Real World Diaries:

Form and Function in the Diary Novel Trevor Field, 1989-06-18 A study of novels written in the form of diaries Some 75 fictional diarists are followed with examples ranging from light hearted works to those of Nobel prize winners like Sartre and Golding which the author uses to illustrate the versatility of this literary form

On Diary Philippe Lejeune, 2009-04-30 On Diary is the second collection in English of the groundbreaking and profoundly influential work of one of the best known and provocative theorists of autobiography and diary Ranging from the diary's historical origins to its pervasive presence on the Internet from the spiritual journey of the sixteenth century to the diary of Anne Frank and from the materials and methods of diary writing to the question of how diaries end these essays display Philippe Lejeune's expertise eloquence passion and humor as a commentator on the functions practices and significance of keeping or reading a diary Lejeune is a leading European critic and theorist of diary and autobiography His landmark essay The Autobiographical Pact has shaped life writing studies for more than thirty years and his many books and essays have repeatedly opened up new vistas for scholarship As Michael Riffaterre notes Lejeune's work on autobiography is the most original powerful effective approach to a difficult subject His style is very personal lively It grabs the reader as scholarship rarely does Lejeune's erudition and methodology are impeccable Two substantial introductory essays by Jeremy Popkin and Julie Rak place Lejeune's work within its critical and theoretical traditions and comment on his central importance within the fields of life writing literary genetic studies and cultural studies

The Bat-Chen Diaries Bat-Chen Shahak, 2014-01-01 In 1996 on her 15th birthday Bat Chen Shahak was killed by a suicide bomber in Tel Aviv's Dizengoff Center But the gifted teenager left behind a rich legacy of diaries letters poems and drawings Following her death her parents gathered her writings and created The Bat Chen Diaries this is the first English translation of her work

Voyeur Nation Clay Calvert, 2009-04-21 From 24 hour a day girl cam sites on the World Wide Web to trash talk television shows like Jerry Springer and reality television programs like Cops we've become a world of voyeurs We like to watch others as their intimate moments private facts secrets and dirty laundry are revealed Voyeur Nation traces the evolution and forces driving what the author calls the voyeurism value Calvert argues that although spectatorship and sensationalism are far from new phenomena today a confluence of factors legal social political and technological pushes voyeurism to the forefront of our image based world The First Amendment increasingly is called on to safeguard our right via new technologies and recording devices to peer into the innermost details of others lives without fear of legal repercussion But Calvert argues that the voyeurism value contradicts the value of discourse in democracy and First Amendment theory since voyeurism by its very nature involves merely watching without interacting or participating It privileges watching and viewing media images over participating and interacting in democracy

Docufictions Gary D. Rhodes, John Parris Springer, 2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane M A S H This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon Topics include the docudrama in early cinema the industrial film as faux documentary the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

RealWorld Evaluation Michael Bamberger, Jim Rugh, Linda Mabry, 2011-11-29 This book addresses the challenges of conducting program evaluations in real world contexts where evaluators and the agencies face budget and time constraints and where critical data is missing The book is organized around a seven step model developed by the authors which has been tested and refined in workshops Vignettes and case studies representing evaluations from a variety of geographic regions and sectors demonstrate adaptive possibilities for small projects with budgets of a few thousand dollars to large scale long term evaluations The text incorporates quantitative qualitative and mixed method designs and this Second Edition reflects important developments in the field over the last five years
