Marginality in the Contemporary British Novel Nicola Allen, 2011-10-27 The Marginal as a concept has become an integral part of the British novel as it stands at the turn of the century Both popular and literary fiction since the mid 1970s has seen an increasing emphasis on the marginal subject This study offers readings of a wide range of contemporary British novels that represent characters or communities at the margin of society Nicola Allen analyses three conceptual categories representing the marginal subject in the contemporary British novel the character of the misfit or outsider the emergence of the grotesque and the rediscovery of previously marginalized narratives such as myth and fantasy This innovative and original monograph focuses on the contention that the contemporary novel of marginality conveys a belief in the socially transformative powers of narrative and suggests that narrative has played a central role in bringing marginal politics and marginal issues to the fore in contemporary Britain

Nostalgic Postmodernism Christian Gutleben, 2021-10-18 Why do so many contemporary British novels revert to the Victorian tradition in order to find a new source of inspiration What does it mean from an ideological point of view to build a modern form of art by resurrecting and recycling an art of the past From a formal point of view what are the aesthetic priorities established by these postmodernist novels Those are the main questions tackled by this study intended for anybody interested in the aesthetic and ideological evolution of very recent fiction What this analysis ultimately proposes is a reevaluation and a redefinition of postmodernism such as it is illustrated by the British novels which paradoxically both praise and mock honour and debunk imitate and subvert their Victorian models Unashamedly opportunistic and deliberately exploiting the spirit of the time this late form of postmodernism cannibalizes and reshapes not only Victorianism but all the other previous aesthetic movements including early postmodernism

Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater

Fiction after the Fatwa Madelena Gonzalez, 2021-11-22 Fiction after the Fatwa Salman Rushdie and the Charm of Catastrophe proposes for the first time an examination of what Rushdie has achieved as a writer since the fourteenth of February 1989 the date of the fatwa This study argues that his constant questioning of fictional form and the language used to articulate it have opened up new opportunities and further possibilities for writing in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Through close readings and intensive textual analysis arranged chronologically Fiction after the Fatwa provides a thought provoking reflection on the writer s achievements over the last thirteen years Aimed principally at academics and students but also of interest to the general reader it engages with the specific nature of the post fatwa fiction as it moves from the fairy tale world of Haroun and the Sea of Stories to the heartbreaking post realism of Fury

Beyond Scotland , 2021-09-20 Scottish

creative writing in the twentieth century was notable for its willingness to explore and absorb the literatures of other times and other nations From the engagement with Russian literature of Hugh MacDiarmid and Edwin Morgan through to the interplay with continental literary theory Scottish writers have proved active participants in a diverse international literary practice Scottish criticism has arguably often been slow in appreciating the full extent of this exchange Preoccupied with marking out its territory with identifying an independent and distinctive tradition Scottish criticism has occasionally blinded itself to the diversity and range of its writers In stressing the importance of cultural independence it has tended to overlook the many virtues of interdependence The essays in this book aim to offer a corrective view They celebrate the achievement of Scottish writing in the twentieth century by offering a wider basis for appreciation than a narrow idea of Scottishness Each essay explores an aspect of Scottish writing in an individual foreign perspective together they provide an enriching account of a national literary practice that has deep and often surprisingly complex roots in international culture

Representation and the Twentieth-century Novel Paul D. Morris, 2005

Beginning Postmodernism Tim Woods, 1999-08-20 Postmodernism has become the buzzword of contemporary society Yet it remains baffling in its variety of definitions contexts and associations Beginning Postmodernism aims to offer clear accessible and step by step introductions to postmodernism across a wide range of subjects It encourages readers to explore how the debates about postmodernism have emerged from basic philosophical and cultural ideas With its emphasis firmly on postmodernism in practice the book contains exercises and questions designed to help readers understand and reflect upon a variety of positions in the following areas of contemporary culture philosophy and cultural theory architecture and concepts of space visual art sculpture and the design arts popular culture and music film video and television culture and the social sciences

Uncertain Mirrors Jesús Benito Sánchez, Ana María Manzananas Calvo, Begoña Simal González, 2009 Uncertain Mirrors realigns magical realism within a changing critical landscape from Aristotelian mimesis to Adorno's concept of negative dialectics In between the volume traverses a vast theoretical arena from postmodernism and postcolonialism to Levinasian philosophy and eco criticism The volume opens and closes with dialectical instability as it recasts the mutability of the term mimesis as both a world reflecting and a world creating mechanism Magical realism the authors contend offers another stance of the possible it also situates the reader at a hybrid aesthetic matrix inextricably linked to postcolonial theory postmodernism Bakhtinian theory and quantum physics As Uncertain Mirrors explores magical realist texts partake of modernist exhaustion as much as of postmodernist replenishment yet they stem from a different location of culture and direction of culture they offer complex aesthetic artifacts that in their recreation of alternative geographic and semiotic spaces dislocate hegemonic texts and ideologies Their unrealistic excess effects a breach in the totalized unity represented by 19th century realism and plays the dissonant chord of the particular and the non identical

Contemporary Fiction and the Fairy Tale Stephen Benson, 2008 Considers the profound influence of fairy tales on contemporary fiction including the work of Margaret Atwood A S Byatt Angela Carter Robert Coover Salman

Rushdie and Jeanette Winterson Recent decades have witnessed a renaissance of interest in the fairy tale not least among writers of fiction In Contemporary Fiction and the Fairy Tale editor Stephen Benson argues that fairy tales are one of the key influences on fiction of the past thirty years and also continue to shape literary trends in the present Contributors detail the use of fairy tales both as inspiration and blueprint and explore the results of juxtaposing fairy tales and contemporary fiction At the heart of this collection seven leading scholars focus on authors whose work is heavily informed and transformed by fairy tales Robert Coover A S Byatt Margaret Atwood Angela Carter and Salman Rushdie In addition to investigating the work of this so called fairy tale generation Contemporary Fiction and the Fairy Tale provides a survey of the body of theoretical writing surrounding these authors both from within literary studies and from fairy tale studies itself Contributors present an overview of critical positions considered here in relation to the work of Jeanette Winterson and of Nalo Hopkinson suggesting further avenues for research Contemporary Fiction and the Fairy Tale offers the first detailed and comprehensive account of the key authors working in this emerging genre Students and teachers of fiction folklore and fairy tale studies will appreciate this insightful volume

Lawrence Durrell, Postmodernism and the Ethics of Alterity Stefan Herbrechter, 1999 This book is of interest for any reader wishing to explore the interface between literature and critical and cultural theory It investigates the notions of alterity which underlie the work of Lawrence Durrell and postmodernist theory Grass Irmgard Elsner Hunt International Postmodernism Hans Bertens, Douwe W. Fokkema, 1997-02-20 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism
