Imagining God Humberto Casanova, 2020-02-05 An ever growing number of Christians are becoming more and more uncomfortable with the tenets of the church the stories of the Bible and the church's worldview Statistics show that these feelings easily escalate into a crisis of faith and for now their predicament is being resolved by leaving the church This book will certainly help dealing with the crisis by showing that the language of faith is built by a web of metaphors taken from the Ancient Near East We do not need to take biblical language literally but as parables for human values in need to be assessed critically A Cultural History of Ideas in Classical Antiquity Clifford Ando, Thomas Habinek, Giulia Sissa, 2025-05-15 PRAISE FOR A CULTURAL HISTORY OF IDEAS VOLUMES 1-6 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE 2023 AAP PROSE AWARDS WINNER BEST HUMANITIES REFERENCE WORK The essays in this volume of the award winning A Cultural History of Ideas explore essential domains of reflection and practice in the cultures of ancient Greece and Rome Ranging from knowledge to nature the human self to the linguistic and figurative arts and ethics to politics to religion the contributors produce an entirely new history of ideas The distinctive intellectual life of antiquity is not simply shown in the area of theory nor is it merely seen in context Instead this volume reveals how ancient societies generated knowledge and representations in their culture and embodied practice The 6 volume set A Cultural History of Ideas is part of The Cultural Histories Series Titles are available in print for individuals or for libraries needing just one subject or preferring a tangible reference for their shelves or as part of a fully searchable digital library The digital product is available to institutions by annual subscription or on perpetual access via www.bloomsburyculturalhistory.com Individual volumes for academics and researchers interested in specific historical periods are also available in print or digitally via www.bloomsburycollections.com Ancient Science Through the Golden Age of Greece George Sarton, 2012-10-16 Remarkably readable thoroughly documented and well illustrated this fascinating book by an eminent science historian covers problems of mathematics astronomy physics and biology Representations John Bennet, 2021-08-30 This volume presents a series of reflections on modes of communication in the Bronze Age Aegean drawing on papers presented at two round table workshops of the Sheffield Centre for Aegean Archaeology on Technologies of Representation and Writing and Non Writing in the Bronze Age Aegean Each was designed to capture current developments in these interrelated research areas and also to help elide boundaries between science based and humanities based approaches and between those focused on written communication especially its content and those interested in broader modes of communication Contributions are arranged thematically in three groups the first concerns primarily non written communication the second mainly written communication and the third blurs this somewhat arbitrary distinction Topics in the first group include use of color in wall paintings at Late Bronze Age Pylos a re interpretation of the Harvester Vase from Ayia Triada re readings of the sequence of grave stelae at Mycenae of Aegean representations of warfare and of how ritual architecture is represented in the Knossos wall paintings and the use of painted media to represent depictions in other lost media such as cloth Topics in the second group range from defining Aegean writing itself through the contexts for literacy and how the Linear B script represented language to a historical exploration of early attempts at deciphering Linear B In the third group Linear B texts and archaeological data are used to explore how people were represented diacritically through taste and smell and how different qualities of time were expressed both textually and materially the roles of images in Aegean scripts complemented by a Peircian analysis of early Cretan writing a consideration of the complementary role of non literate sealing and literate writing practices and concludes with a further exploration of the color palette used at Pylos

Ancient Greece, Modern Psyche Virginia Beane Rutter, Thomas Singer, 2015-04-10 Between ancient Greece and modern psyche lies a divide of not only three thousand years but two cultures that are worlds apart in art technology economics and the accelerating flood of historical events This unique collection of essays from an international selection of contributors offers compelling evidence for the natural connection and relevance of ancient myth to contemporary psyche and emerges from the second Ancient Greece Modern Psyche conference held in Santorini Greece in 2012 This volume is a powerful homecoming for those seeking a living connection between the psyche of the ancients and our modern psyche This book looks at eternal themes such as love beauty death suicide dreams ancient Greek myths the Homeric heroes and the stories of Demeter Persephone Apollo and Hermes as they connect with themes of the modern psyche The contributors propose that the link between them lies in the underlying archetypal patterns of human behaviour emotion image thought and memory Ancient Greece Modern Psyche Archetypes Evolving makes clear that an essential part of deciphering our dilemmas resides in a familiarity with Western civilization's oldest stories about our origins our suffering and the meaning or meaninglessness in life It will be of great interest to Jungian psychotherapists academics and students as well as scholars of classics and mythology

