Rebel Reformer Religious Extraordinaire The Life Of Irene Farmer:

Rebel, Reformer, Religious Extraordinaire Geraldine Anthony, 1997 This is the story of young women worldwide who entered religious life before Vatican II and who reacted with enthusiasm energy and creativity to the post Vatican II demands for adaptation to a contemporary world Steadfast Charity Mary Sweeney SC, Martha Westwater SC, Elaine Nolan SC, Julia Heslin SC, 2019-01-16 Steadfast Charity covers the history of the Sisters of Charity of Halifax during the years 1972 2002 as the congregation met the challenges of Vatican II and created new models for living vowed religious life New ways of praying of being community of giving service of understanding the vows all required trust openness risk and a willingness to let go of security As the congregation responded to the call to renewal little did the sisters realize how much would change In this book Sisters of Charity Mary Sweeney Martha Westwater Elaine Nolan and Julia Heslin explore these times by examining the life and practices of the sisters and by contextualizing decisions that were made by the governing bodies during those years They tell the story of an organization and its evolution as a part of the Church in the Modern World The authors offer an inside view of a congregation which in navigating its transformation through a time of upheaval in the Church and in the world remained faithful to its purpose as stated in its Constitutions to give joyful witness to love Understanding the

Consecrated Life in Canada Jason Zuidema, 2015-12-21 The story of the consecrated life in Canada since the 1960s should be about much more than numerical decline Although the falling numbers are significant among Catholic religious in communities that pre date Vatican II many communities continue to show stability and even growth This book provides nuance to that story by adding detailed portraits of movements communities and institutions In four parts this book presents essays from the leading scholars on religious life in Canada that seek to address the state of religious communities dedicated to religious virtuosity normally characterized by formal promises of chastity poverty and obedience The essays examine a broad range of topics related to the general state of consecrated or religious or monastic life in contemporary Canadian Christian and Buddhist traditions In the first section the contributors trace the demographics and definitions of religious life in Canada The second section examines Canadian developments in Catholic religious life during the Vatican II and the post Vatican II eras A third section explores trends in contemporary Canadian religious life while the fourth section describes the consecrated life in other Canadian religious traditions Catholic Education in the Wake of Vatican II Rosa

Bruno-Jofré, Jon Igelmo Zaldívar, 2017-01-01 Catholic Education in the Wake of Vatican II is the first work dedicated to the effects of the Second Vatican Council on catholic education in various national and cultural contexts Vatican II and Beyond Rosa Bruno-Jofré, Heidi MacDonald, Elizabeth M. Smyth, 2017-12-01 The year 2015 marked the fiftieth anniversary of the end of the Second Vatican Council which aimed to align the Church with the modern world Over the last five decades women religious have engaged with the council s reforms with unprecedented enthusiasm far exceeding the expectations of the Church Addressing how Canadian women religious envisioned and lived out the changes in religious life brought on by a pluralistic and secularizing world Vatican II and Beyond analyzes the national organization of female and male congregations the Canadian Religious Conference and the lives of two individual sisters visionary congregational leader Alice Trudeau and social justice activist Mary Alban This book focuses on the new transnational networks feminist concepts professionalization of religious life and complex political landscapes that emerged during this period of drastic transition as women religious sought to reconstruct identities redefine roles and signify vision and mission at both the personal and collective levels Following women religious as they encountered new meanings of faith in their congregations the Church and society at large Vatican II and Beyond demonstrates that the search for a renewed vision was not just a response to secularization but a way to be reborn as Catholic women

Beyond the Altar Christine L.M. Gervais, 2018-04-26 Beyond the Altar illustrates how women religious overcome sexist subjugation by side stepping the patriarchal power of the Roman Catholic Church This book counters the stereotypical image of Catholic nuns as being loyally compliant with their church by showing how a number of current and former women religious in Canada challenge their institutional religion s precepts and engage in transformative strategies to effect change both within and outside the Roman Catholic Church The sisters testimonials reveal never before shared details about their painful experiences of male domination their courageous efforts to move beyond such sexist stifling and the women led and women centered spiritual governance and activist practices they have engendered in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Featuring many examples of the sisters resourcefulness resilience and resistance this book fills a void in international scholarship on what Canadian Catholic women religious have endured and accomplished Through interviews and in depth accounts of the complexities and nuances present in the current and former sisters lives readers will discover their steadfast indomitability as they strategically and sometimes subversively innovate their spiritual spaces
