Contemporary Pentecostal Christianity J. Kwabena Asamoah-Gyadu,2013-01-11 Pentecostalism is the fastest growing stream of Christianity in the world The real evidence for the significance of Pentecostalism lies in the actual churches they have built and the numbers they attract In Africa Pentecostalism has virtually become the representative face of Christianity with even historic mission denominations pentecostalising their otherwise formal liturgical structures to survive This work interprets key theological and missiological themes in African Pentecostalism by using material from the live experiences of the movement itself An important source of primary material for instance is the popular books written by the leadership of contemporary Pentecostal churches and their media programs An example of this is that on account of its motivational hermeneutics the Eagle rather than the Dove has become the preferred symbol of the Holy Spirit in this nascent dynamic movement The interpretation of themes from contemporary African Pentecostalism in this book reveals much about how as a contemporary movement it is reshaping African Christian spirituality in the 21st century Testimonies for the Church
