Official Point Of View:

The Concept of Law from a Transnational Perspective Detlef von Daniels, 2016-03-23 This book brings together the fruits of different traditions in legal philosophy and draws on them to develop a systematic thesis on the concept of law The work uses a legal model to explore the underlying question of how the current phenomena of transnational law are best understood in combination with an examination of the traditions of Jürgen Habermas's critical theory and H L A Hart's analytic jurisprudence This leads the author to conclude that the key to a fruitful dialogue and comprehensive understanding is to appreciate that the concept of law is not state centered and must reflect relationships to other legal systems

Jurisprudence in the Mirror Luka Burazin, 2024-08-28 There is something quite puzzling about the global conversation on jurisprudence On the one hand jurisprudence is supposed to deal with abstract questions concerning the nature structure and distinctive features of the law These questions are not tightly associated with or dependent on the particular legal practices in one jurisdiction or another But on the other hand it seems that jurists are tacitly affected by their background institutional context there is an evident divide between theorizing about the law in the civil law world and in the common law world Jurisprudence in the Mirror: The Common Law World Meets the Civil Law World systematically presents the major achievements of contemporary civil law jurisprudence to the common law world and bridges the gap in analytic jurisprudence as it is currently practiced in the two traditions The volume seeks to bring different voices to the table and overcome the cultural and linguistic divides that have created barriers in philosophical exchanges The book's structure is dialogical it includes twelve essays written by prominent and influential jurists from the civil law world each followed by a response by a jurist from the common law world This approach highlights what the two worlds share where they part ways and why The varied contributions reveal how their respective legal traditions shape fundamental legal concepts and jurisprudential debates and will be invaluable to readers from both the civil and common law worlds The

Cambridge Companion to Modern Russian Culture Nicholas Rzhevsky, 2012-04-05 A fully updated new edition of this overview of contemporary Russia and the influence of its Soviet past Northern Europe Paul Koht, 1962 Engineering Culture Gideon Kunda, 2009-08-21 A revised edition of the classic text on the sociology of management and organization

Democracy and Authority in Korea Geir Helgesen, 2014-06-03 This controversial new study breaks with the tradition of basing political studies on analyses of institutions and political personalities by likening the Republic of Korea to a laboratory for the clash of political cultures In the late 1940s the Americans embarked upon a democratization programme designed to create a Western bulwark against the spread of communism in East Asia The intervening years have seen the advent and demise of military rule with South Korea now having a democratically elected government Although the US strategy thus seems successful the political crises of 1995 in fact indicate that many obstacles remain here to the adoption of Western style democracy This study argues that socialization in general and political socialization in particular are key factors in any analysis of democracy be it in Korea or elsewhere Accordingly the work draws on moral education textbooks together with surveys and interviews among members of the urban intellectual elite In this manner the psychological roots of power and authority key concepts to an understanding of good government are explored      Representations of Transnational Human Trafficking Christiana Gregoriou,2018-06-29 This open access edited collection examines representations of human trafficking in media ranging from British and Serbian newspapers British and Scandinavian crime novels and a documentary series and questions the extent to which these portrayals reflect the realities of trafficking It tackles the problematic tendency to under report particular types of victim and forms of trafficking and seeks to explore both dominant and marginalised points of view The authors take a cross disciplinary approach utilising analytical tools from across the humanities and social sciences including linguistics literary and media studies and cultural criminology It will appeal to students academics and policy makers with an interest in human trafficking and its depiction in the modern day

Migration and Mobility in Europe Heinz Fassmann,Dr. Max Haller,David Stuart Lane,2009-01-01 The papers presented in this volume form a homogeneous body of knowledge with many facets The topics researched present a wide variety This volume offers solid research on a variety of issues in the study of migration Theodore P Lianos South Eastern Europe Journal of Economics The enlargement of the European Union has had an enormous impact on migration within Europe This book addresses the form of these effects outlining the social political and economic problems created by the free movement of people within the European Union The eminent European contributors to this book explore the ways in which nation states and the EU seek to promote the benefits of migration but at the same time counter threats arising from dislocation The advantages and costs of migration are considered as is the crucial problem of who gains and loses from migration Underpinning the analysis are studies on retirement migrants in Turkey and migrant workers in countries including Austria Finland Norway Portugal Spain and the UK which highlight the impact of immigration in the host states the motivation for migration within the EU as well as the issues of societal integration of migrants and the need for control as a consequence of growing levels of migration This timely and relevant study will strongly appeal to scholars and researchers in a wide range of fields including European studies migration studies social policy human geography international relations and sociology      The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1926 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the session of the Parliament

