Long Term Financial Planning Creative Strategies For Local Government Practical Management Series:

Long-term Financial Planning Jeffrey I. Chapman, 1987 Financial Management for Local Governments, 1999
Capital Projects John Matzer, 1989 Managing for Tomorrow Amy Cohen Paul, 1990 Local Economic Development R. Scott Fosler, 1991 Balanced Growth John Melvin DeGrove, 1991 Police Practice in the '90s James J. Fyfe, 1989 The Public Administrator's Companion Sandra Emerson, Kathy Van Ness, Georgianna Streeter, Linda-Marie Sundstrom, Parker G. Emerson, 2022-12-05

The second edition of The Public Administrator's Companion: A Practical Guide examines the most important elements of public administration. The authors provide readers with a keen understanding of how government works, useful for both students and practitioners of public administration. The book discusses governmental structure, human resources, and public funding. It delineates administrators' actions in strategic planning, consensus building, budget development, performance measurement, and public policy assessment and implementation. This edition includes new chapters on nonprofit organizations and leadership for administrators, as well as an appendix about preparing and making presentations. The previous edition's appendix on getting a job in local government has been revised to include interviewing and hiring from the perspectives of both the agency and applicant. Real-world examples and cases from the local, state, and federal level reinforce key topics. Each chapter ends with a Practicing Public Administration section that provides helpful exercises for building the skills described in the chapter and a Bibliography which provides useful source materials that can broaden the reader's comprehension of the chapter.

Examines the latest developments in employee compensation. Includes pay for performance, incentive pay, and skill-based pay, and shows how benefit packages have evolved to include dental and vision care, day care, eldercare, wellness, and employee assistance programs, legal services, and other nontraditional components.

Scanlon, 1987 Urban Planning in Mexico Paavo Monkkonen, Jorge Canez, Aurora Echavarría, 2020-12-31

This book examines the scope of urban planning in Mexico through case studies of four municipalities: Campeche, Hermosillo, León, and Morelia, that have recently updated their plans using new federal guidelines. We seek to advance a research agenda on the impacts of planning and its effectiveness by proposing some foundations for how to assess planning processes, as well as to provide guidance for the federal government of Mexico in its oversight of municipal planning practice and recommendations for the four cities we study. We begin with the concern that the debate over whether urban planning in Mexico works suffers from a lack of shared definitions about what is and is not within the scope of urban planning and a shared conceptual framework for assessing the planning process. The case studies were conducted as part of a graduate studio in the Department of Urban Planning at UCLA They rely on multiple interviews with planners and professionals in each city as well as documentary and data analysis and literature reviews We use a framework of five processes creating a plan implementing the plan raising revenue to fund urban infrastructure upgrading existing neighborhoods to ensure equal access across neighborhoods and investing in new infrastructure to support growth Each case presents a brief urban history and contextual data a description of local government planning activities the current plan the city's political history and transparency in local planning an assessment of planning processes the mechanisms for changing land uses and examples one infrastructure project and enforcement of land use rules and an evaluation of the plan itself including some GIS analysis local zoning and federal policy The book's recommendations fall into three areas making plans into part of an ongoing and iterative process increasing coordination between municipal budgeting and planning and creating transparency and public input to the planning process More specifically we find that new plans often ignore successes and failures of prior plans they do not periodically assess indicators to gauge impact and discretionary changes in between plan updates diminishes the importance of the plan itself In the second area we argue that the scope of planning must be expanded The plan should be integrated with the municipal budgeting process and municipalities in Mexico should work to generate more local revenues to adequately fund plans Finally in the third area we recommend making planning documents zoning maps and basic data on urban conditions accessible to the public A lack of transparency and the often opaque decision making processes harm the legitimacy of governance We also outline how the federal government can play a role in advancing these recommendations for local planning processes

State of the World's Cities 2010/2011, 2010 One billion people worldwide live in slums and that figure is predicted to reach 2 billion by 2030 This new volume from UN HABITAT unpacks the complex social and economic issues using the novel conceptual framework of the urban divide State of the World's Cities 2010/11

Un-Habitat, 2010-08-12 The world's urban population now exceeds the world's rural population What does this mean for the state of our cities given the strain this global demographic shift is placing upon current urban infrastructures Following on from previous State of the World's Cities reports this edition uses the framework of The Urban Divide to analyse the complex social political economic and cultural dynamics of urban environments In particular the book focuses on the concept of the right to the city and ways in which many urban dwellers are excluded from the advantages of city life using the framework to explore links among poverty inequality slum formation and economic growth The volume will be essential reading for all professionals and policymakers in the field as well as a valuable resource for researchers and students in all aspects of urban development Published with UN Habitat GrEEEn Solutions for Livable Cities Sonia Chand Sandhu, Ramola Naik Singru, John Bachmann, Vaideeswaran Sankaran, Pierre Arnoux, 2016-02-01 This publication is a result of a 2 year innovative exploratory and reflective study of cities as unique urban spaces that support life work and play It responds to major issues that affect the quality of life of urban residents This publication offers practical ways on how urban managers urban practitioners businesspeople and citizens can engage to make cities more livable by building on their distinctive physical social cultural and economic characteristics With the adoption of the Sustainable Development Goals by the United Nations the book comes at the right time to offer integrated urban development solutions that can translate global development commitments into urban level actions to achieve livable cities
