Past Into Present Trends And Techniques In First Person Interpretation:

Past into Present Stacy F. Roth, 2000-11-09 First person interpretation the portrayal of historical characters through interactive dramatization or roleplaying is an effective albeit controversial method used to bring history to life at museums historic sites and other public venues Stacy Roth examines the techniques of first person interpretation to identify those that have been most effective with audiences while allowing interpreters to maintain historical fidelity Past into Present focuses on first person interpretation s most challenging form the unscripted spontaneous conversational approach employed in living history environments such as Plimoth Plantation in Massachusetts Conner Prairie in Indiana and Colonial Williamsburg in Virginia While acknowledging that a wide range of methods can touch audiences effectively Roth identifies a core set of practices that combine positive communication techniques classic interpretive philosophy and time tested learning theories to promote audience enjoyment provoke thought and inquiry convey important messages and themes and relate to individual visitor interests She offers numerous examples of conversation and demonstration strategies visitor behavior profiles and suggestions for depicting conflict and controversy and she provides useful character development guidelines interpretive training advice and recommendations for adapting first person interpretation for diverse audiences Manual of Museum Exhibitions

Barry Lord, Maria Piacente, 2014-04-07 The Manual of Museum Exhibitions is a comprehensive practical guide to the entire process of planning designing producing and evaluating exhibitions for museums of all kinds The second edition explores the exhibition development process in greater detail providing the technical and practical methodologies museum professionals need today Manual of Museum Exhibitions Maria Piacente, 2022-01-20 All museum activities converge in the very public forum of the exhibition Whether large or small exhibitions are responsible for driving museum attendance and revenue as well as showcasing new research and engaging audiences in new ideas As museums move from a transmission to a visitor centered model exhibitions are more experience driven participatory and interactive built around multiple perspectives and powerful storytelling The exhibition development process is more complex than ever as audiences demand more dynamic diverse and inclusive experiences Museum leaders interpretive planners designers and curators are rising to the challenges in innovative ways This manual details the exhibition process in a straightforward way that can be easily adapted by institutions of any size It explores the exhibition planning and development process in a wealth of detail providing the technical and practical methodologies museum professionals need today This 3rd edition includes many new features and expanded chapters on evaluation virtual exhibitions multimedia travelling exhibition curiosity and motivation DEI diversity equity accessibility and inclusion while retaining the essential content related to interpretive planning roles and responsibility and content development New and exciting case studies exhibition examples and more than 200 color photos and figures illustrate every step of the process No museum or museum professional can be without this critical guide to an essential function Spaces that Tell Stories Donna R. Braden, 2019-07-12 Historical environments delight visitors because of their ability to make them feel transported to another time and place These environments found in both museum exhibitions and historic structures are usually rich with objects that hint at deeper stories and context But these spaces often lack rigor in terms of historical and interpretive methodology along with a thoughtful and purposeful integration of storytelling principles Spaces That Tell Stories Creating Historical Environments offers a fresh look at historical environments providing a roadmap for applying this rigor and integrating these principles into the creation of such environments It begins by delving into the power of these environments for museum visitors drawing upon multiple cross disciplinary fields An in depth how to methodology follows which begins with the steps of framing the project by aligning it with institutional goals defining audiences involving visitor studies and inviting community engagement It continues through the steps of researching creating interpreting refining and evaluating the impact of the environment The author s methodology is applicable to environments in both historic structures and museum exhibits from different eras places and topics It is also scalable to museums varying sizes and budgets To give a sense of how the methodology laid out in this book translates into real world practice detailed case studies appear throughout along with practical tips checklists charts descriptive photographs and source lists An extensive bibliography follows Spaces That Tell Stories Creating Historical Environments is a unique contribution to the museum field It is a must read for museum professionals installing or upgrading historic environments while the methodology and case studies also offer practical strategies for other museum professionals working with collections exhibitions and interpretation and how these are integrated thoughtful insights into museum practice for students and a helpful toolkit for local historians

Think Like a Curator Donna R. Braden, 2025-04-01 Most history museums large and small indoor and outdoor have a staff member with the title of curator or at minimum have tasks that can be classified as curator s work But understanding what is involved in doing this work is more complicated than it seems This book will help you to think like a curator Written by an author who has spent 45 years doing this type of work at one of the largest history museums in the country this book guides the reader through curatorial methodology in today's world with topics that include reading objects shaping collections engaging in rigorous research the curatorial role in exhibitions and historic site interpretation the basics of curatorial writing and curators as leaders It gives special focus to applying DEAI lenses as well as aligning with institutional mission and goals incorporating audience perspectives and using conceptual and systems thinking Both succinct and substantial this book includes easy explanations step by step process guides practical tips real life examples activities and source lists

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998-04 History Comes Alive M. J. Rymsza-Pawlowska, 2017-10-03 During the 1976 Bicentennial celebration millions of Americans engaged with the past in brand new ways They became absorbed by historical miniseries like Roots visited museums with new exhibits that immersed them in the past propelled works of historical fiction onto the bestseller list and participated in living history events across the nation While many of these activities were sparked by the Bicentennial M J Rymsza Pawlowska shows that in fact they were symptomatic of a fundamental shift in Americans relationship to history during the 1960s and 1970s For the majority of the twentieth century Americans thought of the past as foundational to but separate from the present and they learned and thought about history in informational terms But Rymsza Pawlowska argues that the popular culture of the 1970s reflected an emerging desire to engage and enact the past on a more emotional level to consider the feelings and motivations of historic individuals and most importantly to use this in reevaluating both the past and the present This thought provoking book charts the era's shifting feeling for history and explores how it serves as a foundation for the experience and practice of history making today

Strategic Management and Business Policy C Appa Rao, B Parvathiswara Rao, K Sivaramakrishna, 2009 This book on Strategic Management and Business Policy has been designed considering the problem of students in finding out an easily understandable book covering by and large all the related topics This book presents the fundamental concepts of Strategic Management with current examples and illustrations in simple lucid and student friendly manner The book along with other topics covers a Business Vision Mission and Objectives b Environmental and Internal Analysis c Corporate Business Functional Global and e Business Strategies d Strategic Analysis and Choice e Strategic Implementation Issues f Strategic Evaluation and Control g Case Study Methodology The main feature of this book is a comprehensive coverage of popular analytical frameworks such as i SWOT Analysis ii Porter's Five Forces Model iii Ansoff's Product Market Grid iv Value Chain Analysis v BCG Matrix In addition concepts like core competence competitive advantage customer driven strategy etc are elaborated extensively in the book The book is very useful for the courses such as MBA PGDBA BBA BBM and other professional programmes at graduate and postgraduate level

Porter,Bryan R. Dyer,2016-02-24 The Apostle Paul lived and breathed in a Hellenistic culture that placed high value on the art of rhetoric and recent advances in rhetorical criticism of the New Testament have resulted in a new emphasis on the rhetorical aspect of his letters As many scholars have pointed out however it is not clear to what extent ancient rhetoric actually influenced Paul and his writing or how important rhetoric is for interpreting the Pauline corpus This volume containing contributions from major figures in the field provides a nuanced examination of how ancient rhetoric should inform our understanding of Paul and his letters The essays discuss Paul s historical context present innovative advances in and trenchant critiques of rhetorical theory and offer fresh readings of key Pauline texts Outlining the strengths and weaknesses of a widely used approach Paul and Ancient Rhetoric will be a valuable resource for New Testament and Classics scholars
