The Closing of the Muslim Mind Robert R. Reilly, 2023-06-20 Islam's Intellectual Suicide and the Threat to Us All People are shocked and frightened by the behavior coming out of the Islamic world not only because it is violent but also because it is seemingly inexplicable While there are many answers to the question of what went wrong in the Muslim world no one has decisively answered why it went wrong Until now In this eye opening new book foreign policy expert Robert R Reilly uncovers the root of our contemporary crisis a pivotal struggle waged within the Muslim world nearly a millennium ago In a heated battle over the role of reason the side of irrationality won The deformed theology that resulted Reilly reveals produced the spiritual pathology of Islamism and a deeply dysfunctional culture Terrorism from 9/11 to London Madrid and Mumbai to the Christmas 2009 attempted airline bombing is the most obvious manifestation of this crisis But Reilly shows that the pathology extends much further The Closing of the Muslim Mind solves such puzzles as why peace is so elusive in the Middle East why the Arab world stands near the bottom of every measure of human development why scientific inquiry is nearly dead in the Islamic world why Spain translates more books in a single year than the entire Arab world has in the past thousand years why some people in Saudi Arabia still refuse to believe man has been to the moon why Muslim media frequently present natural disasters like Hurricane Katrina as God's direct retribution Delving deeper than previous polemics and simplistic analyses The Closing of the Muslim Mind provides the answers the West has so desperately needed in confronting the Islamist crisis

Islamic Bioethics: Current Issues And Challenges Alireza Bagheri, Khalid Abdulla Al-ali, 2017-08-30 Islamic Bioethics presents a wide variety of perspectives and debates on how Islamic societies deal with the ethical dilemmas raised by biomedicine and new technologies The book is a constructive dialogue between contributors selected from a multidisciplinary group of Muslim and non Muslim scholars from different Islamic countries The 11 chapters illuminate the diversity and complexity of the issues discussed in Islamic bioethics and pave the way to a better understanding of Islamic bioethics and dialogue in the global bioethics community The chapters take both theoretical and practical approaches to the topic and each covers an emerging issue in Islamic bioethics This book will be useful for academics and professional institutions in both Islamic and non Islamic countries and will be instrumental in providing researchers scholars students policymakers and medical professionals with access to the latest issues and debates related to Islamic bioethics Contributors include Tariq Ramadan Abdallah Daar Ali Albar Mohsin Ebrahim Baharouddin Azizan Alastair Campbel Bagher Larijani Carol Taylor Gamal Serour James Rusthoven Ilhan Ilkilic Ingrid Mattson Hassan Chamsi Pasha Jonathan Crane Hakan Ertin Mehunisha Suleman

Islamic Ethics Abdulaziz Sachedina, 2022-06-10 There have been two main traditions of writing on ethics in the Islamic tradition one philosophical and related to the works of Aristotle and other Greek philosophers represented by thinkers such as Avicenna and one theological represented by such figures as the famous theologian al Qadi Abd al Jabbar Some later scholars attempted to combine those two traditions For the most part however the views of the jurists have been ignored Abdulaziz Sachedina here calls attention to this third tradition of ethics which has its home in legal literature The problem is that Islamic jurists did not produce a genre of ethical manuals and their form of ethics which Sachedina terms juridical ethics must be derived or extracted from works that ostensibly treat legal rulings and obligations or scriptural hermeneutics and legal theory Presenting an outline of the version of Islamic ethics that is embedded in the textual legacy of the Islamic legal tradition he argues that this juridical ethics is an important even dominant form of ethics in modern Islam He notes that this form of ethics has been challenged by modernity and examines the variety of ways in which legal ethical thinkers have reacted How do Muslim religious leaders come to grips with modern demands of directing their communities to live as modern citizens of nation states What kind of moral and spiritual resources are being garnered by their scholars to respond to the new issues in sciences more immediately in medicine and constantly changing social relationships To answer these pressing questions it is necessary to go beyond the philosophical ethics of virtue and human character and acknowledge the importance of ethics to the formulation in Muslim interpretive jurisprudence of religious and moral decisions that are based on reason and revelation

