Oeuvres Esthétiques In French Language:

Theories of Art: From Winckelmann to Baudelaire Moshe Barasch, 2000 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials. Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context, dating and sources, character analysis, comic elements and verbal conceits, evidence of authorship, performance analysis and feminist interpretations. Alongside theater reviews, production photographs and critical commentary, the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play. An index by name, literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource. Modern Theories of Art: From Winckelmann to Baudelaire Moshe Barasch, 1990-02 Annotation In this volume, the third in his classic series of texts surveying the history of art theory, Moshe Barasch traces the hidden patterns and interlocking themes in the study of art from Impressionism to Abstract Art. Barasch details the immense social changes in the creation, presentation and reception of art which have set the history of art theory on a vertiginous new course: the decreased relevance of workshops and art schools; the replacement of the treatise by the critical review; and the interrelation of new modes of scientific inquiry with artistic theory and praxis. The consequent changes in the ways in which critics as well as artists conceptualized paintings and sculptures were radical, marked by an obsession with intense, immediate sensory experiences, psychological reflection on the effects of art, and a magnetic pull to the exotic and alien making for the most exciting and fertile period in the history of art criticism. Modern Theories of Art 1 Moshe Barasch, 1990-01-01 This is an analytical survey of the thought about painting and sculpture as it unfolded from the early eighteenth to the mid nineteenth centuries. This was the period during which theories of the visual arts, particularly of painting and sculpture, underwent a radical transformation as a result of which the intellectual foundations of our modern views on the arts were formed. Because this transformation can only be understood when seen in a broad context of cultural, aesthetic and philosophical developments of the period, Moshe Barasch surveys the opinions of the artists and also treats in some detail the doctrines of philosophers, poets and critics. Barasch thus traces for the reader the entire development of modernism in art and art theory. The Aesthetic Thought of the French Enlightenment Francis X. J. Coleman, 2010-11-23 For most of the twentieth century the writings of aestheticians of the French Enlightenment were neglected by philosophers and students of the fine arts. Coleman has applied philosophical analysis to the writings of Diderot, Montesquieu, Dubos, Batteux, André and Crousaz among others to reflect on the fine arts of the first two thirds of the eighteenth century. Theories of Art Moshe Barasch, 2000 First published in 2001, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an information company. Sentimental Figures of Empire in Eighteenth-Century Britain and France Lynn Festa, 2006-10-15 Publisher description The Impact of Art on French Literature Helen Osterman Borowitz, 1985 This book traces a direct line of tradition that unites the French précieux novel, Romantic and Symbolist literature, and Proust's novel cycle. The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole Secrets of Creativity Suzanne Nalbantian, Paul M.

Matthews, 2019-08-26 Secrets of Creativity What Neuroscience the Arts and Our Minds Reveal draws on insights from leading neuroscientists and scholars in the humanities and the arts to probe creativity in its many contexts in the everyday mind the exceptional mind the scientific mind the artistic mind and the pathological mind Components of creativity are specified with respect to types of memory forms of intelligence modes of experience and kinds of emotion Authors in this volume take on the challenge of showing how creativity can be characterized behaviorally cognitively and neurophysiologically The complementary perspectives of the authors add to the richness of these findings Neuroscientists describe the functioning of the brain and its circuitry in creative acts of scientific discovery or aesthetic production Humanists from the fields of literature art and music give analyses of creativity in major literary works musical compositions and works of visual art

