Rome And Canterbury:

Rome and Canterbury Mary Reath, 2007-08-29 Rome and Canterbury tells the story of the determined but little known work being done to end the nearly five hundred year old divisions between the Roman Catholic and the Anglican Episcopal Churches The break was never intended has never been fully accepted and is experienced by many as a painful and open wound It is a personal account that begins the story by reviewing the relevant history and theology looks at where we are today and concludes with some reflections on faith and belief in the US Rome and Canterbury Through Four Centuries Bernard C. Pawley, Margaret Pawley, 1981 So Near and Yet So Far Hugh Montefiore, 1986 This book is written out of a concern for closer relationships between Anglicans and Roman Catholics and from a conviction that the agreed statements of the Anglican Roman Catholic International Commission have left more unfinished business than what they have so magnificently achieved It is an overall review of the present relationship between Rome and Canterbury Many crucial topics are covered the church and its sources of authority the church and its structures of authority the laity the Mother of God Incarnate ethical thinking and especially sexual ethics and the question of women and the ministerial priesthood A great many areas of difference are still so far from being resolved that humanly speaking organic unity seems if not a hopeless proposition at least to be located where the rainbow ends But there are possible areas of progress and the last chapter looks towards the sphere of promise Rome and Canterbury, Through Four Centuries Bernard C. Pawley, Margaret Pawley, 1975 A Crossroad book Bibliography p 388 403 Rome for Canterbury, or a true relation of the birth and life of W. Laud, Archbishop of Canterbury; together with the whole manner of his proceeding ... Dedicated to all the Arminian tribe, or Canterburyan faction, in the yeare of grace, 1641. Whereunto is added all the articles by which he stands charged of high treason, etc William Laud (Archbishop of Canterbury.), 1641 Canterbury and Rome, Sister Churches Robert Hale, 1982

Rome and Canterbury Bernard L. Pawley, 1975 Rome and Canterbury Bernard Pawley, Margaret Pawley, 1974