Bibliography of Islamic Philosophy Hans Daiber, 1998-12-31 Islamic Ethics and the Trusteeship Paradigm: Taha Abderrahmane's Philosophy in Comparative Perspectives, 2020-09-25 Islamic Ethics and the Trusteeship Paradigm explores the emerging ethical theory of the trusteeship paradigm as developed by the Moroccan philosopher Taha Abderrahmane b 1944 The volume with contributions in English and Arabic examines the development of this modern Islamic theory of ethics and how it permeates various disciplines philosophy theology legal theory Sufism moral theory sociology and anthropology communication environment and biomedical ethics The trusteeship paradigm aims to make ethics the compass of human thinking and action in order to overcome the predicaments humanity faces and realize a more just and balanced world This makes of it one of the principal and profound ethical theories in Islamic scholarship that engages both classical and modern thought Contributors Mutaz al Khatib Mostafa Amakdouf Mohamed Amine Brahimi Assia Chekireb Abdelmounim Choqairi Issam Eido Hicham El Makki Amin El Yousfi Adil Et Tahiri Ramon Harvey Mohammed Hashas Eva Kepplinger Mohamed Ourya Harald Viersen 4491 Ethical Theories in Islam Mağīd Fahrī,1991-01-01 This work provides a typology of Islamic ethics without overlooking the chronological development Four types of ethical theory are isolated the scriptural the theological the philosophical and the religious This edition contains extra material from Ibn Sina s writings translated into English The book should interest Islamic scholars philosophers and historians of ethics

Moral Rationalism and Shari'a Ali-Reza Bhojani,2015-03-24 Moral Rationalism and Shar a is the first attempt at outlining the scope for a theological reading of Shar a based on a critical examination of why Adliyya theological ethics have not significantly impacted Sh readings of Shar a Within Sh works of Shar a legal theory us l al fiqh there is a theoretical space for reason as an independent source of normativity alongside the Qur n and the Prophetic tradition The position holds that humans are capable of understanding moral values independently of revelation Describing themselves as Adliyya literally the people of Justice this allows the Sh a who describe themselves as Adiliyya literally the People of Justice to attribute a substantive rational conception of justice to God both in terms of His actions and His regulative instructions Despite the Sh adoption of this moral rationalism independent judgments of rational morality play little or no role in the actual inference of Shar a norms within mainstream contemporary Sh thought Through a close examination of the notion of independent rationality as a source in modern Sh us l al fiqh the obstacles preventing this moral rationalism from impacting the understanding of Shar a are shown to be purely epistemic In line with the emic insider approach adopted these epistemic obstacles are revisited identifying the scope for allowing a reading of Shar a that is consistent with the fundamental moral rationalism of Sh thought It is argued that judgments of rational morality even when not definitively certain cannot be ignored in the face of the apparent meaning of texts that are themselves also not certain An Adliyya reading of Shar a demands that the strength of independent rational evidence be reconciled against the strength of any other apparently conflicting evidence such that independent judgments of rational morality act as a condition for the validity of precepts attributed to a just and moral God The Cambridge Companion to Classical Islamic Theology Timothy Winter,2008-05-22 Devoting especial attention to questions of rationality scriptural fidelity and the construction of orthodoxy this volume introduces key Muslim theories of revelation creation ethics scriptural interpretation law mysticism and eschatology The treatment is firmly set in the historical social and political context in which Islam s distinctive understanding of God evolved

Averroes and the Enlightenment Mourad Wahba,2010-10-04 Thirty four scholars from 18 countries on five continents met in Cairo to debate for the first time the ideals of the Enlightenment and secularism while celebrating the 800th anniversary of the death of one of Islam's greatest philosophers Muslim philosopher Ibn Rushd 1126-1198 known in the West as Averroes may be viewed as a medieval precursor of the European Enlightenment and as a rallying point for dialogue between East and West Averroes's attempt to harmonize philosophy and religion reason and faith led to a rethinking of the tenets of Christianity His work spurred on some of the great rational syntheses of Christian thought such as Thomas Aquinas's Summa Theologica This book offers a rare opportunity to learn about the contemporary Arab world and its efforts to dialogue with the West