The Metaphysics of G. E. Moore David O'Connor,2012-12-06 In this book setting aside his consideration of specifically ethical topics I try to provide a comprehensive interpretation of Moore s thought Against the background of this general interpretation I examine in detail his work on some of the central problems of metaphysics and because Moore s being able to sustain a consistent anti skepticism is essential to the survival of the base from which he works on those problems of epistemology too The interpretation of which I speak involves my taking as the centerpiece of Moore s philosophical work his book Some Main

Problems of Philosophy written in 1910 as the text of a lecture series but left unpublished for over forty years thereafter That book is aptly titled for the issues with which Moore deals in it are indeed among the main problems of philosophy Not least of these are the problems of formulating a general categorial deSCription of the world and then of defending that formulation However while I will discuss Moore s work in light of its contribution to this project of taking metaphysical inventory it is important to note that he in common with many other major figures in contemporary analytical philosophy did not approach specific philosophical puzzles with a view to possibly integrating solutions to them into a comprehensive theory about reality as a whole that is into what might be called a metaphysical system      Housing Market Renewal and Social Class Chris

Allen,2008-04-24 Housing market renewal is one of the most controversial urban policy programmes of recent years Housing Market Renewal and Social Class critically examines the rationale for housing market renewal to develop high value housing markets in place of the so called failing markets of low cost housing Whose interests are served by such a programme and who loses out Drawing on empirical evidence from Liverpool the author argues that housing market renewal plays to the interests of the middle classes in viewing the market for houses as a field of social and economic opportunities a stark contrast to a working class who are more concerned with the practicalities of dwelling Against this background of these differing attitudes to the housing market Housing Market Renewal and Social Class explores the difficult question of whether institutions are now using the housing market renewal programme to make profits at the expense of ordinary working class people Reflecting on how this situation has come about the book critically examines the purpose of current housing market renewal policies and suggests directions for interested social scientists wishing to understand the implications of the programme Housing Market Renewal and Social Class provides a unique phenomenological understanding of the relationship between social class and the market for houses and will be compelling reading for anybody concerned with the situation of working class people living in UK cities      Contemporary History in the Soviet Mirror John Keep,2024-11-26

Contemporary History in the Soviet Mirror 1964 is devoted to a critical examination of Soviet writings on contemporary history The demands of the Communist Party striving following the death of Stalin to replace the old myths with new ones encountered the opposition of individual historians The needs of the ideological front clashed with their professional conscience about historical facts Yet the Party s claim to be the infallible interpreter of historical truth would be undermined if its authority about the past could be challenged now as before he who controls the past controls the present In Krushchev s Russia however it was not only the image of the past but the degree of control over it which was modified      Political

Psychology Jon Elster,1993-01-29 The text reveals how belief and preference formation are shaped by social and political institutions argues for an important distinction between mechanisms and theories in the social sciences illustrates principles of political psychology through authoritative readings      New Frontiers in Public Library Research Carl Gustav

Cuneo, 2021-12-28 Warfare and the circumstances surrounding it have often provided important impulses for cultural production This book explores the relationship between warfare and image making in the early modern period Rather than dealing with images simply as reproductions of actual events the volume demonstrates complex processes by which political national and social identities are negotiated and fashioned in warfare imagery The book analyses three main issues the impact of war on art the ways in which warfare imagery supports dominant ideologies and the manner in which such imagery also constructs alternative identities The essays offer a broad range of methodologies while dealing with a wide array of chronological geographical and artistic materials Historians and art historians will find this volume particularly useful in its nuanced examination of the relationship between art and history Southern Postcolonialisms Sumanyu Satpathy, 2020-11-29 Southern Postcolonialisms is an anthology of critical essays on new literary representations from the Global South that seeks to re invent reorient the ideological disciplinary aesthetic and pedagogical thrust of Postcolonial Studies in accordance with the new and shifting politico economic realities transactions between the North and the South as well as within the Global South in an era of globalization Since the emergence of Postcolonial Theory in the 1980s the shape of the world has changed dramatically Old Cold War boundaries have shifted in the wake of the collapse of communism Globalization on an unprecedented scale has dramatically changed the meaning of time and space The rise of the US as a new imperial power has profound implications for the world order In the South new emerging markets have challenged the older division of industrial first world and non industrial third world In most parts of the world the academy is struggling to keep up with these developments One result has been a major transnational turn in the humanities and social sciences Terms like world history globalization glocalization and transnationalism now dominate academic agendas worldwide These changing circumstances raise far reaching questions What does the new emerging world order mean for established models of postcolonial theory Is postcolonialism as a field of study being overtaken by models of globalization and transnationalism What implications do the new configurations in the South have for postcolonial theory This volume drawn from a major literary conference at Delhi University provides a set of perspectives on these questions With a majority of contributions by scholars from the South these research articles have a dual focus they revisit older debates on postcolonial theory while suggesting new perspectives and directions Causes of Popular Dissatisfaction with the Administration of Justice United States.
