Disavowing Asylum Ronit Lentin, Vukasin Nedeljkovic, 2021-07-13 Disavowing Asylum presents the for profit Direct Provision asylum regime in the Republic of Ireland describing and theorizing the remote asylum centres throughout the country as a disavowed regime of racialized incarceration operated by private companies and hidden from public view The authors combine a historical and geographical analysis of Direct Provision with a theoretical analysis of the disavowal of the system by state and society and with a visual autoethnography via one of the authors Asylum Archive and Direct Provision diary constituting a first person narrative of the experience of living in Direct Provision This book argues that asylum seekers far from being mere victims of racialization and of their experiences in Direct Provision are active agents of change and resistance and theorizes the Asylum Archive project as an archive of silenced lives that brings into public view the hidden experiences of asylum seekers in Ireland s Direct Provision regime

Legacies of the Magdalen Laundries Miriam Haughton, Mary McAuliffe, Emilie Pine, 2021-11-23 This collection raises incisive questions about the links between the postcolonial carceral system which thrived in Ireland after 1922 and larger questions of gender sexuality identity class race and religion This kind of intersectional history is vital not only in looking back but in looking forward to identify the ways in which structural callousness still marks Irish society Essays include historical analysis of the ways in which women and children were incarcerated in residential institutions Ireland's Direct Provision system the policing of female bodily autonomy through legislation on prostitution and abortion in addition to the legacies of the Magdalen laundries This collection also considers how artistic practice and commemoration have acted as vital interventions in social attitudes and public knowledge helping to create knowledge and re shape social attitudes towards this history
