Living in the Land of Limbo Carol Levine, 2021-04-30 AAUP Books Committee Outstanding Title of 2015

Living in the Land of Limbo is the first anthology of short stories and poems about family caregivers These men and women find themselves in limbo as they struggle to take care of a family member or friend in the uncertain world of chronic illness The authors explore caregivers experiences as they deal with family conflicts the complexities of the health care system and the impact of their choices on their lives and the lives of others The book includes selections devoted to caregivers of aging parents husbands and wives ill children and relatives lovers and friends A final section is devoted to paid caregivers and their clients Among the conditions that form the background of the selections are dementia HIV AIDS mental illness multiple sclerosis and pediatric cancer Many of the authors are well known poets and writers but others have not been published in mainstream media They represent a range of cultural backgrounds Although their works approach caregiving in very different ways the authors share a commitment to emotional truth unvarnished by societal ideals of what caregivers should feel and do These stories and poems paint profoundly moving and revealing portraits of family caregivers

Cold War Poetry Edward Brunner, 2001 Mainstream American poetry of the 1950s has long been dismissed as deliberately indifferent to its cultural circumstances In this penetrating study Edward Brunner breaks the placid surface of the hollow decade to reveal a poetry sharply responsive to issues of its time Cold War Poetry considers the fifties poem as part of a dual cultural project as proof of the competency of the newly professionalized poet and as a user friendly way of initiating a newly educated upwardly mobile postwar audience into high culture Brunner revisits Richard Wilbur Randall Jarrell and other acknowledged leaders of the period as well as neglected writers such as Rosalie Moore V R Lang Katherine Hoskins Melvin B Tolson and Hyam Plutzik He also examines the one sided authority of the male dominated book review process the ostracizing of female and minority poets poetic fads such as the ubiquitous sestina and the power of the classroom anthology to establish criteria for reading Attributing the gradual change in poetic style during the 1950s to the slow collapse of the authority of the state Brunner shows how a secretive anxious poetics developed in the shadow of a disabled government He recontextualizes the much maligned domestic verse of the 1950s reading its shift toward the private sphere and the recurrent image of the child as a reflection of the powerlessness of the post nuclear citizen Through a close examination of poetry written about the Bomb he delineates how poets registered their growing sense of cosmic disorder in coded language resorting to subterfuge to continue their critique in the face of sanctions levied against those who questioned government policies Brilliantly decoding the politics embedded in the poetry of an ostensibly apolitical time Cold War Poetry provides a powerful rereading of a pivotal decade
