

The Bend in the Road

This is the place where the child
Felt sick in the car and they pulled over
And waited in the shadow of a house.
A tall tree like a cat's tail waited too.
They opened the windows and breathed
Easily, while nothing moved. Then he was better.

Over twelve years it has become the place
Where you were sick one day on the way to the lake.
You are taller now than us.
The tree is taller, the house is quite covered in
With green creeper, and the bend
In the road is as silent as ever it was on that day.

Piled high, wrapped lightly, like the one cumulus cloud
In a perfect sky, softly packed like the air,
Is all that went on in those years, the absences,
The faces never long absent from thought,
The bodies alive then and the airy space they took up
When we saw them wrapped and sealed by sickness
Guessing the piled weight of sleep
We knew they could not carry for long;
This is the place of their presence: in the tree, in the air.

Looking for a Sign in the West Peter Tuttle, 2003 Looking for a Sign in the West describes in a 200 page road poem the author's search for himself and someplace he can call home in the American West Shutterbabe Deborah Copaken, 2002-01-08 NATIONAL BESTSELLER The remarkable memoir of an ambitious young photojournalist who went off to war as a twenty-two year old girl and came back four years and many adventures later a woman Eloquent and well observed not only about the memoirist but about the world war death photojournalism and of course the worldwide battle between the sexes The Washington Post Book World In 1988 fresh out of Harvard Deborah Copaken Kogan moved to Paris with a small backpack a couple of cameras the hubris of a superhero and a strong thirst for danger She wanted to see what a war would look like when seen from up close Na vely she figured it would be easy to filter death through the prism of her wide angle lens She was dead wrong Within weeks of arriving in Paris after begging to be sent where the action was Kogan found herself on the back of a truck in Afghanistan her tiny frame veiled from head to toe the only woman and the only journalist in a convoy of rebel freedom fighters Kogan had not actually planned on shooting the Afghan war alone However the beguiling French photographer she'd entrusted with both her itinerary and her heart turned out to be as dangerously unpredictable as well a war Kogan found herself running from one corner of the globe to another each linked to the man she was involved with at the time From Zimbabwe to Romania from Russia to Haiti Kogan takes her readers on a heartbreaking yet surprisingly hilarious journey through a mine strewn decade her personal battles against sexism battery and even rape blending seamlessly with the historical struggles of war revolution and unfathomable abuse it was her job to record In the end what was once adventurous to the girl began to weigh heavily on the woman Though she had finally been accepted into photojournalism's macho fraternity her photographs splashed across the front pages of international newspapers and magazines Kogan began to feel there was something more she was after Ultimately what she discovered in herself was a person a woman for whom life not death is the one true adventure to be cherished above all East and West: Poems Bret Harte, 2019-07-02 The Real West Marginal Way: A Poet's Autobiography Richard Hugo, 1992-06-17 Of Richard Hugo's Making Certain It Goes On David Wagoner has written Richard Hugo spared himself and us no pains or joys in making the wonderful vigorous original poems brought together in this single collection His was and is a very important voice in modern American poetry Hugo was also an editor of the Yale Younger Poets series and a distinguished teacher and master of the personal essay Now many of his essays have been assembled and arranged by Ripley Hugo the poet's widow and a writer and teacher and Lois and James Welch writers and close friends of the poet Together the essays constitute a compelling autobiographical narrative that takes Hugo from his lonely childhood through the war years and his working and creative life to an interview just before his death in 1982 William Matthews also a friend of Hugo's has written an introduction

Abandoned Way Out West Diana Burbano, 2021-01-01 a play by Diana Burbano with additional music by Tom Shelton

Aquilina is a clever courageous and imaginative girl who leads a group of orphans in a recently abandoned wild west town. The town should belong to a kindly if woolly headed widow who can't find the deed. When three mysterious strangers appear to rescue the orphans and start a pie making business it looks like the orphans' luck has finally changed. But while the other kids take these kind strangers to heart Aquilina remains mistrustful and starts to poke her nose into the truth. She discovers that two of the strangers belong to a vicious gang and are about to sell all the orphans into servitude and take the town for themselves. They've also kidnapped a young girl and threaten to do harm to the widow. Aquilina, with the help of the young kidnapped girl, tricks the strangers into revealing themselves and uses her wits and a lemon cream pie to outsmart the gang and save the town. Drama Full length 60-70 minutes 15-35 actors gender flexible casting Milestones of the Way: How East Meets West to Enrich Your Life Reverend Paul Lachlan Peck, 2011-07-15 Author Reverend Paul Lachlan Peck believes that millstones can be turned into milestones that adverse experiences can become opportunities for spiritual growth and magnificent manifestations. By listening to the small voice of Spirit God you too can overcome the millstones in your own life. Peck explores the intriguing ideas and puzzling questions of New Age teachings in this revised volume originally titled Intermediate Spiritual Metaphysics. By examining the positive forces that manifest throughout the four major quadrants of life: health, wealth, work, and love, Peck also shows how these forces work within the four primary institutions: church, finance, government, and education. The Judaic Christian student of New Age theology will find answers to complex spiritual questions in this easy to read book that has been divided into the following three sections. Part One considers dharma, karma, reincarnation, and life between lives. Part Two discusses the governance, authority, and responsibility of the universe. Part Three devotes itself to the Revelation of St. John the Divine, the teachings that relate to daily spiritual life. Milestones of the Way will provide you with an empowerment that heals and ultimately advances you on a path toward spiritual contentment.
