A New Paradigm for Translators of Literary and Non-Literary Texts

Michela Canepari,2022-07-18 Over the years translation has increasingly become a necessary tool to function in contemporary society Based on years of research and teaching activity within the field this book offers a useful and effective paradigm for the translation of different types of texts guiding readers towards the realisation of effective translation projects The several contrastive analyses presented and the suggestions offered throughout will help readers appreciate the implications and consequences of every translation choice encouraging them to develop reading and translating skills applicable to the variety of texts they face in everyday life from novels to comic books films and television series

The Art of Women in Contemporary China Patricia Eichenbaum Karetzky,2020-01-08 This book presents in eight chapters the work of over 75 Chinese female artists both pictorial and poetic Their art is viewed within a framework of eight themes The broad topics explored include the body life the representation of the experience of being a woman home and the world a view of children and other women clothes social conscience fantasy and abstraction nonfigurative work and its viability as a medium to express the spiritual These themes provide several lenses through which to enjoy and compare these artists approaches and outputs The volume is unique in its inclusion of poetry by contemporary women whose voices articulate so many of the same concerns as the visual artists In China poetry has always been the prime form of artistic expression and it remains so today Looking at this poetry affords us a different means of appreciating the art of women in contemporary society

A Blue Hand Deborah Baker,2008 Baker presents a literary exploration of the Beats encounter with India in the 1960s a journey led by Allen Ginsberg that inspired and influenced generations of Americans and Indians alike
