The Institutes of the Christian Religion John Calvin, Grace and Freedom Richard A. Muller, 2020-06-29 Grace and Freedom addresses the issue of divine grace in relation to the freedom of the will in Reformed or Calvinist theology in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century It focuses on the work of the English Reformed theologian William Perkins especially his role as an apologist of the Church of England defending its theology against the Roman Catholic polemic and specifically against the charge that Reformed theology denies human free choice Perkins and his Reformed contemporaries affirm that salvation occurs by grace alone and that God is the ultimate cause of all things but they also insist on the freedom of the human will and specifically the freedom of choice in a way that does not conform to modern notions of libertarian freedom or compatibilism In developing this position Perkins drew on the thought of Reformers such as Peter Martyr Vermigli and Zacharias Ursinus on the nuanced positions of medieval scholastics and several contemporary Roman Catholic representatives of the so called second scholasticism His work was a major contribution to early modern Reformed thought both in England and on the continent His influence in England extended both to the Reformed heritage of the Church of England and to English Puritanism On the continent his work contributed to the main lines of Reformed orthodoxy and to the piety of the Dutch Second Reformation

Institutes of the Christian Religion ... A New Translation by Henry Beveridge Jean Calvin,1863 Institutes of the Christian Religion Jean Calvin,1895 New Essays on the History of Autonomy Natalie Brender,Larry Krasnoff,Jerome B. Schneewind,2004-06-07 Kantian autonomy is often thought to be independent of time and place but J B Schneewind in his landmark study The Invention of Autonomy has shown that there is much to be learned by setting Kant s moral philosophy in the context of the history of modern moral philosophy The distinguished authors in the collection continue Schneewind s project by relating Kant s work to the historical context of his predecessors and to the empirical context of human agency This will be a valuable resource for professionals and advanced students The Institutes Of The Christian Religion, Books First and Second John Calvin, The Institutes of the Christian Religion in Latin Institutio Christianae religionis is Calvin s most known work on Protestant theology It was first published in 1536 The book was written as an introductory textbook on the Protestant faith for those with some previous knowledge of theology and covered a broad range of theological topics from the doctrines of church and sacraments to justification by faith alone and Christian liberty The whole text consists of four books this volume including the first and second Freedom from Fatalism Robert C. Sturdy,2021-08-09 Samuel Rutherford s 1600 1661 scholastic theology has been criticized as overly deterministic and even fatalistic a charge common to Reformed Orthodox theologians of the era This project applies the new scholarship on Reformed Orthodoxy to Rutherford s doctrine of divine providence The doctrine of divine providence touches upon many of the disputed points in the older scholarship including the relationship between divine sovereignty and creaturely freedom necessity and contingency predetermination and the problem of evil Through a close examination of Rutherford s Latin works of scholastic theology as well as many of his English works a portrait emerges of the absolutely free and independent Creator who does not utilize his sovereignty to dominate his subordinate creatures but rather to guarantee their freedom This analysis challenges the older scholarship while making useful contributions to the lively conversation concerning Reformed thought on freedom Human Liberty and Freedom of Speech C. Edwin Baker,1992-10-01 Although an inchoate liberty theory of freedom of speech has deep roots in Supreme Court decisions and political history it has been overshadowed in judicial decisions and scholarly commentary by the marketplace of ideas theory In this book Baker critiques the assumptions required by the marketplace of ideas theory and develops the liberty theory showing its philosophical soundness persuasiveness and ability to protect free speech He argues that First Amendment liberty rights as well as Fourteenth Amendment equality rights required by political or moral theory are central to the possibility of progressive change Problem areas are examined including the question of whether individual political and civil rights can in principle be distinguished from property rights freedom of the press and the use of public spaces for expressive purposes
