Reality Fundamental Topics In Metaphysics:

Reality Peter Loptson,2001-01-01 Explores some of the major topics in metaphysics such as essence existence substance purpose space time mind causality God freedom and the possibilities of immortality An excellent companion to metaphysical studies

Reality Peter Loptson,2001 In this compelling work Peter Lopston provides an accessible exploration of the major topics in metaphysics He considers problems such as essence existence substance purpose space time mind causality God freedom and the possibilities of immortality In addition he looks at the major historical metaphysical systems and defends the metaphysical project as a whole The book offers both historical and contemporary perspectives and includes Lopston s lucid arguments in which he propounds a naturalist and common sense view of the world Lopston defends the ineliminability and the logical or categoreal mutual irreducibility of individual substances he advocates an empiricist view of space but a rationalist view of time and he presents a treatment of possible worlds that limits them to cases with only actual members In a special contribution he explores the idea of metaphysical luck which leads to puzzling and significant results Replete with historical references explanations of terminology and directional signposts the book provides an excellent companion to metaphysical studies filling a gap for scholars and specialists in this field

Reality Peter Loptson,2010-10-27 In Reality Fundamental Topics in Metaphysics Peter Loptson argues for a conception of metaphysics as the most general or comprehensive method of inquiry Working from a broadly analytic and naturalist perspective he confronts positions that claim metaphysics to be impossible as advanced in ancient Kantian post Kantian and contemporary philosophy showing them to be unsuccessful He draws the topics of his selective investigation of metaphysics partly from the work of Kant whom he conceives as a primary guide to what metaphysical enquiry seeks to know Loptson provides accounts of basic categories of what is real and outlines major historical metaphysical systems He then goes on to explore aspects of existence essence substance universals space time causality mind freedom and other topics This important contribution to metaphysics offers both sustained arguments on all aspects of the subject and important insights into the major metaphysical systems from the history of philosophy

First Philosophy III: God, Mind, and Freedom - Second Edition Andrew Bailey,2011-07-08 First Philosophy God Mind and Freedom brings together classic and ground breaking readings on metaphysics the philosophy of mind and the philosophy of religion Andrew Bailey s highly regarded introductory anthology has been revised and updated in this new edition The comprehensive introductory material for each chapter and selection remains and new sections on philosophical puzzles and paradoxes and philosophical terminology have been added New to this edition are readings from Alvin Plantinga Frank Jackson David Chalmers A J Ayer Bernard Williams and Thomas Nagel

Reality Making Mark Jago,2016-02-12 What makes up reality and how What kinds of entity are fundamental to reality and how do dependent entities depend on the fundamental ones How does one entity metaphysically ground another These questions are central to contemporary metaphysics The papers in this collection written by a new generation of metaphysicians address these and related questions They investigate the metaphysical concepts of grounding and fundamentality and the relationship between the fundamental and all the other parts of reality Together these papers represent the cutting edge of a central topic in contemporary metaphysics

Chasing Reality Mario Bunge, Professor Mario Bunge, 2006-01-01 Dealing with the controversies over the reality of the external world this work offers a defense of realism a critique of various forms of contemporary anti realism and a sketch of the author s version of realism namely hylorealism It examines the main varieties of antirealism and argues that all of these in fact hinder scientific research

Columbia Companion to Twentieth-Century Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo American analytic and European continental traditions Organized thematically the volume thoroughly discusses the major movements and fields of each tradition and features the contributions of highly distinguished specialists in their fields This book is divided into three sections The first is devoted to highlighting the multidimensional work of philosophers identified with the analytic tradition with Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant s legacy The second section presents the thought of those who identified themselves with the continental tradition featuring Jean Grondin on hermeneutics Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology Charles Scott on postmodernism and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science This volume also covers logical positivism naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by the editor not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is an invaluable overview of the ideas that have shaped a monumentally important century in the history of philosophy offering an unusually panoramic perspective that allows readers to form their own interpretations of original materials
