from works such as Sea and Sardinia by D H Lawrence whose status as a novelist guarantees his travel books some attention through the essays and books of Victorian middle class travellers into working class London to the work of V S Naipaul a contemporary writer who has increasingly preferred the travel book to the novel Thomas Cook Jill Hamilton, 2005-01-20 In this look at the man behind the business Jill Hamilton explores the origins of the former Baptist lay preacher who wanted to take campaigners to a temperance meeting in the Midlands and thus organized the first ever package holiday in the history of modern travel The Romantic Journey Edmund Swinglehurst, 1974 Inventing Times Square William R. Taylor, 1996-04 A unique volume Inventing Times Square approaches the subject of twentieth century American city culture through a multidimensional examination of one quintessential urban space Times Square Ranging in time from 1905 when the crossroad was given its present name through to the current plans for redevelopment the authors examine Times Square as economic hub real estate bonanza entertainment center advertising medium architectural experiment and erotic netherworld Though the volume centers on Times Square the essays venture much further into urban history and American social history revealing in the process how Times Square reflected even epitomized America as it became an urban consumer culture Tracing Henry James Melanie H. Ross, Greg W. Zacharias, 2020-11-09 Range and diversity are aims of Tracing Henry James which brings together 28 essays by established and newer Henry James scholars from eight countries in North America Europe and Asia The essays are organized into an introductory section a group of essays on Henry James's shorter fiction one on James's longer fiction one on The American Scene and James's travel essays one on James and criticism and one on Henry James's letters Time, Innovation and Mobilities Peter Frank Peters, 2006 By analyzing historic and contextualized transit practices and case studies of travel in technological cultures car travel air travel and cycling in Dutch towns this book argues that travel cannot simply be reduced to getting from A to B Dictionary of World Biography Barry Jones, 2018-05-02 Barry Jones Dictionary of World Biography weaves historical facts with perspective on the subjects and the influence they had on theirs and on modern times Gain a unique insight into the life and times of important identities cultural icons and controversial characters The Delicious History of the Holiday Fred Inglis, 2005-11-28 Our holidays lie near the heart of our emotional life enjoyed for a fortnight fed on imagination for eleven months of the year What we want from our holidays tells a lot about who we are and what we wish we were In this charming account Fred Inglis traces the rise of the holiday from its early roots in the Grand

Tour through the coming of Thomas Cook and his Blackpool packages to sex tourism and the hippie trail to Kathmandu He celebrates the bodily pleasures of generations of tourists from Edwardian banquets in Paris to fish and chips on the beach from the Bright Young Things on the Riviera to the chosen hardships of the sea the desert wastes and the mountain tops He considers the ideals and the spiritual aspirations which are part of what we look for in a holiday but he also warns of a darker current how we have increasingly destroyed what we take most pleasure in and how the dealings between those who have much and those who have little can seldom however good our intentions avoid the taint of exploitation Viewing the Islamic Orient Pallavi Pandit Laisram, 2014-07-11 The Islamic Orient studies the travel accounts of four British travelers during the nineteenth century Through a critical analysis of these works the author examines and questions Edward Said's concept of Orientalism and Orientalist discourse his argument that the orientalist view had such a strong influence on westerners that they invariably perceived the orient through the lens of orientalism On the contrary the author argues no single factor had an overwhelming influence on them She shows that westerners often struggled with their own conceptions of the orient and being away for long periods from their homelands were in fact able to stand between cultures and view them both as insiders and outsiders The literary devices used to examine these writings are structure characterization satire landscape description and word choice as also the social and political milieu of the writers The major influences in the author's analysis are Said Foucault Abdel Malek and Marie Louise Pratt
