Of Poetry And Poets:

In the Circumstances Peter Robinson, 1992 In the Circumstances is a study of the way people other than their authors contribute to poems Discussing work by Wordsworth Browning Hardy Pound Eliot Montale Auden Lowell and Hill the book explores how other people's lives and wider circumstances can influence the textual contexts of the poems and be felt within the works themselves These circumstances emerge in such things as allusions to political events of the day the inclusion of proper names and above all in the citation or absorption of the words of others The book asks how the poets themselves worked these circumstances into the fabric of their poems and what bearing this has on subsequent acts of revision and translation These are current issues for all those involved with poetry as readers or writers this book will provide pleasure and stimulus After his first collection of poetry Overdrawn Account 1980 Peter Robinson was described by Eric Griffiths in PN Review as the finest poet of his generation His second volume This Other Life 1988 won the Cheltenham Prize With Marcus Perrymen he has translated the complete poems of Vittorio Sereni a selection of which appeared in 1990 A new book of his own poems is due in 1992

Poetry For Dummies The Poetry Center, John Timpane, Maureen Watts, 2001-05-15 Offers advice on how to read and write poetry discussing different types of poetry ways to develop one's own creative voice and how to get one's work published with a listing of the best publications for first time poets

The Use of Poetry and the Use of Criticism Thomas Stearns Eliot, 1932 T S Eliot believed the 1932 1933 Norton Lectures collected here rather than his more famous 1919 essay Tradition and the Individual Talent represented his mature critical thought His deep erudition his existential doubt and his yearning for order animate these lectures as much as his best poems

What Are Poets For? Gerald L Bruns, 2012-06 Conceptions and practices of poetry change not only from time to time and from place to place but also from poet to poet This has never been more the case than in recent years Gerald Bruns's magisterial What Are Poets For explores typographical experiments that distribute letters randomly across a printed page sound tracks made of vocal and buccal noises and holographic poems that recompose themselves as one travels through their digital space Bruns surveys one word poems found texts and book length assemblies of disconnected phrases he even includes descriptions of poems that no one could possibly write but which are no less interesting or no less poetic for all of that The purpose of the book is to illuminate this strange poetic landscape spotlighting and describing such oddities as they appear anomalies that most contemporary poetry criticism ignores Naturally this breadth raises numerous philosophical questions that Bruns also addresses for example whether poetry should be responsible semantically ethically politically to anything outside itself whether it can be reduced to categories distinctions and the rule of identity and whether a particular poem can seem odd or strange when everything is an anomaly Perhaps our task is simply to learn like anthropologists how to inhabit such an anarchic world The poets taken up for study are among the most important and innovative in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries John Ashbery Charles Bernstein Paul Celan Kenneth Goldsmith Lyn Hejinian Susan Howe Karen Mac Cormack Steve McCaffery John Matthias J H Prynne and Tom Raworth What Are Poets For is nothing less than a lucid detailed study of some of the most intractable writings in contemporary poetry
