Literature and the Idea of Luxury in Early Modern England

Alison V. Scott, 2016-05-06 Exploring the idea of luxury in relation to a series of neighboring but distinct concepts including avarice excess licentiousness indulgence vitality abundance and waste this study combines intellectual and cultural historical methods to trace discontinuities in luxury s conceptual development in seventeenth century England The central argument is that as luxury was gradually Englished in seventeenth century culture it developed political and aesthetic meanings that connect with eighteenth century debates even as they oppose their so called demoralizing thrust Alison Scott closely examines the meanings of luxury in early modern English culture through literary and rhetorical uses of the idea She argues that while luxury could and often did denote merely lust or licentiousness as it tends to be glossed by modern editors of contemporary works its cultural lexicon was in fact more complex and fluid than that at this time Moreover that fuller understanding of its plural and shifting meanings as they are examined here has implications for the current intellectual history of the idea in Western thought The existing narrative of luxury s conceptual development is one of progressive upward transformation beginning with the rise of economic liberalism amidst eighteenth century debates it is one that assumes essential continuity between the medieval treatment of luxury as the sin of luxuria and early modern notions of the idea even as social practises of luxury explode in early seventeenth century culture

The Real Interior Nthabi Taukobong, 2019-05-01 In my own home is where my journey of healing began NTHABI TAUKOBONG The Real Interior not only allows the reader a behind the scenes peek into the glitz and glamour of design and decor but into a career once never considered an option for a young girl born in Soweto As one of the first black and very recognisable faces of Interior Design in Africa Nthabi Taukobong was thrust into the limelight from the very start of her profession Spanning a career of more than 23 years she has worked on esteemed residential and leisure projects for presidents African royalty captains of industry and five star hotels to name but a few Through the rough and often very challenging terrain of her chosen career sprinkled generously with the high end glamour of prestigious interiors that Nthabi has been privileged to work on she learned that she in fact had to be seated right within her own interior before she could offer anything further to those in search of her creative gift And as she searched and explored the greater world of design trying to grasp what it really took to be an esteemed designer the journey unexpectedly brought her right back into her own home Not only Nthabi's physical home but also to her inner home the place that she refers to as her real interior It was in writing a letter one evening congratulating herself on reaching the milestone of 21 years in her career that Nthabi discovered she was not only writing to herself but to every creative Her letter ended up being an entire book and Nthabi finally understood how her unique story could inspire and encourage others
