

The poster features a large, semi-transparent image of a family (a man, a woman, and two children) in the upper half, set against a warm, golden sunset background. The man is in the center, looking slightly to the right. The woman is on the left, looking forward. Two children are in the foreground, looking down. The title 'SIBLINGS' QUEST: OUR LONG LOST JOURNEY' is overlaid in white, bold, sans-serif font. Below the title, there is a smaller, semi-transparent image of a family in a rural setting, possibly a village, with a traditional tiled roof visible. The overall color palette is warm, dominated by yellows and oranges, suggesting a nostalgic or emotional theme.

Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Journey's Seekers B. K. Parent, 2014-03 At the great summer fair in the capital city of Sommerhjem the evil Regent is forced to step down due to the calling of the Gylden Sirklene challenge leaving the future of the country hanging in the balance One year to the day the challenge is called all nine pieces of the oppgave ringe must be delivered to the capital Four are already there but five more need to be found Chance a dreamer and adventure seeker has been chosen by his family to return to Sommerhjem to retrieve a piece of the oppgave ringe his father hid before the family fled the country to escape certain demise But what he thought would be a grand adventure turns out to be more than he bargained for he is thrown into the brig on a smuggler's ship and that only marks the beginning of his troubles Meanwhile Yara secures work in the royal library where she secretly begins researching the whereabouts of a piece of the oppgave ringe her family was once charged with keeping safe But what she eventually uncovers soon takes her and her fox companion Toki on a dangerous expedition to Sommerhjem's border In this continuing fantasy two seekers embark on separate journeys to find treasured objects and return them to their rightful place without any idea of where life is about to take each of them Unsung John Ialtluangliana, 2016-08-23 There are stories that were never told dreams that were never whispered and victories that were never celebrated As the world spins on its own rhythm we dance to the music we hear There are things we often fail to see and messages we often miss out We fret at our loss cry at our wounds and weep over what we've lost These poems will make you see beyond the dark days and learn that you are more than who you think you are And above all you will realize that you're not alone in your suffering There are messages that you can relate to and some that will let you think of yesterday and then tomorrow Together we shall share our tears of joy and sorrow The Girl in the Green Glass Mirror Elizabeth Cooke, 2015-02-17 A shared obsession with a Victorian painter brings together two strangers in Elizabeth Cooke's extraordinary novel about the timelessness of art and love Catherine Sergeant loses people First her parents died leaving her alone in the world Now her husband Robert has just walked out without warning or explanation Catherine conceals her pain and sticks to life's comforting routines reporting for work as usual at the fine arts auction house she co owns Then she meets widowed architect John Brigham Catherine and John feel an immediate connection They are both fascinated by the paintings of Richard Dadd a Victorian artist who murdered his father and was locked away in an insane asylum Interweaving the present with fleeting snapshots of the past Dadd in moments of lunacy and lucidity that culminate in the act of creation The Girl in the Green Glass Mirror takes readers to that exalted place where reality and creativity intersect Filled with vibrant unforgettable characters it is a novel of discovery reawakened passion and the ability of art to shape lives and transcend madness tragedy and even time itself The Freest the very nature of travel to the Middle East changed Suddenly ordinary men and women found themselves visiting the region as British influence increased Missionaries soldiers and spies as well as tourists and explorers started to visit the area creating an ever bigger supply of writers and market for their books In a similar fashion as the Empire receded in the wake of World War II so did the whole tradition of Middle East travel writing In this elegantly crafted book James Canton examines over one hundred primary sources from forgotten gems to the classics of T E Lawrence Thesiger and Philby He analyses the relationship between Empire and author showing how the one influenced the other leading to a vast array of texts that might never have been produced had it not been for the ambitions of Imperial Britain This work makes for essential reading for all of those interested in the literature of Empire travel writing and the Middle East Our Journey Around the World Francis Edward Clark,1895

