Jazz and Cocktails Jans B. Wager, 2017-03-21 Film noir showcased hard boiled men and dangerous femmes fatales rain slicked city streets pools of inky darkness cut by shards of light and occasionally jazz Jazz served as a shorthand for the seduction and risks of the mean streets in early film noir As working jazz musicians began to compose the scores for and appear in noir films of the 1950s black musicians found a unique way of asserting their right to participate fully in American life Jazz and Cocktails explores the use of jazz in film noir from its early function as a signifier of danger sexuality and otherness to the complex role it plays in film scores in which jazz invites the spectator into the narrative while simultaneously transcending the film and reminding viewers of the world outside the movie theater Jans B Wager looks at the work of jazz composers such as Miles Davis Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn Chico Hamilton and John Lewis as she analyzes films including Sweet Smell of Success Elevator to the Gallows Anatomy of a Murder Odds Against Tomorrow and considers the neonoir American Hustle Wager demonstrates how the evolving role of jazz in film noir reflected cultural changes instigated by black social activism during and after World War II and altered Hollywood representations of race and music Mystery, Suspense, Film Noir and Detective Movies on DVD John Howard Reid, 2009-09-01 Over 1 200 DVDs in the mystery suspense and film noir categories were examined and rated for this illustrated guide The book is divided into two main sections In the first 218 movies are given the glamour treatment with comprehensive details of players and crews plus background information and reviews In the second section essential details on over 500 films are briefly described Bonus articles includes a survey of The Thin Man series Sherlock Holmes Humphrey Bogart versus Alan Ladd Raymond Chandler on the Big Screen and The Big Clock This book will not only prove most useful for all movie fans but will enthrall and entertain for years to come The Films of Robert Wise Richard C. Keenan, 2007-08-22 From his early days as a film editor at RKO studios where he helped Orson Welles shape Citizen Kane to his success as a director and producer of musical blockbusters of the 1960s Robert Wise had a long and illustrious film career Unlike contemporaries such as Alfred Hitchcock John Ford or Howard Hawks however Wise s films lack any clearly discernible characteristics to signify his work There are few striking camera angles or visual flourishes that might distract from the primary obligation to present the story And like Hawks Wise never specialized in one or two genres but brought his directing skills to all manner of films His work as a director resists auteur categorization and that is a chief reason why some critics have been unduly negative in their consideration of his work In The Films of Robert Wise Richard Keenan examines the nearly forty features that represent the director s career from Curse of the Cat People in 1944 to A Storm in Summer 2001 the only television production Wise ever directed Keenan offers a reappraisal of Wise s films so that the true quality of his work can be better appreciated Keenan argues that if there was a flaw in Robert Wise as a director it was that he lacked the ego and temperament of the artist which was not necessarily a flaw at all Indeed Wise was a conscientious craftsman who saw his work not primarily as a vehicle for his own ideas and visual style but as an opportunity to present narrative that quite simply engages informs and entertains It was this perspective that helped produce a number of memorable films over the years including the gritty noir Born to Kill the one two punch of The Set Up and Somebody Up There Likes Me the sci fi prophecy The Day the Earth Stood Still and the gripping indictment of capital punishment I Want to Live classics all Wise also won a pair of Oscars for two of the most memorable not to mention successful musicals of all time West Side Story and The Sound of Music Drawing on more than 30 hours of interviews with Wise as well as additional interviews with a number of his collaborators Keenan offers a welcome reassessment of the director s work In his analysis of each film Keenan reveals both Wise the craftsman and the artist In doing so The Films of Robert Wise finally confers upon this underappreciated director the recognition he deserves John Lewis and the Challenge of "Real" Black Music Christopher Coady, 2016-10-04 The first scholarly study of John Lewis and the Third Stream music of the Modern Jazz Quartet Softly, With Feeling Edward Berger, 2014-04-28 Edward Berger tells Wilder s remarkable story from his growing up in working class Philadelphia to becoming one of the first 1 000 black Marines during World War II with tremendous feeling and extensive reminiscences by Wilder and his colleagues including renowned Philadelphia area musicians Jimmy Heath and Buddy DeFranco Berger also places Wilder's experiences within a broader context of American musical and social history

The Gladiators vs. Spartacus, Volume 2 Abraham Polonsky, 2020-12-21 This publication of Abraham Polonsky's unproduced screenplay for The Gladiators is a tribute to one of Hollywood's premiere post WW II directors and writers whose career was severely impacted by the blacklist His script for The Gladiators survives to remind us that he could and did transform a difficult and complex novel of an ancient slave rebellion into a screenplay worthy of Arthur Koestler's bold fictional vision Through a combination of the ambivalence of its executive producer and star plus bad timing it never went before the cameras This book is published in the hope that The Gladiators will be produced for cinema or television
