The Dutch American Identity Terence Schoone-Jongen, 2008 Each year thousands of communities across the United States celebrate their ethnic heritages values and identities through the medium of festivals Drawing together elements of ethnic pride nostalgia religious values economic motives cultural memory and a spirit of celebration these festivals are performances that promote and preserve a community's unique identity and heritage while at the same time attempting to place the ethnic community within the larger American experience Although these aims are pervasive across ethnic heritage celebrations two festivals that appear similar may nevertheless serve radically different social and political aims Accordingly The Dutch American Identity examines five Dutch American festivals three of which are among the oldest ethnic heritage festivals in the United States in order to determine what such festivals mean and do for the staging communities Although Dutch Americans were historically among the first ethnic groups to stage ethnic heritage festivals designed to attract outside audiences and despite the fact that several Dutch American festivals have met with sustained success little scholarship has focused on this ethnic group's festivals Moreover studies that have considered festivals staged by communities of European descent have typically focused on a single festival The Dutch American Identity thus on the one hand seeks to call attention to the historical development and current sociocultural significance of Dutch American heritage festivals On the other hand this study aims to elucidate the ties that bind the five communities that stage these festivals together rather than studying one festival in isolation from the others Creatively combining several methodologies The Dutch American Identity describes and analyzes how the social political and ethical values of the five communities are expressed performed acted out represented costumed and displayed in their respective festivals Rather than relying on familiar even stereotypical notions of the Midwest rural America conservative America etc that often appear in contemporary political discourse Schoone Jongen shows just how complex and contradictory these festivals are in the ways they represent each community At the same time by placing these festivals within the context of American history Schoone Jongen also demonstrates how and why each festival is a microcosm of particular cultural social and political developments in modern America The Dutch American Identity is an important book for sociology performance studies folklore immigration history anthropology and cultural history collections The cultural & heritage guide for The Netherlands ,2025-09-24 Early Modern Women in the Low Countries Susan Broomhall,Jennifer Spinks,2016-05-13 Combining historical historiographical museological and touristic analysis this study investigates how late medieval and early modern women of the Low Countries expressed themselves through texts art architecture and material objects how they were represented by contemporaries and how they have been interpreted in modern academic and popular contexts Broomhall and Spinks analyse late medieval and early modern women s opportunities to narrate their experiences and ideas as well as the processes that have shaped their representation in the heritage and cultural tourism of the Netherlands and Belgium today The authors study female authored objects such as familial and political letters dolls houses account books visual sources funeral monuments and buildings commissioned by female patrons and further artworks as well as heritage sites streetscapes souvenirs and clothing with gendered historical resonances Employing an innovative range of materials from written sources to artworks material objects heritage sites and urban precincts the authors argue that interpretations of late medieval and early modern women s experiences by historians and art scholars interact with presentations by cultural and heritage tourism providers in significant ways that deserve closer interrogation by feminist researchers The Politics of Heritage in Indonesia Marieke Bloembergen,Martijn Eickhoff,2020-01-16 Presents a new approach to heritage formation in Asia conveying the power of the material remains of the past Heritage Languages Suzanne Aalberse,Ad Backus,Pieter Muysken,2019-11-28 Heritage languages such as the Turkish varieties spoken in Berlin or the Spanish used in Los Angeles are non dominant languages often with little prestige Their speakers also speak the dominant language of the country they live in Often heritage languages undergo changes due to their special status They have received a lot of scholarly attention and provide a link between academic concerns and educational issues This book takes a language contact perspective we consider heritage languages from the perspective of their history their structural properties and their interaction with other surrounding languages A Dutch Heritage Frank Rasky,Joan Magee,1983-01-01 Industry in the Wilderness by Frank Rasky is an account of the overcoming of natural elements in order to harvest the resource wealth of northwestern Ontario It is part of the Dundurn Local History series It is an oral history of lumberjacks gold seekers bush pilots and early hydro men Herein lies the major problem with the book Rasky attempts to cover four important aspects of northwestern Ontario in only 128 pages This impossible task is even further complicated by the fact that more than half of the book is devoted to pictures and diagrams The pictures and diagrams dominate the book to such an extent that one could ignore the text and still find a wealth of information about the topic The diagrams of a paper mill a gold mine and a hydro electric power plant could be a valuable teaching aid to students interested in those areas The pictures are exceptionally good Umanitoba ca cm cmarchive vol12no5 industryinthewilderness.html

The Cultural Landscape & Heritage Paradox Tom Bloemers, Henk Kars, Arnold Van der Valk, 2010 The basic problem is to what extent we can know past and mainly invisible landscapes and how we can use this still hidden knowledge for actual sustainable management of landscape s cultural and historical values It has also been acknowledged that heritage management is increasingly about the management of future change rather than simply protection This presents us with a paradox to preserve our historic environment we have to collaborate with those who wish to transform it and in order to apply our expert knowledge we have to make it suitable for policy and society The answer presented by the Protection and Development of the Dutch Archaeological Historical Landscape programme pdl bbo is an integrative landscape approach which applies inter and transdisciplinarity establishing links between archaeological historical heritage and planning and between research and policy
