Oeuvres Completes Tome 5:

Literary Medicine: Brain Disease and Doctors in Novels, Theater, and Film J. Bogousslavsky, S. Dieguez, 2013-03-07
Classical and modern literature is full of patients with interesting neurological cognitive or psychiatric diseases often including detailed and accurate descriptions which suggests the authors were inspired by observations of real people In many cases these literary portrayals of diseases even predate their formal identification by medical science Fictional literature encompasses nearly all kinds of disorders affecting the nervous system with certain favorites such as memory loss and behavioral syndromes There are even unique observations that cannot be found in scientific and clinical literature because of the lack of appropriate studies Not only does literature offer a creative and humane look at disorders of the brain and mind but just as authors have been inspired by medicine and real disorders clinicians have also gained knowledge from literary depictions of the disorders they encounter in their daily practice This book provides an amazing and fascinating look at neurological conditions patients and doctors in literature and film in a way which is both nostalgic and novel

Dismemberment in Drama / Dismemberment of Drama Lance Norman, 2021-02-03 Dismemberment in Drama
Dismemberment of Drama is an essay collection which considers the dramatic possibility contained in the images and narratives of dismemberment frequently recurring on the western stage The Classical Tragedies of Sophocles and Euripides the Romanticism of Kleist the surrealism of Artaud and the contemporary drama of Suzan Lori Parks and Marina Carr are just some of the fractured and fragmented bodies analyzed in this collection Both individually and in concert the contributors ask what a dismembered body means Such an inquiry allows them to confront dismemberment as a theoretical category which understands such twentieth century innovations as the Theatre of Cruelty the Epic Theatre the Open Theater and documentary theatre as part of a long dramatic tradition Dismemberment in drama examines the tenuous bond between representation and the object being represented by highlighting the dismemberment of drama as a form that occurs during drama s repeated theorizations of its own enactment There is a conflict between disintegration and unity inherent in mimesis theatrical phenomenology and performance

Tristan Tzara and Mário de Andrade's Journeys from Ethnography to the Avant-Garde Nefeli Zygopoulou, 2021-05-14 This book presents a comparative study of Tristan Tzara 1896 1963 and M rio de Andrade 1893 1945 analysing their contributions to oral language traditions and to the body of criticism on modernism This is the first work to offer an analysis of Tzara s posthumously published prose Personnage d'insomnie and the first in the English language that explores de Andrade s libretto for the opera Caf as well as other examples of their poetry and prose The Romanian Jewish poet and writer Tzara later a naturalised French citizen became a central figure in the European avant garde from 1916 when he took part in the Dada Movement Mario de Andrade the Brazilian poet writer and musicologist of mixed origins was a contemporary of Tzara and a similarly central figure in the 1922 S o Paulo Modern Art Week that defined Brazilian Modernism Both emerged from very different backgrounds but they followed a parallel creative path This book discusses their research and adaptation of various language manifestations ethnopoetics and folk traditions that led them to the creation of distinct and individual styles The historical and socio political events of the late 1930s would later prompt both authors to develop militant poetics Through chronologically compatible case studies the reader will discover that Tzara and de Andrade alongside their playful language actively criticised cultural imperialism and advocated against hate Journeys can be physical and intellectual they can crisscross leave traces and overlap This book takes the reader from two starting points a small Romanian town in the foothills of the Carpathians and a two storey house in an unusually tranquil street in S o Paulo Brazil to the heart of the twentieth century avant garde As it shows Tristan Tzara and M rio de Andrade traversed borders and geographical points and their poetics meet in Mozambique Parisian caf s and Bantu chants The

Self-Emptying Subject Alex Dubilet, 2018-04-03 Against the two dominant ethical paradigms of continental philosophy Emmanuel Levinas s ethics of the Other and Michel Foucault s ethics of self cultivation The Self Emptying Subject theorizes an ethics of self emptying or kenosis that reveals the immanence of an impersonal and dispossessed life without a why Rather than aligning immanence with the enclosures of the subject The Self Emptying Subject engages the history of Christian mystical theology modern philosophy and contemporary theories of the subject to rethink immanence as what precedes and exceeds the very difference between the human self and the divine other between the subject and transcendence By arguing that transcendence operates and subjects life in secular no less than in religious domains this book challenges the dominant distribution of concepts in contemporary theoretical discourse which insists on associating transcendence exclusively with religion and theology and immanence exclusively with modern secularity and philosophy The Self Emptying Subject argues that it is important to resist framing the relationship between medieval theology and modern philosophy as a transition from the affirmation of divine transcendence to the establishment of autonomous subjects Through an engagement with Meister Eckhart G W F Hegel and Georges Bataille it uncovers a medieval theological discourse that rejects the primacy of pious subjects and the transcendence of God Eckhart retrieves a modern philosophical discourse that critiques the creation of self standing subjects through a speculative re writing of the concepts of Christian theology Hegel and explores a discursive site that demonstrates the subjecting effects of transcendence across theological and philosophical operations and archives Bataille Taken together these interpretations suggest that if we suspend the antagonistic relationship between theological and philosophical discourses and decenter our periodizing assumptions and practices we might encounter a yet unmapped theoretical fecundity of self emptying that frees life from transcendent powers that incessantly subject it for their own ends

