The Literary Protégées of the Lake Poets Mr Dennis Low, 2013-04-28 Dennis Low s re evaluation of the Lake Poets as mentors begins with the controversial premise that Robert Southey was one of the nineteenth century s greatest champions of women s writing Together with Wordsworth and Coleridge Low argues Southey tried to end what he perceived to be the cultural decline of literature by nurturing the creative talents of many exceptional women writers Drawing on 3 000 unpublished manuscripts in

England Scotland and the United States Low examines the lives and works of four of the Lake Poets literary prototypes Caroline Bowles Maria Gowen Brooks Sara Coleridge and Maria Jane Jewsbury Though diverse in terms of their literary production these women were united in their defiant efforts to write against an increasingly stagnant cultural milieu and their negotiation wholeheartedly encouraged by their mentors of contemporary publishing mores This scrupulously researched book is a valuable contribution to the study of little known women writers and to our understanding of the literary and publishing environment of Britain in the 1820s and 1830s

Feldman and Brian C. Cooney discusses Tighe's work within a larger social and political context placing renewed emphasis on the conflicts she experienced as a Methodist with Anglo-Irish roots Editorial annotations shed new light on Tighe's life revealing for the first time for example that her songs were performed during her lifetime on the Dublin stage Meticulously edited this volume builds on recent pioneering scholarship to restore and burnish Tighe's reputation as a major Romantic era poet

Letitia Elizabeth Landon and Metrical Romance Serena Baiesi, 2010 Letitia Elizabeth Landon 1802 1838 was one of the leading women poets of the second generation of English Romantic writers Following her predecessor Walter Scott and her contemporary Lord Byron she was a fluent practitioner and essential innovator of the metrical romance and exerted a strong influence on the work of Victorian poets especially Elizabeth Barrett Browning Robert Browning and Christina Rossetti This book analyses Landon's poetics with particular reference to the close relationship between the narrative poem as literary genre and its gender implications Landon was both an eclectic writer and a literary businesswoman she was an extremely effective promoter of her literary work in order to support her independent life in London Furthermore she was the editor of several annuals and gift books wrote for magazines and published numerous poems novels and editorials Her active life and mysterious and premature death in Africa attracted the curiosity of many biographers during the twentieth century but only in recent times has critical attention been paid to her rich literary output This volume aims to discuss and analyse the work of a talented artist whose metrical romance strongly influenced the poetics of late Romanticism and prefigured a highly successful genre widely adopted during the Victorian age the dramatic monologue Romanticism Gendered Andrea Fischerová, 2020-11-09 This study focuses on the six writing men who have been throughout decades regarded as the alpha and omega of British Romanticism Byron Coleridge Keats Scott Shelley and Wordsworth It sees these men as a representative cohort of their time and examines their letters as results of a reading process Although letters are usually seen as additional sources of reference in literary studies in this book they are treated as the dominant information material correspondence enables to reconsider British Romanticism on the basis of the epistolary communication of the first half of the nineteenth century The target information from the letters are references to women writers and to their writings A detailed analysis of the correspondence manages to answer the question whether male Romantics regarded writing women as provoking from time to time as Duncan Wu assumes and whether the gender identity of the woman author influenced the way male readers read her literary works The examination of the correspondence thus takes a gendered perspective on British Romanticism This approach to the target research data discloses a long list of almost 120 names of women writers from different periods and of different literary genres Whereas the male readers in question have acquired a well established stable long term position within literary history the women were often marginalized even forgotten The study presents plentiful examples proving the discrepancies between what the twenty first century reader regards as the core of women s Romantic literary tradition and what the Romantic reader did The following women writers are discussed in the study in detail Susannah Centlivre Anne Finch Lady Winchelsea Ann Radcliffe Mary Robinson Felicia Hemans Mary Shelley Joanna Baillie Maria Edgeworth Maria Jane Jewsbury Catherine Grace Godwin and Emmeline Fisher

The Collected Poems and Journals of Mary Tighe Mary Tighe,2021-12-14 Mary Blachford Tighe was born in Dublin in 1772 and became a poet by the age of seventeen Her enormously popular 1805 epic poem Psyche or The Legend of Love made her a fixture of English literary history for much of the nineteenth century For much of the twentieth century however Tighe was better known for her influence on Keats s poetry than the considerable merits of her own work The Collected Poems and Journals of Mary Tighe restores Tighe to the general canon of English literature of the period With over eighty five poems including the complete Psyche and extracts from several journals both by and about Tighe Harriet Kramer Linkin s annotated edition is the most complete collection of Mary Tighe s work to be published in one volume

Sensitive Negotiations Nikki Hessell,2021-08-01 Throughout the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Indigenous peoples in North America and the Pacific engaged with the latest and most fashionable British Romantic poetry as part of transcontinental and transoceanic cross cultural negotiations about sovereignty treaty rights and land claims In Sensitive Negotiations Nikki Hessell uses examples from North America Africa and the Pacific to show how these Indigenous figures quoted lines from famous poets like Lord Byron and Felicia Hemans to build sympathy and community with their audience Hessell makes new connections by setting aside European derived genre barriers to bring literary studies to bear on the study of diplomacy and scholarship from diplomatic history and Indigenous studies to bear on literary criticism By connecting British Romantic poetry with Indigenous diplomatic texts artefacts and rituals Hessell reimagines poetry as diplomatic and diplomacy as poetic

Romantic Echoes in the Victorian Era Andrew Radford,2017-03-02 In tracing those deliberate and accidental Romantic echoes that reverberate through the Victorian age into the beginning of the twentieth century this collection acknowledges that the Victorians decided for themselves how to define what is Romantic The essays explore the extent to which Victorianism can be distinguished from its Romantic precursors or whether it is possible to conceive of Romanticism without the influence of these Victorian definitions Romantic Echoes in the Victorian Era reassesses Romantic literature s immediate cultural and literary legacy in the late nineteenth century showing how the Victorian writings of Matthew Arnold Wilkie Collins the Brontës the Brownings Elizabeth Gaskell Charles Dickens Gerard Manley Hopkins Thomas Hardy and the Rossettis were instrumental in shaping Romanticism as a cultural phenomenon Many of these Victorian writers found in the biographical literary and historical models of Chatterton Coleridge Byron Shelley Keats and Wordsworth touchstones for reappraising their own creative potential and artistic identity Whether the Victorians affirmed or revolted against the Romanticism of their early years their attitudes towards Romantic values enriched and intensified the personal creative and social dilemmas described in their art Taken together the essays in this collection reflect on current critical dialogues about literary periodisation and contribute to our understanding of how these contemporary debates stem from Romanticism's inception in the Victorian age

Fellow Romantics Beth Lau, 2016-12-05 Beginning with the premise that men and women of the Romantic period were lively interlocutors who participated in many of the same literary traditions and experiments Fellow Romantics offers an inspired counterpoint to studies of Romantic era women writers that stress their differences from their male contemporaries As they advance the work of scholars who have questioned binary approaches to studying male and female writers the contributors variously link among others Charlotte Smith and William Wordsworth Mary Robinson and Samuel Taylor Coleridge Felicia Hemans and Percy Bysshe Shelley Jane Austen and the male Romantic poets These pairings invite us to see anew the work of both male and female writers by drawing our attention to frequently neglected aspects of each writer's art Here we see writers of both sexes interacting in their shared historical moment while the contributors reorient our attention toward common points of engagement between male and female authors What is gained is a more textured understanding of the period that will serve as a model for future studies