Seducing the Eighteenth-Century French Reader Paul J. Young, 2016-12-05 As he demonstrates that narratives of seduction function as a master plot for French literature in the eighteenth century Paul Young argues that the prevalence of this trope was a reaction to a dominant cultural discourse that coded the novel and the new practice of solitary reading as dangerous seductive practices Situating his study in the context of paintings educational manuals and criticism that caution against the act of reading Young considers both canonical and lesser known works by authors that include Rousseau Sade Bastide Laclos Crillon and the writers of two widely read libertine novels How these authors responded to a cultural climate that viewed literature and especially the novel as seductive sheds light on the perils and pleasures of authorship the ways in which texts interact with the larger cultural discourse and what eighteenth century texts tell us about the dangers of reading or writing Ultimately Young argues the seduction not in the text but by the text raises questions about the nature of pleasure in eighteenth century French literature and culture The French of Medieval England Thelma S. Fenster, Carolyn P. Collette, 2017 Recent research has emphasised the importance of insular French in medieval English culture alongside English and Latin for a period of some four hundred years French variously labelled the French of England Anglo Norman Anglo French and Insular French rivalled these two languages The essays here focus on linguistic adaptation and translation in this new multilingual England where John Gower wrote in Latin while his contemporary Chaucer could break new ground in English

Diderot and the Jews Leon Schwartz, 1981 Explores the many articles that appeared in the Encyclopedie of which Diderot was the editor in order to more clearly define and interpret the philosopher's true attitudes Although many of these articles were indeed harsh in their treatment of the Jews Diderot's thinking evolves to reveal a genuine regard for this group

Sensing the Nation's Law Stefan Huygebaert, Angela Condello, Sarah Marusek, Mark Antaki, 2018-03-22 This book examines how the nation and its fundamental law are sensed by way of various aesthetic forms from the age of revolution up until our age of contested democratic legitimacy Contemporary democratic legitimacy is tied among other things to consent to representation to the identity of ruler and ruled and of course to legality and the legal forms through which democracy is structured This book expands the ways in which we can understand and appreciate democratic legitimacy If democratic communities are imagined this book suggests that their rightfulness must be sensed analogously to the need for justice not only to be done but to be seen to be done This book brings together legal historical and philosophical perspectives on the representation and iconography of the nation in the European North American and Australian contexts from contributors in law political science history art history and philosophy

"Art, History and the Senses" Gabriel Koureas, 2017-07-05 Should sight trump the other four senses when experiencing and evaluating art Art History and the Senses 1830 to the Present questions whether the authority of the visual in visual culture should be deconstructed and focuses on the roles of touch taste smell and sound in the materiality of works of art From the nineteenth century onward notions of synaesthesia and the multi sensorial were important to a series of art movements from Symbolism to Futurism and Installations The essays in this collection evaluate works of art at specific moments in their history and consider how senses other than the visual have or have not affected the works meaning The result is a re evaluation of sensory knowledge and experience in the arts encouraging a new level of engagement with ideas of style and form

Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe, 2000 Esthetics of the Moment Thomas M. Kavanagh, 2015-11-16 The literature and art of the French Enlightenment is everywhere marked by an intense awareness of the moment The parallel projects of living in representing and learning from the moment run through the Enlightenment's endeavors as tokens of an ambition and a heritage imposing its only and ultimately impossible cohesion In this illuminating study Thomas M Kavanagh argues that Enlightenment culture and its tensions contradictions and achievements flow from a subversive attention to the present as present freed from the weight of past and future Examining a wide sweep of literary and artistic culture Kavanagh argues against the traditional view of the Age of Reason as one of coherent recognizable ideology expressed in a structured narrative form In literature he analyzes the moment at work in the inebriating lightness of Marivaux's repartee the new found freedom of Lahontan's and Rousseau's ideals of a consciousness limited to the present Diderot's championing of Epicurean epistemology Graffigny's portrayal of abrupt cultural displacement and Casanova's penchant for chance's redefining moment The moment in art theory and practice is explored in such forms as de Piles's defense of color Du Bos's foregrounding of perception Watteau's indulgence in a corporeal present Chardin's dismantling of mimesis and Boucher's and Fragonard's thematics of desire      Rhapsody of Philosophy Max Statkiewicz, 2009-01-01 This book proposes to rethink the relationship between philosophy and literature through an engagement with Plato's dialogues The dialogues have been seen as the source of a long tradition that subordinates poetry to philosophy but they may also be approached as a medium for understanding how to overcome this opposition Paradoxically Plato then becomes an ally in the attempt to overturn Platonism which Gilles Deleuze famously defined as the task of modern philosophy Max Statkiewicz identifies a rhapsodic mode initiated by Plato in the dialogues and pursued by many of his modern European commentators including Nietzsche Heidegger Irigaray Derrida and Nancy The book articulates this rhapsodic mode as a way of entering into true dialogue dia logos which splits any univocal meaning and opens up a serious play of signification both within and between texts This mode he asserts employs a reading of Plato that is distinguished from interpretations emphasizing the dialogues as a form of dogmatic treatise as well as from the dramatic interpretations that have been explored in recent Plato scholarship both of which take for granted the modern notion of the subject Statkiewicz emphasizes the importance of the dialogic nature of the rhapsodic mode in the play of philosophy and poetry of Platonic and modern thought and indeed of seriousness and play This highly original study of Plato explores the inherent possibilities of Platonic thought to rebound upon itself and engender further dialogues      Scotland and France in the Enlightenment Deidre Dawson, Pierre Morère, 2004 The Scottish and French Enlightenments are arguably the two intellectual movements of the eighteenth century that were most influential in shaping the modern age The essays in Scotland and France in the Enlightenment explore a wide range of topics of historical relevance to eighteenth century scholars while engaging students with broad interdisciplinary interests in the humanities and social sciences The ways in which Scottish philosophy influenced French painting how the Encyclopaedia Britannica presented the French Revolution the impact of Macpherson's Ossian on the development of French Romanticism the moral education of children the relation between reflection and perception in the arts and in moral life humankind's relationship to other animals and the links between violence and imagination fear and sanity are only some of the topics covered This challenging selection of essays comparing Scottish and French enlightenment views of natural history jurisprudence moral philosophy history and art history complicates and enriches the notion of

Enlightenment and will inaugurate a new field of Franco Scottish studies      The Authority of Experience John C. O'Neal, 2008-08-26 Sensationism a philosophy that gained momentum in the French Enlightenment as a response to Lockean empiricism was acclaimed by Hippolyte Taine as the doctrine of the most lucid methodical and French minds to have honored France The first major general study in English of eighteenth century French sensationism The Authority of Experience presents the history of a complex set of ideas and explores their important ramifications for literature education and moral theory The study begins by presenting the main ideas of sensationist philosophers Condillac Bonnet and Helvétius who held that all of our ideas come to us through the senses The experience of the body in seeing hearing smelling tasting and touching enabled individuals as John C O'Neal points out to challenge the sometimes arbitrary authority of institutions and people in positions of power After a general introduction to sensationism the author develops a theory of sensationist aesthetics that not only reveals the interconnections of the period's philosophy and literature but also enhances our awareness of the forces at work in the French novel He goes on to examine the relations between sensationism and eighteenth century French educational theory materialism and idologie Ultimately O'Neal opens a discussion of the implications of sensationist thought for issues of particular concern to society today      Phenomenology and the Arts Peter Costello, A. Licia Carlson, 2016-09-30 Phenomenology and the Arts develops the interplay between phenomenology as a historical movement and a descriptive method within Continental philosophy and the arts Divided into five themes the book explores first how the phenomenological method itself is a kind of artistic endeavor that mirrors what it approaches when it turns to describe paintings dramas literature and music From there the book turns to an analysis and commentary on specific works of art within the visual arts literature music and sculpture Contributors analyze important historical figures in phenomenology Kant Hegel Husserl Heidegger and Merleau-Ponty But there is also a good deal of work on art itself Warhol Klee jazz and contemporary and renaissance artists and artworks Edited by Peter R Costello and Licia Carlson this book will be of interest to students in philosophy the arts and the humanities in general and scholars of phenomenology will notice incredibly rich groundbreaking research that helps to resituate canonical figures in phenomenology with respect to what their works can be used to describe