The Girl in the Green Glass Mirror Elizabeth McGregor,2006 Hailed for her remarkably accomplished and poignant work Washington Post acclaimed author Elizabeth McGregor returns with a haunting love story about two lost souls brought together by chance and bonded forever by a mystery that transcends madness tragedy and time itself Catherine Sergeant is adept at going through the motions After losing her parents at an early age she buried her grief in the study of antiquities Now deserted by her husband without warning or explanation she reports to work at Pearson's auction house exchanging pleasantries with colleagues never revealing her pain Cocooned in loneliness she couldn't be more surprised to find herself opening up to a total stranger a new client no less In widowed architect John Brigham Catherine finds a kindred spirit The two share a fascination with Richard Dadd an early Victorian painter who lived most of his life incarcerated in an insane asylum There he produced his most stunning works works that have deeply moved Catherine and now draw her inexorably to John Soon the two are falling in love The reawakening of passion in a woman like Catherine is more than John ever hoped for But when she discovers his possession of an unknown Dadd it is just the first in a series of revelations that leave her wondering if she knows this man who has shown her life's true beauty For John it may be a last chance to free himself from the priceless secrets he has been harboring too long Secrets about a soul laid bare on canvas and a legacy that could shatter all he holds dear in the space of a heartbeat A compelling blend of human drama art and history this intriguing tale casts a spell that lingers far beyond the final page and celebrates the strength we all must find within our hearts From the Hardcover edition unforeseen and timeless capacities the unknown is been decoded in exchange for rising ancient dilemmas long lost quests and titanic agents which clearly intends to dethrone historical charlatanism with a kind of post modern equivalency Through centuries of proven controversial or even speculative historical events this book represents a timeless voyage in search of the so required antidote for Internet Societies and Reality Leaving to the reader the option of discerning what can hypothetically resemble any realistic experience or what should be tolerated as fruit of incredulous imagination this book is introduced as a truly distinct approach which on a quest format based on a pertinent logical projection inspired on the presented web allow us to see the end of the Internet that we have all loved but also how we can try to save it away from blindfolded systematizations and fanatic capitalism With incredible coincidences in relation to the new realities that have been presented to our sane collective mentality upon the emergence of Internet I ve carefully assembled several known historical facts plus many more other pertinent visions that might lie on our creative minds to provide a proper image in relation to the unknown challenges which we have all been confronting since the inception of Internet In an overall approach this book also reveals a very thrilling fictional not proven and imaginary story crafted with the main objective of inspiring the ideal logical functioning for the Internet as based on the worldwide implementation of a carefully architected plan The Purpose After all modern technology should not be the same as what is written in History Shadow and Shelter Anthony

Wilson,2009-09-18 To early European colonists the swamp was a place linked with sin and impurity to the plantation elite it was a practical obstacle to agricultural development For the many excluded from the white southern aristocracy African Americans Native Americans Acadians and poor rural whites the swamp meant something very different providing shelter and sustenance and offering separation and protection from the dominant plantation culture Shadow and Shelter The Swamp in Southern Culture explores the interplay of contradictory but equally prevailing metaphors first the swamp as the underside of the myth of pastoral Eden that defined the antebellum South and second the swamp as the last pure vestige of undominated southern ecoculture As the South gives in to strip malls and suburban sprawl its wooded wetlands have come to embody the last part of the region that will always be beyond cultural domination Examining the southern swamp from a perspective informed by ecocriticism literary studies and ecological history Shadow and Shelter considers the many representations of the swamp and its evolving role in an increasingly multicultural South Faulkner and Formalism

Annette Trefzer,Ann J. Abadie,2012-05-01 Faulkner and Formalism Returns of the Text collects eleven essays presented at the Thirty fifth Annual Faulkner and Yoknapatawpha Conference sponsored by the University of Mississippi in Oxford on July 20 24 2008 Contributors query the status of Faulkner s literary text in contemporary criticism and scholarship How do scholars today approach Faulkner s texts For some including Arthur F Kinney and James B Carothers returns of the text is a phrase that raises questions of aesthetics poetics and authority For others the phrase serves as an invitation to return to Faulkner s language to writing and the letter itself Serena Blount Owen Robinson James Harding and Taylor Hagood interpret returns of the text in the sense in which Roland Barthes characterizes this shift his seminal essay From Work to Text For Barthes the text is not to be thought of as an object but as a methodological field a notion quite different from the New Critical understanding of the work as a unified construct with intrinsic aesthetic value Faulkner's language itself is under close scrutiny in some of the readings that emphasize a deconstructive or a semiological approach to his writing Historical and cultural contexts continue to play significant roles however in many of the essays The contributions by Thadious Davis Ted Atkinson Martyn Bone and Ethel Young Minor by no means ignore the cultural contexts but instead of approaching the literary text as a reflection a representation of that context whether historical economic political or social these readings stress the role of the text as a challenge to the power of external ideological systems By retaining a bond with new historicist analysis and cultural studies these essays are illustrative of a kind of analysis that carefully preserves attention to Faulkner's sociopolitical environment The concluding essay by Theresa Towner issues an invitation to return to Faulkner's less well known short stories for critical exposure and the pleasure of reading
