Mach Mit Mach Mit:

Amnesiopolis Eli Rubin, 2016 Amnesiopolis explores the construction of Marzahn the largest prefabricated housing project in East Germany built on the outskirts of East Berlin in the 1970s and 1980s and touted by the regime as the future of socialism It focuses particularly on the experience of East Germans who moved often from crumbling slums left over as a legacy of the nineteenth century into this radically new place one defined by pure functionality and rationality a material manifestation of the utopian promise of socialism Eli Rubin employs methodologies from critical geography urban history architectural history environmental history and everyday life history to ask whether their experience was a radical break with their personal pasts and the German past Amnesiopolis asks can a dramatic change in spatial and material surroundings sever the links of memory that tie people to their old life narratives and if so does that help build a new socialist mentality in the minds of historical subjects The answer is yes and no as much as the East German state tried to create a completely new socialist settlement divorced of any links to the pre socialist past the massive construction project uncovered the truth buried literally in the ground which was that the urge to colonize the outskirts of Berlin was not new at all Furthermore the construction of a new city out of nothing using repeating identical buildings created a panopticon like effect giving the Stasi the possibility of more complete surveillance than they previously had , The Palgrave Handbook of International Communication and Sustainable Development Muhammad Jameel Yusha'u, Jan Servaes, 2021-08-29 The Palgrave Handbook of International Communication and Sustainable Development is a major resource for stakeholders interested in understanding the role of communication in achieving the UN S Sustainable Development Goals Bringing together theoretical and applied contributions from scholars in Europe Africa the Middle East Asia and North America the handbook argues that communication is a key factor in achieving the global goals and suggests a review of the SDGs to consider its importance Reflecting on the impact of COVID 19 it highlights the need for effective communication infrastructure and critically assesses the 2030 agenda and timeline Including individual SDG and country case studies as well as integrated analysis the chapters seek to enrich understanding of communication for development and propose crucial policy interventions It is critical reading for researchers as well as policy makers and NGOs The European Image of God and Man Hans-Christian Günther, Andrea A. Robiglio, 2010-10-07 The present volumes unite papers which explore the European image of god and man as the unquestioned basis of the concept which determines what western society defines as human rights and puts it in an intercultural context by comparative essays on chinese islamic and buddhist thinking The volume covers issues which range from classical antiquity until contemporary philosophy and science Bach's Chorals Charles Sanford Terry, 1915

Power and Society in the GDR, 1961-1979 Mary Fulbrook, 2009 The communist German Democratic Republic was founded in 1949 in the Soviet occupied zone of post war Germany This book looks at its history and how people came to terms with their new lives behind the Wall In the 1960s and 1970s a fragile stability emerged characterized by consumer socialism international recognition and détente Growing participation in the micro structures of power and conformity to the unwritten rules of an increasingly predictable system suggest increasing accommodation to dominant norms and conceptions of socialist normality These essays explore the ways in which lower level functionaries and people at the grass roots contributed to the formation and transformation of the GDR from industry and agriculture through popular sport and cultural life to the passage of generations and varieties of social experience
