Hart,2014-11-15 After earning his theology degree from Union Seminary in New York Lloyd Pfautsch 1921 2003 found his true calling in church music He was invited to Southern Methodist University in 1958 to start their graduate program in sacred music and remained there for 34 years Outside the university he formed the Dallas Civic Chorus and led it for 25 years He was nationally known for his conducting and the quality of the musicians he produced as well as for his compositions many of which are illustrated here with his handwritten notations This is the first biography of this important figure and it is told from the viewpoint of a longtime colleague and friend Aligned with the biography Hart analyzes some of Pfautsch's hundreds of compositions. This is the definitive work on one of the most influential American choral musicians of the twentieth century. The combination of biographical facts, history, and anecdotal accounts makes this work unique. Pfautsch was a powerful choral figure, and many conductors mentored under his guidance.
