The Manors of Suffolk: The hundreds of Babergh and Blackbourn Walter Arthur Copinger, 1905 Death at a Country Mansion Louise R. Innes, 2020-12-01 First in a new series this lively cozy has glamour intrigue and romance Booklist Fans of Agatha Christie won't want to miss this delightful new mystery set in the charming village of Edgemoor in Surrey England where you'll find the latest styles the juiciest gossip and the most tantalizing murder clues No one would ever accuse famous opera star Dame Serena Levant of lacking a flare for the dramatic Unfortunately it's curtains down on the dysfunctional diva when she's found dead at the bottom of a staircase in her elegant home Solving an opera singer's murder may not be the typical hairdresser's aria of expertise But Dame Serena was the mother of Daisy's best friend Floria so Daisy must do or dye her best to get to the roots of the case When a priceless Modigliani painting in the house is reported missing the mystery gets even more tangled Even though the gruff but handsome Detective Inspector Paul McGuinness tells the stylist to stay out of his hair Daisy is determined to make sure the killer faces a stern makeover behind bars A promising debut with scads of interesting characters a spirited heroine and a hint of romance Kirkus Reviews Enjoyable will appeal to readers of Elizabeth J Duncan's Penny Brannigan mysteries Library Journal Death at a Country Mansion has more twists than a French braid Sherry Harris If you enjoy British manor houses a touch of budding romance and a good mystery like I do I highly recommend Death at a Country Mansion Vikki Walton A little romance a little art history and a gorgeous mansion a page turner that is fun and intriguing ACF Bookens A

Prescription for Death Celina Grace, Please note this is a novella length piece of fiction about 20 thousand words I had a surge of kinship the first time I saw the manor perhaps because we d both seen better days It is 1947 Asharton Manor once one of the most beautiful stately homes in the West Country is now a convalescent home for former soldiers Escaping the devastation of post war London is Vivian Holt who moves to the nearby village and begins to volunteer as a nurse s aide at the manor Mourning the death of her soldier husband Vivian finds solace in her new friendship with one of the older patients Norman Winter someone who has served his country in both world wars Slowly Vivian s heart begins to heal only to be torn apart when she arrives for work one day to be told that Norman is dead It seems a straightforward death but is it Why did a particular photograph disappear from Norman s possessions after his death Who is the sinister figure who keeps following Vivian Suspicion and doubts begin to grow and when another death occurs Vivian begins to realise that the war may be over but the real battle is just beginning A Prescription for Death is the second in the Asharton Manor Mysteries series a four part series of novellas spanning the twentieth century Each standalone story uses Asharton Manor as the backdrop to a devious and twisting crime mystery from bestselling crime writer Celina Grace author of The Kate Redman Mysteries

BOOK JACKET Death Matters Tora Holmberg,Annika Jonsson,Fredrik Palm,2019-04-05 This book investigates death as part of contemporary everyday experience and practices Through a cultural sociological lens it studies death as it remains constantly at the edge of our consciousness shaping the ways in which we move through social reality As such Death Matters is a significant contribution to death studies going beyond traditional parameters of the field by addressing the cultural omnipresence of death The contributions analyse several death related meaning making processes arguing that meanings emerging from culturally shared narratives social institutions and material conditions are just as important as death practices in understanding the role of death in society Drawing on the related themes of places of absence and presence disease and bodies and persons and non persons the authors explore a variety of areas of social life from haunting to celebrity deaths to move the notion of death from the margins of social reality to ongoing everyday life This far reaching collection will be of use to scholars and students across death studies sociology anthropology philosophy culture media and communication studies

The Complete History of the Black Death Ole Jørgen Benedictow, 2021 Completely revised and updated for this new edition Benedictow's acclaimed study remains the definitive account of the Black Death and its impact on history The first edition of The Black Death collected and analysed the many local studies on the disease published in a variety of languages and examined a range of scholarly papers The medical and epidemiological characteristics of the disease its geographical origin its spread across Asia Minor the Middle East North Africa and Europe and the mortality in the countries and regions for which there are satisfactory studies are clearly presented and thoroughly discussed The pattern pace and seasonality of spread revealed through close scrutiny of these studies exactly reflect current medical work and standard studies on the epidemiology of bubonic plague Benedictow's findings made it clear that the true mortality rate was far higher than had been previously thought In the light of those findings the discussion in the last part of the book showing the Black Death as a turning point in history takes on a new significance OLE J BENEDICTOW is Professor of History at the University of Oslo The Manors of Suffolk: The hundreds of Thingoe, Thredling, Wangford, and Wilford, including a general index to the holders of the manors Walter Arthur Copinger, 1911 Calendar of the Close Rolls Preserved in the Public Record Office England.
