Roots Of Miro:

The Roots of Miró Gimferrer, Pere, Joan Miró, 1993 By comparing Spanish artist Joan Miro's finished paintings and sculptures with more than 1200 of his sketches and preparatory studies Gimferrer places Miro's art in a surprising new perspective. Marvelously illustrated with 285 radiant color plates and 1276 in black and white this intensive analysis of Miro's creative process explains how he would first isolate some element from the teeming outside world then incorporate a graphic sign into it thus setting in motion a transfigurative process in which objects signs and symbols underwent a constant metamorphosis. In placing Miro's preliminary drawings alongside the pictures to which they gave rise Spanish poet and art critic Gimferrer illuminates the inner alchemy by which Miro discovered his major motifs and set them loose in a free floating pictorial universe. Joan Miró Janis Mink, 2000 Modernism Joan Miro Margit Rowell, 1992-08-22 For nearly seven decades the ebullient art of Joan Miro 1893-1983 Spanish painter sculptor ceramist and mythmaker has intrigued and enchanted art lovers worldwide. This collection of his writings presents a portrait of the artist in his own words. Miro's notebooks letters and interviews reveal the work and life of a brilliant artist revered for his uncanny expression of the subconscious. Joan Miró Joan Miró, 2008 Taking Joan Miró's notorious declaration of 1927 "I want to assassinate painting" as its point of departure this richly illustrated volume is the first to focus on Miró the anti painter identifying the core practices and strategies the artist used to challenge painting between 1927 and 1937. Joan Miró Painting and Anti Painting 1927-1937 surveys the various material iconographical and rhetorical forms of Miró's attacks on painting by presenting in chronological sequence 12 distinct series of works beginning with a remarkable group of paintings on unprimed canvas and concluding with Miró's return to Realism in Still Life with Old Shoe 1937. Acidic color grotesque disfigurement stylistic heterogeneity and the use of resistant ready made materials are among the key tactics of aggression that are explored in this extraordinary presentation of the interrelated and oppositional series of paintings collages objects and drawings Miró produced during this crucial decade of his long career. This volume integrates close scrutiny of Miró's materials and processes with historical and iconographic analysis leading to an expanded understanding of the underappreciated aggressiveness of an artist long regarded as Surrealism's most lyrical painter poet. Joan Miró was born in 1893 in Barcelona. After his first trip to Paris in 1920 and through 1931 Miró generally spent half of each year in the French capital and half in his native Catalonia returning to live in France after the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War in 1936. One of the twentieth century's greatest Modern artists Miró created a pictorial world of intense imaginative power in which visionary and cosmic elements are inextricably intertwined with the earthly and mundane. He died in 1983 in Palma de Mallorca Spain. Constellations of Miro, Breton Paul Hammond, 2000-06 In Constellations of Miro Breton Paul Hammond unravels some of the mysteries of the call and response of these two Surrealists by reading the pictures against the poetry the poetry against the pictures and both against the madness of a history that none of us has left that far behind. BOOK JACKET Miro Barnes & Noble, Janis Mink, 1996
