Hindu Theology in Early Modern South Asia Kiyokazu Okita, 2014 Focusing on the idea of genealogical affiliation sampradaya Kiyokazu Okita explores the interactions between the royal power and the priestly authority in eighteenth century north India He examines how the religious policies of Jaisingh II 1688 1743 of Jaipur influenced the self representation of Gaudiya Vaisnavism as articulated by Baladeva Vidyabhusana ca 1700 1793 Gaudiya Vaisnavism centred around God Krsna was inaugurated by Caitanya 1486 1533 and quickly became one of the most influential Hindu devotional movements in early modern South Asia In the increasingly volatile late Mughal period Jaisingh II tried to establish the legitimacy of his kingship by resorting to a moral discourse As part of this discourse he demanded that religious traditions in his kingdom conform to what he conceived of as Brahmanically normative In this context the Gaudiya school was forced to deal with their lack of clear genealogical affiliation lack of an independent commentary on the Brahmasutras and their worship of Goddess Radha and Krsna who according to the Gaudiyas were not married Based on a study of Baladeva's Brahmasutra commentary Kiyokazu Okita analyses how the Gaudiyas responded to the king's demand

He authored more than fifty volumes of English translation and commentaries on Sanskrit and Bengali texts serving as a medium between these distant authorities and his modern Western readership and using his writings as blueprints for spiritual change and a revolution in consciousness. He had to speak the language of a people vastly disparate from the original recipients of his tradition's scriptures without compromising fidelity to the tradition. Tamal Krishna Goswami claims that the social scientific philosophical and insider forms of investigation previously applied have failed to explain the presence of a powerful interpretative device a mahavakya or great utterance that governs and pervades Prabhupada's living theology of devotion on bhakti. For Prabhupada the wide range of vedic subject matter is governed by the axiomatic truth Krishna is the Supreme Personality of Godhead. Goswami's academic training at the University of Cambridge his thirty years experience as a practitioner and teacher and his extensive interactions with Prabhupada as both personal secretary and managerial representative afforded him a unique opportunity to understand and illuminate the theological contribution of Prabhupada. In this work Goswami proves that the voice of the scholar practitioner can be intimately connected with his tradition while sustaining a mature critical stance relative to his subject.