Oeuvres Complètes de Christiaan Huygens Christiaan Huygens, 1920 The Thought Awaits Us All Daniela Calabrò, 2024-10-25 This volume shows how Nancy was able to deconstruct the founding sign of all metaphysics and all transcendence by redefining the concepts of existence corporeality and community opening them up to the disclosure of the outside to the exception of the world It draws on the work of the Italian philosopher Roberto Esposito and includes a dialogue between Nancy and Esposito The overcoming of the modern perspective is covered by Descartes and Hegel who are analyzed in light of Nancy This text proposes a deconstruction of the Western tradition in its philosophical aesthetic and political registers and conveys a new ontology that breaks with the categories of the One and the Multiple the Universal and the Particular in order to identify the relationship between the plural and the singular and understand what it means to be together to be in common to be in the world It is suitable for scholars researchers and students of philosophy and comparative literature Œuvres complètes Georges Louis Leclerc de Buffon,1839 The Orchestration of the Arts —

A Creative Symbiosis of Existential Powers Marlies Kronegger,2000-06-30 What is Art This perennial question is forcefully thrown open by the present day electronic expansion of its field and proliferation of arts Toward the treatment of this great question with deepest philosophical underpinnings this collection of studies means to lay a ground It is presumed that art transcendental the designs of the cosmos might yield some of their mysteries while we investigate the Orchestration of the Arts stretching into all main lines of the human creativity literature history and encompassing the distinctive and yet symbiotically inclined music song painting opera drama stage decor architecture and ornament

Hegel, Marx and the Contemporary World Kaveh Boiveiri,Emmanuel Chaput,2016-06-22 This book is the result of a three day conference held in April 2014 at the University of Montreal Canada discussing the relevance of the work of Hegel and Marx in today s world particularly with regard to the ecological economic political and anthropological crisis facing humanity Accordingly the book an exploration of the specific nature of the crisis we face both in our everyday lives and in the realm of theory However if indeed the necessity of a proper critique Kritikos is intimately linked to a state of crisis Krisis the conceptual frame necessary to produce such a critique may itself be in crisis Among the vast number of critical oppositions to contemporary capitalism what are the keys available to understand the present forms of human conditions alienation and exploitation Controversies and divisions among the different tendencies within the critical tradition tend to highlight the point that there is also a theoretical crisis which prevents a proper diagnosis of the actual crisis and prevents in turn a proper plan of action from being established Looking back to Marx and Hegel allowed a return if not to the sources at least to two unavoidable influences among the various critical approaches to capitalism Be it with or against Hegel and or Marx the criticisms of modernity post modernity and capitalism cannot neglect the shadows of these thinkers Both Marx s and Hegel s philosophical sociological and political enterprises must be linked historically to the will to diagnose and solve what they saw as the most important crises of their own time from in Hegel s case the spiritual crisis which followed the advent of modernity and its accompanying turmoil to the social and political crisis caused by capitalism and the advent of a new industrial society in Marx s case Both intellectual ventures are at every turn haunted by the notion of crisis This book will appeal to anyone interested in Hegel s and Marx s philosophical and political theories Not only does it provide the historical context necessary to understand properly the relation between Marx and Hegel but it also places the relevance of their teachings for the contemporary reader in perspective A Companion to the Philosophy of Education Randall Curren, 2008-04-15 A Companion to the Philosophy of Education is a comprehensive guide to philosophical thinking about education Offers a state of the art account of current and controversial issues in education including issues pertaining to multiculturalism special education sex education and academic freedom Written by an international team of leading experts who are directly engaged with these profound and complex educational problems Serves as an indispensable guide to the field of philosophy of education Catalogue Glasgow fac. of procurators, libr, 1887 Einstein Manifolds Arthur L. Besse, 2007-12-03 Einstein's equations stem from General Relativity In the context of Riemannian manifolds an independent mathematical theory has developed around them This is the first book which presents an overview of several striking results ensuing from the examination of Einstein's equations in the context of Riemannian manifolds Parts of the text can be used as an introduction to modern Riemannian geometry through topics like homogeneous spaces submersions or Riemannian functionals The Tragicomical History of Thermodynamics, 1822-1854 C. Truesdell, 2013-03-07 Encyclopedia of Postmodernism Victor E. Taylor, Charles E.  Japanese Studies in the History of Science, 1970 Back Over the Sexual Contract Lorenzo Rustighi, 2021-12-27 Is patriarchy an illness of democratic societies or a structural problem To answer this dilemma Back Over the Sexual Contract A Hegelian Critique of Patriarchy examines the dilemma of patriarchy in modern European political theory by reopening the question of the sexual contract Through a study of the thought of Thomas Hobbes John Locke Jean Jacques Rousseau and Immanuel Kant Lorenzo Rustighi argues that the conceptual roots of male patriarchal entitlement should be sought in the logic of authorized power that underpins the modern understanding of both the state and the family Challenging the mainstream distinction between the private and the public Rustighi provocatively suggests that patriarchy is not something that undermines democracy as an alien threat but is rather inscribed in the intrinsically anti democratic effects of the concept of democracy construed by the modern rationale of the social contract He puts forward a Hegelian argument to propose an unconventional constitutional approach to feminist political theory that helps us rethink democracy beyond its inherent impasses Œuvres complètes de Buffon: Oiseaux Georges Louis Leclerc comte de Buffon, 1839 Flaubert: Transportation, Progression, Progress (Le Romantisme Et Après En France Kate Rees, 2010 Romanticism and after in France is a series designed to publish research monographs or longer works of high quality whether by established scholars or recent graduates dealing with French literature in the period from pre Romanticism to the turn of the twentieth century