Love and its Critics Michael Bryson, Arpi Movsesian, 2017-07-10 This book is a history of love and the challenge love offers to the laws and customs of its times and places as told through poetry from the Song of Songs to John Milton's Paradise Lost It is also an account of the critical reception afforded to such literature and the ways in which criticism has attempted to stifle this challenge Bryson and Movsesian argue that the poetry they explore celebrates and reinvents the love the troubadour poets of the eleventh and twelfth centuries called fin amor love as an end in itself mutual and freely chosen even in the face of social religious or political retribution Neither eros nor agape neither exclusively of the body nor solely of the spirit this love is a middle path Alongside this tradition has grown a critical movement that employs a hermeneutics of suspicion in Paul Ricoeur's phrase to claim that passionate love poetry is not what it seems and should be properly understood as worship of God subordination to Empire or an entanglement with the structures of language itself in short the very things it resists The book engages with some of the seminal literature of the Western canon including the Bible the poetry of Ovid and works by English authors such as William Shakespeare and John Donne and with criticism that stretches from the earliest readings of the Song of Songs to contemporary academic literature Lively and enjoyable in its style it attempts to restore a sense of pleasure to the reading of poetry and to puncture critical insistence that literature must be outwitted It will be of value to professional graduate and advanced undergraduate scholars of literature and to the educated general reader interested in treatments of love in poetry throughout history Heritage - Between and Beyond Nature, Culture and Agency Joanna Godlewicz-Adamiec, Monika Stobiecka, 2025-08-11 In an era of climate emergency and political upheaval heritage demands radical rethinking This volume confronts the Enlightenment rooted dualisms that fragment heritage into opposing categories By embracing posthumanist concepts like naturecultures and agency this volume explores entangled human and nonhuman pasts from the contested Biaowie a Forest to ancient sensory environments Through case studies spanning archaeology museum studies and literary analysis contributors unravel heritage as a dynamic more than human meshwork This collection is an urgent call to transcend reductive binaries fostering an ethical responsive and sustainable heritage practice attuned to our shared precarious futures The United States Catalog, 1925 Spiritual Vegetation Guita Lamsechi, Beatrice Trîncea, 2022-04-11 This volume concerns premodern understandings of vegetal nature that encompass multiple semantics and perspectives Scholars from the disparate fields of art history literature and religious studies present tantalizing studies of trees and plants in sacred and secular thought Some discuss the concept of the Book of Nature and its implications Others explore narratives of symbiosis between humans and vegetal material tree dwelling hermits spirits metamorphosing into wood flowers or trees that sprout from bodies or the dissolution of the self into the natural world Complementary to these approaches are studies that suggest a collapsing of time and space in spiritually charged yet ambiguous natural motifs or topographies where forests or groves are spaces of transformative experience Cumulative Book Index, 1925 A world list of books in the English language The Promise of Not-Knowing David E. Fredrickson, 2022-04-12 David E Fredrickson asks a key question for interpreters of the New Testament in the twenty first century Do established ways of reading the New Testament need to be challenged and new ones explored His answer is yes but he takes care not to dismiss readers experiences in the previous two millennia He values the readings of the past even as he contests the insights of scholars preachers monks nuns skeptics the devout the disinterested the keenly interested and all the rest who have tried to make sense of the earliest Christian writings Fredrickson does not want to give an impression of I know better than them But he goes on to say that strange as it sounds not knowing is actually the point of this book More than anything else not knowing is I believe the key to reading the New Testament in the twenty first century Fredrickson claims that the reduction of a text to its usefulness is something a deconstructive approach seeks to avoid That leads to readings in which practicality enjoys a privilege over mystery knowing wins out over not knowing and control triumphs over hope Ultimately his goal in this book is to give mystery hope and not knowing a chance For Fredrickson the experience of reading is more than coming to know something or receiving information and the more that he has in mind exists in the shock of encountering some other or something that is not easily assimilated to an already known world a familiar horizon or the repeatability of language What if reading the New Testament meant giving an unexpected other a chance to take place and to change the world you thought was an unchangeable given What if we thought of reading as a way of preparing for what postmodernism calls an event The Destruction of Jerusalem in Early Modern English Literature Beatrice Groves,2015-09-16 This book argues that the destruction of Jerusalem is a key explanatory trope for early modern texts

"Neither Letters nor Swimming": The Rebirth of Swimming and Free-diving John M. McManamon,2021-03-01 In a novel study of the impact of classical culture John McManamon demonstrates that Renaissance scholars rediscovered the importance of swimming to the ancient Greeks and Romans and conceptualized the teaching of swimming as an art The ancients had a proverb that described a truly ignorant person as knowing neither letters nor swimming McManamon traces the ancient textual and iconographic evidence for an art of swimming demonstrates its importance in warfare and highlights the activities of free divers who exploited the skill of swimming to earn a living Renaissance theorists of a humanist education first advocated a rebirth for swim training Erasmus included the classical proverb in his Adages and two sixteenth century scholars wrote treatises in dialogue form on methods for teaching young people how to swim
