Venice West John Arthur Maynard, 1991 In this fascinating book John Arthur Maynard tells the story of the poets and promoters who invented the Beat Generation and who in many cases destroyed themselves in the process In this look at the least remembered but in its time most publicized beat enclave Maynard focuses on two of Venice s most newsworthy residents Lawrence Lipton and Stuart Z Perkoff Lipton began as a writer of popular detective stories and screenplays but was determined to be recognized as a poet and social critic He eventually published The Holy Barbarians which helped to create the enduring public image of the beatnik Stuart Perkoff was a more gifted poet with fascination and horror we follow his failed attempts to support his family his heroin addiction his first wife s courage and mental fragility his sexual entanglements his imprisonment and the development of his own writing Other characters who move in and out of the story are Kenneth Rexroth Jack Kerouac and Allen Ginsberg as well as lesser known poets artists hangers on and the many women who were rarely treated as full members of the community Collecting Modern First Editions Joseph Connolly, 1977

When Music Mattered James Wierzbicki, 2022-04-27 This book examines the American Sixties and how that period s socio political essence was reflected and refracted in certain forms of the period s music Its five main chapters bear the names of familiar musical categories Folk Rock Jazz Avant Garde Classical But the book s real subject matter treated at length in the Prologue and the Epilogue but spread throughout all that comes between is the Sixties tangled mess of hopes and frustrations of hungers as much for self identity as for self indulgence of crises of conscience that bothered Americans of almost all ages and regardless of political persuasion National Union Catalog , 1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases
