The Heart of the Man is Residence of Whom? Joseph Ngoma ,2025-10-17 A MAN BEHAVES AS HIS ENTIRE THINGS THAT DWELL IN HIM is not just a book but a revelation for all of humanity both Christians and non Christians alike This book is meant for people worldwide Inspired and powerfully guided by Joseph Ngoma it seeks to reveal why many individuals behave in strange ways often wondering why they act out or misbehave The truth is people often act according to the spiritual beings that dwell within them Today much of the misbehavior seen in people is not truly their own but rather the influence of animals snakes beasts mermaids and other creatures that possess them These beings exert control over many humans including those in churches leading to strange and unruly behavior This is why the need for deliverance is so critical Who can truly know the heart except God No one can fully understand the heart of another This book explores the hidden depths of the human heart revealing how unseen forces influence people's actions often beyond their own awareness

Melville's Short Fiction, 1853-1856 William B. Dillingham,2008 This study treats comprehensively the sixteen short works of fiction that Herman Melville wrote between 1853 and 1856 most of which were published in Harper's and Putnam's magazines Concentrating on the writer's two basic motivations for writing as he did in these stories Dillingham argues that Melville created a surface of almost inane congeniality in many of the works an illusion of vapidty that camouflages a profundity often missed by his readers He sought to to hide disturbing themes because the magazines for which he was writing would almost certainly have rejected his attempts to be more direct Dillingham's method is not however confined to a reading of the texts Melville's stories contain so many allusions to the contemporary scene that they constitute in themselves a cultural study An important contribution of Melville's Short Fiction is its discussion of these allusions Finally Dillingham examines the relationship between the short fiction and Melville's own life Much of the writer's frustration and struggle is concealed in these early works Melville's friendship with Hawthorne for example an intense and yet in some ways disappointing relationship for both men is explored as an important influence on several of the stories Getting Dads on Board Jane Baskwill, 2009 Get dads involved in literacy learning with these fantastic strategies for forging home school relationships
