Room To Manoeuvre:

Au Courant, 1980 In the Name of the Poor Neil Webster, Lars Engberg-Pedersen, 2002-02 Current discourse on poverty reduction emphasises the roles of the state and the market This text stresses the importance of exploring and understanding the poor's own actions Tell Me, Where Are We Going and How Do We Get There? Ulf Lubienetzki, Heidrun Schüler-Lubienetzki, 2022-09-02 Learn the basics and techniques of a special form of conversation in this descriptive textbook facilitation Find out how facilitation supports communication and cooperation in groups and unleashes the potential existing in the group This book is a translation of the original German 1st edition Sag mal Wo geht's lang und wie kommen wir dahin by Ulf Lubienetzki Heidrun Schüler-Lubienetzki published by Springer Verlag GmbH Germany part of Springer Nature in 2020 The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence machine translation by the service DeepL.com A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content so that the book will read stylistically differently from a conventional translation Springer Nature works continuously to further the development of tools for the production of books and on the related technologies to support the authors Management in Networks Hans de Bruijn, Ernst Ten Heuvelhof, 2012-08-21 Getting what you want even if you are the boss isn't always easy Almost every organization big or small works among a network of competing interests Whether it's governments pushing through policies companies trying to increase profits or even families deciding where to move house rarely can decisions be made in isolation from competing interests both within the organization and outside it In this accessible and straightforward account Hans de Bruijn and Ernst ten Heuvelhof cast light on multi stakeholder decision making Shunning simplistic model talk they reveal the nuts and bolts of decision making within the numerous dilemmas and tensions at work Using a diverse range of illustrative examples throughout their perceptive analysis examines how different interests can either support or block change and the strategies available in managing a variety of stakeholders This insightful text provides both depth of understanding and a wealth of advice It is invaluable reading to students working in business and management public administration and organizational studies plus practitioners or actors operating in a range of contexts Climate Change Adaptation and Development Tor Håkon Inderberg, Siri Eriksen, Karen O'Brien, Linda Sygna, 2014-11-20 Climate change poses multiple challenges to development It affects lives and livelihoods infrastructure and institutions as well as beliefs cultures and identities There is a growing recognition that the social dimensions of vulnerability and adaptation now need to move to the forefront of development policies and practices This book presents case studies showing that climate change is as much a problem of development as for development with many of the risks closely linked to past present and future development pathways Development policies and practices can play a key role in addressing climate change but it is critical to question to what extent such actions and interventions reproduce rather than address the social and political structures and development pathways driving vulnerability The chapters emphasise that adaptation is about much more than a set of projects or interventions to reduce specific impacts of climate change it is about living with change while also transforming the processes that contribute to vulnerability in the first place This book will help students in the field of climate change and development to make sense of adaptation as a social process and it will provide practitioners policymakers and researchers working at the interface between climate change and development with useful insights for approaching adaptation as part of a larger transformation to sustainability Contested Civil Society in Myanmar Maaïke Matelski, 2025-05-20 EPDFs of chapters 4 5 and 7 are available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence This book illustrates the ways in which contestations in Myanmar society are reflected in civil society It provides an up to date overview of the main identities and contestations in Myanmar society as a whole European Integration and Postcolonial Sovereignty Games Rebecca Adler-Nissen, Ulrik Gad, 2013-05-02 This book examines how sovereignty works in the context of European integration and postcolonialism Focusing on a group of micro polities associated with the European Union it offers a new understanding of international relations in the context of modern sovereignty This book offers a systematic and comparative analysis of the Overseas Countries and Territories OCTs the EU and the four affected Member States UK France the Netherlands and Denmark Contributors explore how states and state like entities play sovereignty games to understand how a group of postcolonial entities may strategically use their ambiguous status in relation to sovereignty The book examines why former colonies are seeking greater room to manoeuvre on their own whilst simultaneously developing a close relationship to the supranational EU Methodologically sophisticated this interdisciplinary volume combines interviews participant observation textual legal and institutional analysis for a new theoretical approach to understanding the strategic possibilities and subjectivity of non sovereign entities in international politics Bringing together research on European integration and postcolonial theory European Integration and Postcolonial Sovereignty Games will be of interest to students and scholars of International Relations EU studies Postcolonial studies International Law and Political Theory Public Relations and the Power of Creativity Sarah Bowman, Adrian Crookes, Øyvind Ihlen, Stefania Romenti, 2018-10-04 This volume demonstrates a range of possibilities for creative thinking about public relations management and collaboration in different settings and with different purposes The chapters hint at opportunities point towards innovation and challenge our thinking about the power of creativity Between Coercion and Private Initiative Ralf Banken, Roman Köster, Ben Wubs, 2022-09-19 This book explores the extent of private companies freedom of action during the Nazi period through six case studies of different economic sectors Since the mid 1990s historical research has intensively discussed the role played by private domestic and foreign enterprises during the Third Reich Numerous case studies suggest that even under the extreme ideological circumstances of the Third Reich the strategic decisions of private firms followed economic criteria In fact the regime was especially able to control the economy successfully in those cases in which it operated with economic incentives and gave companies room for manoeuvre This scope however became increasingly smaller towards the end of the war due to increasing state intervention and government control The chapters discuss this scope of action and relate it to the National Socialist crimes This book was originally published as a special issue of Business History The City in Urban Poverty C. Lemanski, C. Marx, 2015-05-12 The contributors respond to the absence of critical debate surrounding the ways in which spaces of the city do not merely contain but also constitute urban poverty The volume explores how the spaces of the city actively produce and reproduce urban poverty
