One Russia Two Chinas:

One Russia, Two Chinas George Fetherling, 2004-09-01 A travel narrative written over the course of ten years One Russia Two Chinas is about change and resistance to change in the postmodern world In 1991 when the Soviet Union was about to morph into the Russian Federation George Fetherling found himself in Moscow He both marched with the workers in the last ever Communist May Day parade and observed at ground level the new Russia s love of the marketplace Fetherling then went overland to China His entry point was Beijing which at that moment was girding itself for the first anniversary of the Tiananmen Square massacre Later that same year he journeyed to Taiwan then in its final days as a dictatorship He returned there mid decade when the Other China had become a democracy in order to note the differences and similarities This is old fashioned travel writing with vivid prose bizarre characters and crystallizing descriptions But its also a valuable document that freezes some important world events for close inspection Indochina Now and Then

George Fetherling, 2012-03-03 Follow George Fetherling as he travels through Vietnam Laos and Cambodia looking for any remaining traces of the Indochina that was In Indochina Now and Then George Fetherling recounts multiple journeys through Vietnam Laos and Cambodia keeping an eye peeled and an ear cocked for whatever faint traces of French rule might remain While doing so he searches diligently in village markets curio shops and rubbish bins not to mention bookstalls along the Seine in Paris for early picture postcards of Southeast Asia the sort that native Frenchmen and Frenchwomen sent home to Europe The book is illustrated with 60 such images most of them taken before the First World War They evoke vanished ways of life in these exotic lands of charm and cruelty that have survived the wars and turmoil of the late 20th century to emerge smiling enigmatically as the friendly face of free market socialism In its prose and pictures Indochina Now and Then is a travel narrative that will leave an indelible impression in the reader s imagination One Russia, Two Chinas George Fetherling, 2004-09 This is old fashioned travel writing with vivid prose and bizarre characters But it also freezes some important world events for close inspection Can the Two Chinas Become One?
