Realizing The America Of Our Hearts Theological Voices Of Asian Americans:

Realizing the America of Our Hearts Eleazar Fernandez, Fumitaka Matsuoka, 2003-11-01 This anthology is written from a variety of ethnic national and cultural perspectives of Asian ancestry residing in Canada and the United States including Chinese American Filipino American Japanese American Korean American and Vietnamese American and of European American partners and pastors in Asian American contexts The fourteen essays represent diverse theological views on themes ranging over historical cultural issues theological interpretations local church experience visions of hope and longing faith practices and the effects of globalization Although the voices are varied they all echo a yearning both to value the distinctness of each identity and at the same time to get along with one another and to create a different and more caring way of relating as a whole society Contributors include Eleazar S Fernandez Young Lee Hertig Deborah Lee Sang Hyun Lee Fumitaka Matsuoka Greer Anne Wenh In Ng Andrew Sung Park Peter C Phan Lester Edwin J Ruiz Roy I Sano M Thomas Thangaraj Sharon G Thornton Timothy Tseng and Randi Jones Walker T&T Clark Handbook of Asian American Biblical Hermeneutics Uriah Y. Kim, Seung Ai Yang, 2019-05-30 The first reference resource on how Asian Americans are currently reading and interpreting the Bible this volume also serves a valuable role in both developing and disseminating what can be termed as Asian American biblical hermeneutics The volume works from the important background that Asian Americans are the fastest growing ethnic racial minority population in the USA and that 42% of this group identifies as Christian This provides a useful starting point from which to examine what may be distinctive about Asian American approaches to the Bible Part 1 of the Handbook describes six major ethnic groups that make up 85% of Asian population by country of origin China Philippines Indian Subcontinent Vietnam Korea Japan and outlines the specific concerns each group has when its members read the Bible Part 2 of the Handbook examines major critical methods in biblical interpretation and suggests adjustments that may be helpful for Asian Americans to make when they are interpreting the Bible Finally Part 3 provides 25 interpretations by Asian American biblical scholars on specific texts in the Bible using what they consider to be Asian American hermeneutics Taken together the Handbook interprets the Bible both with and for the Asian American communities

The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History David Yoo, Eiichiro Azuma, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History brings together 27 essays that engage the state of the field with historiographically informed but creative approaches to this diverse and vibrant area The chapters trace Asian American history from the beginning of the migration flows toward the Pacific Islands and the American continent to Japanese American incarceration and Asian American participation in World War II from the experience of exclusion violence and racism to the social and political activism of the late twentieth century The authors explore many of the key aspects of the Asian American experience including politics economy intellectual life the arts education religion labor gender family urban development and legal history Liberation Theologies in the United States Stacey M Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B Pinn, 2010-03-01 Liberation Theologies in the United States reveals how the critical use of religion can be utilized to challenge and combat oppression in America In the nascent United States religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism poverty and other types of oppression Stacey M Floyd Thomas and Anthony B Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development context theory and goals of a range of U S born liberation theologies Black Theology Anthony B Pinn Womanist Theology Stacey M Floyd Thomas Latina Theology Nancy Pineda Madrid Hispanic Latino a Theology Benjam n Valent n Asian American Theology Andrew Sung Park Asian American Feminist Theology Grace Ji Sun Kim Native Feminist Theology Andrea Smith Native American Theology George Tink Tinker Gay and Lesbian Theology Robert E Shore Goss Feminist Theology Mary McClintock Fulkerson An extraordinary resource for understanding the vitality of liberation theologies and their relation to social transformation in the changing U S context Written in an accessible and engaged way this powerful and informative text will inspire beginners and scholars alike I highly recommend it Kwok Pui lan author of Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology A delight to read and an exemplary account of the genre of liberation theologies Religious Studies Review