Religious Freedom in Islam Daniel Philpott, 2019-02-01 Since at least the attacks of September 11 2001 one of the most pressing political questions of the age has been whether Islam is hostile to religious freedom Daniel Philpott examines conditions on the ground in forty-seven Muslim majority countries today and offers an honest clear-eyed answer to this urgent question It is not however a simple answer From a satellite view the Muslim world looks unfree But Philpott shows the truth is much more complex Some one-fourth of Muslim majority countries are in fact religiously free Of the other countries about forty percent are governed not by Islamists but by a hostile secularism imported from the West while the other sixty percent are Islamist The picture that emerges is both honest and hopeful Yes most Muslim majority countries are lacking in religious freedom But Philpott argues the Islamic tradition carries within it seeds of freedom and he offers guidance for how to cultivate those seeds in order to expand religious freedom in the Muslim world and the world at large It is an urgent project Religious freedom promotes goods like democracy and the advancement of women that are lacking in the Muslim majority world and reduces ills like civil war terrorism and violence Further religious freedom is simply a matter of justice not an exclusively Western value but rather a universal right rooted in human nature Its realization is critical to the aspirations of religious minorities and dissenters in Muslim countries to Muslims living in non-Muslim countries or under secular dictatorships and to relations between the West and the Muslim world In this thoughtful book Philpott seeks to establish a constructive middle ground in a fiery and long-lasting debate over Islam

Conflict, Identity, and Reform in the Muslim World Daniel Brumberg, Dina Shehata, 2009 Conflict Identity and Reform in the Muslim World highlights the challenges that escalating identity conflicts within Muslim majority states pose for both the Muslim world and for the West an issue that has received scant attention in policy and academic circles

International Society David R. Mapel, Terry Nardin, 1999-12-19 Drawing on diverse philosophical and theological perspectives the contributors to this collection debate the character of international society the authority of international law and institutions and the demands of international justice

Readings in Ethics Louis F. Groarke, Paul V. Groarke, Paolo C. Biondi, 2021-04-21 Readings in Ethics offers a vast collection of carefully edited readings arranged chronologically across five historical periods The selections cover many major Western and non-Western schools of thought including Daoism virtue ethics Buddhism natural law deontology utilitarianism contractarianism liberalism Marxism feminism and communitarianism In addition to texts from canonical philosophers such as Plato Mill Wollstonecraft and Rawls the volume draws from other sources of wisdom stories fables proverbs medieval mystical treatises literature and poetry The editors have also written substantial introductions annotations discussion questions and suggestions for further reading making for a thorough guided tour of our ethical past and present

Reasoning with God Khaled Abou El Fadl,2014-10-23 In light of recent concern over Shari ah such as proposed laws to prohibit it in the United States and conflict over the role it should play in the new Egyptian constitution many people are confused about the meaning of Shari ah in Islam and its role in the world today In Reasoning with God renowned Islamic scholar Khaled Abou El Fadl explains not only what Shari ah really means but also the way it can revitalize and reengage contemporary Islam After a prologue that provides an essential overview of Shari ah Abou El Fadl explores the moral trajectory of Islam in today s world Weaving powerful personal stories with broader global examples he shows the ways that some interpretations of Islam today have undermined its potential in peace and love Rather than simply outlining challenges however the author provides constructive suggestions about how Muslims can reengage the ethical tradition of their faith through Shari ah As the world s second largest religion Islam remains an important force on the global stage Reasoning with God takes readers both Muslim and non Muslim beyond superficial understandings of Shari ah to a deeper understanding of its meaning and potential

Political Islam, Justice and Governance Mbaye Lo,2018-11-08 This book argues that political Islam represented by its moderate and militant forms has failed to govern effectively or successfully due to its inability to reconcile its discursive understanding of Islam centered on literal justice with the dominant neo liberal value of freedom Consequently Islamists polities have largely been abject often tragic failures in providing a viable collective life and sound governance This argument is developed theoretically and supported through a set of case studies represented by the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt under President Muhammad Morsi s tenure Hassan Turabi s National Islamic Front in Sudan and The Islamic State in Iraq and Syria ISIS It is ideal for audiences interested in Regional Politics Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies From the Greeks to the Arabs and Beyond Hans
