100 or so Boyhood Memories of the Real West Endies Malcolm Lindsay Allen Sr., 2007-07-06 This book is written to share some experiences of a person who has survived being born as colored graduating from high school as a Negro working half his life in corporate America as a Black and finally arriving at old age as an African American Whew The paths through those personas have led through many precious persons lives Their interaction with me may have seemed insignificant to them But I cherished each experience as part of the learning how to live and get along with others life course Even the places and spaces the landmarks the neighborhood haunts the nooks and the crannies of a wonderful community mentioned in this collection of stories are highly significant in my development as a man and a husband a father a grandfather All these are cherished in my heart in my life I respectfully salute the West Endies That is the area in Cincinnati bounded on the south by the Ohio River on the north and east by the curving Central Parkway and on the west by the Western Hills Viaduct to State Avenue Thanks for the memories So as you read and I feel privileged that you do please reminisce along with me Thanks

Gunslingers in Fact and on Film Buck Rainey, 2015-11-17 Billy the Kid Wild Bill Hickok Belle Starr Wyatt Earp the Younger Gang the Dalton Doolin Gang and Bat Masterson these real life lawmen and lawbreakers have been the basis of so many Hollywood Westerns that it has become difficult to discover where the truth ends and the legend begins All actually became larger than life characters during their lifetimes as contemporary newspapers and books embellished their deeds for their own purposes But it was in Hollywood that the line between reality and myth was completely blurred Each chapter length entry here first focuses on the known facts of the people's lives and how each became truly legendary during their lifetimes The reality is then compared to how they have been portrayed in the movies True West William R.

Handley, Nathaniel Lewis, 2007-05-01 In no other region of the United States has the notion of authenticity played such an important yet elusive role as it has in the West Though pervasive in literature popular culture and history assumptions about western authenticity have not received adequate critical attention Given the ongoing economic and social transformations in this vast region the persistent nostalgia and desire for the real authentic West suggest regional and national identities at odds with themselves True West explores the concept of authenticity as it is used to invent test advertise and read the West The fifteen essays collected here apply contemporary critical and cultural theory to western literary history Native American literature and identities the visual West and the imagining of place Ranging geographically from the Canadian Prairies to Buena Park's Entertainment Corridor in Southern California and chronologically from early tourist narratives to contemporary environmental writing True West challenges many assumptions we make about western writing and opens the door to an important new chapter in western literary history and cultural criticism Mountain Masculinity Tex

The West in Early Cinema Nanna Verhoeff, 2006-01-01 Verhoeff investigates the emergence of the western genre made in the first two decades of cinema 1895 1915 By analyzing many unknown and forgotten films from international archives she traces the relationships between films about the American West their surrounding films and other popular media such as photography painting pulp literature Wild West Shows and popular ethnography Through this exploration of archival material she raises new questions of historiography and provides a model for historical analysis These first traces of the Western film reveal a preoccupation with presence and actuality that informs us about the way in which film as new medium took shape within the context of its contemporary visual culture In The West in Early Cinema gaat Nanna Verhoeff op zoek naar de nog onbekende beginjaren van het westerngenre tijdens de eerste twee decennia van het medium film 1895 1915 Aan de hand van onbekende en vergeten films uit internationale filmarchieven traceert zij de relaties tussen films over het Westen omringende filmgenres uit deze periode en andere populaire media als fotografie schilderkunst pulp literatuur Wild West Shows en populaire etnografie Deze sporen van het genre tonen een grote actualiteit en variatie die laat zien op welke manier de film als nieuw medium een vorm vond binnen de toenmalige visuele cultuur

Unsettling the Literary West Nathaniel Lewis, 2003-01-01 The test of western literature has invariably been Is it real Is it accurate Authentic The result is a standard anything but literary as Nathaniel Lewis observes in this ambitious work a wholesale rethinking of the critical terms and contexts and thus of the very nature of western writing Why is western writing virtually missing from the American literary canon but a frequent success in the marketplace The skewed status of western literature Lewis contends can be directly attributed to the strategies of the region's writers and these strategies depend consistently on the claim of authenticity A perusal of western American authorship reveals how these writers effectively present themselves as accurate and reliable recorders of real places histories and cultures but not as stylists or inventors The imaginative qualities of this literature are thus obscured in the name of authentic reproduction Through a study of a set of western authors and their relationships to literary and cultural history Lewis offers a reconsideration of the deceptive and often undervalued history of western American literature With unequivocal admiration for the literature under scrutiny Lewis exposes the potential for startling new readings once western writing is freed from its insistence on a questionable authenticity His book sets out a broader system of inquiry that points writers and critics of western literature in the direction of a new and truly sustaining literary tradition argues still enamored of western images that are both masculine and antimodern have been slow to reckon with the emergence of a new far more feminine postmodern multiracial and urban west Here she calls for a redesign of the field of western cultural studies one that engages issues of gender and race and is more self conscious about space itself_especially that cherished symbol of western authenticity open landscape Surveying works by Joan Didion Wanda Coleman Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Barbara Kingsolver Pam Houston Louise Erdrich Sandra Cisneros and Mary Clearman Blew Comer shows how these and other contemporary women writers have mapped new geographical imaginations upon the cultural and social spaces of today s American West