Envisioning Religion, Race, and Asian Americans David K. Yoo, Khyati Y. Joshi, 2020-08-31 In Envisioning Religion Race and Asian Americans David K Yoo and Khyati Y Joshi assemble a wide ranging and important collection of essays documenting the intersections of race and religion and Asian American communities a combination so often missing both in the scholarly literature and in public discourse Issues of religion and race ethnicity undergird current national debates around immigration racial profiling and democratic freedoms but these issues as the contributors document are longstanding ones in the United States The essays feature dimensions of traditions such as Islam Hinduism and Sikhism as well as how religion engages with topics that include religious affiliation or lack thereof the legacy of the Vietnam War and popular culture The contributors also address the role of survey data pedagogy methodology and literature that is richly complementary and necessary for understanding the scope and range of the subject of Asian American religions These essays attest to the vibrancy and diversity of Asian American religions while at the same time situating these conversations in a scholarly lineage and discourse This collection will certainly serve as an invaluable resource for scholars students and general readers with interests in Asian American religions ethnic and Asian American studies religious studies American studies and related fields that focus on immigration and race Contemporary Issues of Migration and Theology E. Padilla, P. Phan, 2013-03-06 With a diverse list of contributors this volume seeks to discuss in depth some of the key issues that migration poses to World Christianity in the fields of constructive theology ethics spirituality mission ministry

inculturation interreligious dialogue and theological education Faithful Generations Russell Jeung, 2005 With rich description and insightful interviews Russell Jeung uncovers why and how Chinese and Japanese American Christians are building new pan Asian organizations Detailed surveys of over fifty Chinese and Japanese American congregations in the San Francisco Bay area show how symbolic racial identities structure Asian American congregations Evangelical ministers differ from mainline Christian ministers in their construction of Asian American identity Mobilizing around these distinct identities evangelicals and mainline Christians have developed unique pan Asian styles of worship ministries and church activities Portraits of two churches further illustrate how symbolic racial identities affect congregational life and ministries The book concludes with a look at Asian American led multiethnic churches Contentious Spirits David Yoo, 2010-03-31 Contentious Spirits explores the central role of religion particularly Protestant Christianity in Korean American history during the first half of the twentieth century in Hawai i and California Teaching for a Culturally Diverse and Racially Just World Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2014-02-25 Cultural and ethnic diversity is the reality of our world and much more so in this age of heightened globalization Yet do our ways of doing theological education match with our current reality and hopes for a colorful and just tomorrow How shall we do theological formation so it helps give birth to a culturally diverse racially just and hospitable world This edited volume gathers the voices of minoritized scholars and their white allies in the profession in response to the above questions More particularly this volume gathers the responses of these scholars to the questions What is the plight of theological education Who are the teachers Who are our students What shall we teach How shall we teach How shall we form and lead theological institutions It is the hope of this volume to contribute to the making of theological education that is hospitably just to difference s and welcoming of our diverse population which is our only viable future When we embody this vision in our daily educational practices particularly in the training of our future religious leaders we may help usher in a new colorful and just world Marginal(ized) Prospects through Biblical Ritual and Law Bernon Lee, 2017-06-19 This book follows a reader s logic of association through a series of overlapping constructs in biblical prescription of things prized and lofty holy hair unblemished beasts sacred edibles wholesome wombs pristine precincts esteemed ethnicities and as unlikely as it seems dismembered members Thoroughly intersectional in disposition Bernon Lee uncovers not just the precariousness of the contrived dichotomies through the identity building sacred texts but also the complexities and contentions of a would be decolonizing hermeneutic bristling with its own tensions and temptations This volume is an intertextual odyssey through law and ritual from impassioned positions fraught with ambivalence reticence and anxiety Religion and Politics in America's Borderlands Sarah Azaransky, 2013-06-06 Religion and Politics in America s Borderlands brings together leading academic specialists on immigration and the borderlands as well as nationally recognized grassroots activists who reflect on their varied experiences of living working and teaching on the US Mexico border and in the borderlands These authors demonstrate the groundbreaking claim that the borderlands are not only a location to think about religiously but they are also a place that reshapes religious thinking In this pioneering book scholars and activists engage with Scripture theology history church practices and personal experiences to offer in depth analyses of how the borderlands confront conventional interpretations of Christianity Women in Christianity in the Age of Empire Janet Wootton, 2022-03-07 Women in Christianity in the Age of Empire 1800-1920 offers a broad view of the nineteenth century as a time of dramatic change particularly for women critiqued in the light of postcolonial theory This edited volume includes important contributions from academics in the field Overarching themes include the cult of domesticity the changing impact of Christianity on views of women's nature in an age of scientific thinking conflation of gospel and civilization in global mission and the exclusion of women from public spheres of life We meet powerful saints campaigners and thinkers who bring about genuine transformation in the lives of women and in society But we also recognize the long shadow of Empire in the world of the twenty-first century critiquing Colonialism and Empire and views that restricted women's lives This engaging volume will be of key interest to students and scholars in Religion and Cultural Studies Exploring the complexities of the nineteenth century it draws on a range of scholarship including TV documentaries film online and more traditional academic resources Opening the Field of Practical Theology Kathleen A. Cahalan, Gordon S. Heaney, 2024-02-26 Sharon E. Heaney describes how the life-giving interruption of Latin American poets novelists artists and theologians changed her life in a conflict-ridden Northern Ireland An outsider in this study she provides an engagement with a stream of theology in the United States she takes to be exemplary Latino/a/x theology is teología en conjunto collaborative theology It models ways to examine complicated and contested histories and identities and it resists dominant assumptions about theological points of departure in favor of also valuing the everyday as locus theologicus Identifying major themes and foundational thinkers alongside more recent developments Heaney offers an overview and invites readers to further reading study and formation Modelling what it esteems each chapter closes in conversation with a Latino/a/x leader in the church The conclusion is written by practical theologian Altagracia Perez Bullard She affirms this is not just an intellectual exercise this engagement is the practice of our lives as we journey with God and as we journey with one another It is an exciting journey It changes us Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson

Callahan,2013-06-20 This title tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move leadership in communities of faith leadership as taught in theological education and training religious leadership impacting social change and social justice and more Topics are examined from multiple perspectives traditions and faiths The Oxford Handbook of Evangelical Theology Gerald R. McDermott,2013-12 This volume surveys the state of the discipline on topics of greatest importance to evangelical theology The authors critically assess the state of the question from both classical and evangelical traditions and propose a future direction for evangelical thinking on the subject R sum de l diteur Theology and the Crisis of Engagement Jeff Nowers,Nestor Medina,2013-10-11 What does theology have to do with sociology Do the social sciences in general provide helpful assistance to theologians Does theology have anything to contribute to social theory This compendium of essays attempts to address such questions In so doing it confronts assumptions about how academic disciplines are best articulated whether within their own airtight frames or in dialogue with one another The essays in the first half of the book accomplish this from historical and methodological perspectives while the remaining essays present case studies or constructive proposals for how theology might engage the social sciences in productive ways For those particularly interested in the ongoing development of theologies of liberation this book will be timely The essays reflecting a definite international flavor are written in honor of Lee Cormie a long standing advocate of what he calls the new voices in theology that have irrupted in the wake of Vatican II Cormie has spent over three decades teaching theologies of liberation at the Toronto School of Theology on the campus of the University of Toronto This book continues the many conversations that his teaching has provoked Theology of Migration in the Abrahamic Religions E. Padilla,P. Phan,2014-10-02 This book provides an indispensable voice in the scholarly conversation on migration It shows how migration has shaped and has been shaped by the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam No theory of migration will be complete unless the theological insights of these religions are seriously taken into account Toward a Framework for Vietnamese American Studies Linda Ho Peché,Alex-Thai Dinh Vo,Tuong Vu,2023-02-10 This collection is the first work of its kind to synthesize the current state of Vietnamese American studies Offering cutting edge analysis from social sciences and humanities perspectives this volume serves as a foundational resource and a site for interrogating underexplored facets of the field Religion and Spirituality in Korean America David K Yoo,Ruth H.
