If their purpose is strictly to catch flies, why do spiders weave such beautiful intricate webs? Did you ever wonder what causes thunder? Why is the sea salty? How did tigers get their stripes? Anyone seeking to influence others must first know their own story and how to tell it properly. Whether you're proposing a risky new venture, trying to close a deal, or leading a charge against injustice, you have a story to tell. Tell it well, and you will create a shared experience with your listeners that can have profound results. In this modern classic, Annette Simmons reminds us that the oldest tool of influence is also the most powerful. Showcasing over a hundred examples of effective storytelling drawn from the front lines of business and government, as well as myths, fables, and parables from around the world, Simmons illustrates how story can be used to persuade, motivate, and inspire in ways that cold facts, bullet points, and directives can't. These stories, combined with practical storytelling techniques, show anyone how to become a more effective communicator and achieve their goals.     Terrific Connections with Authors, Illustrators, and Storytellers Toni Buzzeo, Jane Kurtz, 1999-11-15 Exciting, productive connections with authors, illustrators, and storytellers are at your fingertips with this resource.
