Rebuilding Mostar Urban Reconstruction In A War Zone:

Rebuilding Mostar John R. Yarwood, Andreas Seebacher, Niels Strufe, Hedwig Wolfram, 1999-01-01 Dr Yarwood and his collaborators describe reconstruction of the city of Mostar in Bosnia from a general technical standpoint The book shows what was done how it was done and considers the problems issues failures and successes Urban Planning after War, Disaster and Disintegration John Yarwood, 2010-07-12 This book concerns the relationship between urban planning and similar things on the one hand and war natural disaster and societal or political disintegration on the other The supposition is that one may mitigate the other The book recounts the author s professional experience of specific cases of disaster earthquake and flood in the Philippines war in Bosnia Afghanistan and South Sudan and disintegration in Albania and Ireland He identifies the key themes in urban and regional planning which these case studies illustrate The themes include a the delivery of building land with site preparation infrastructure and property rights b the size and amount of plots able to match both demographic projections and wealth distribution c the creation of a property market able to deliver affordable land and buildings to match demand encourage investment and further the development of the economy d the spatial or geographic adjustment of institutional patterns to reflect the components of identity making for fuzzy sovereignty e a form of organisation which leads to effective project management and implementation and so on The view is taken that lack of suitable development land supply a land market unable to deliver affordable property to the people and unable to support economic growth and a spatial institutional pattern unable to match key aspects of identity are all causes of war as well as societal or political decline The book contains many drawings prepared by the author including plans of urban projects described in the text It will be of interest particularly to architects town planners municipal engineers and civil engineers urban administrators urban economists politicians diplomats soldiers and staff of NGOs and international agencies The Old Bridge of Mostar and Increasing Respect for Cultural Property in Armed Conflict Jadranka Petrovic, 2012-11-08 Although it is precious to all humanity including future generations cultural property is targeted wilfully during armed conflict In the litany of other war crimes the wilful destruction of cultural property is pushed from centre stage The deliberate destruction of the Old Bridge of Mostar is emblematic of tragedies wrought on priceless cultural objects internationally Drawing on the relevant rules of international humanitarian law and the jurisprudence of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia this book analyses the normative implications of the deliberate targeting and destruction of the Old Bridge and also examines enforcement efforts in order to identify issues relating to international legal protection of cultural property arising from this incident Bosnia and the Destruction of Cultural Heritage Helen Walasek, contributions by Richard Carlton, Amra Hadžimuhamedović, Valery Perry, Tina Wik, 2016-03-03 The massive intentional destruction of cultural heritage during the 1992 1995 Bosnian War targeting a historically diverse identity provoked global condemnation and became a seminal marker in the discourse on cultural heritage It prompted an urgent reassessment of how cultural property could be protected in times of conflict and led to a more definitive recognition in international humanitarian law that destruction of a people's cultural heritage is an aspect of genocide Yet surprisingly little has been published on the subject This wide ranging book provides the first comprehensive overview and critical analysis of the destruction of Bosnia Herzegovina's cultural heritage and its far reaching impact Scrutinizing the responses of the international community during the war including bodies like UNESCO and the Council of Europe the volume also analyses how after the conflict ended external agendas impinged on heritage reconstruction to the detriment of the broader peace process and refugee return It assesses implementation of Annex 8 of the Dayton Peace Agreement a unique attempt to address the devastation to Bosnia's cultural heritage and examines the treatment of war crimes involving cultural property at the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY With numerous case studies and plentiful illustrations this important volume considers questions which have moved to the foreground with the inclusion of cultural heritage preservation in discussions of the right to culture in human rights discourse and as a vital element of post conflict and development aid

Stategraphy Tatjana Thelen, Larissa Vettters, Keebet von Benda-Beckmann, 2017-11-30 Stategraphy the ethnographic exploration of relational modes boundary work and forms of embeddedness of actors offers crucial analytical avenues for researching the state By exploring interactions and negotiations of local actors in different institutional settings the contributors explore state transformations in relation to social security in a variety of locations spanning from Russia Eastern Europe and the Balkans to the United Kingdom and France Fusing grounded empirical studies with rigorous theorizing the volume provides new perspectives to broader related debates in social research and political analysis

Movement as Conflict Transformation Susan Forde, 2018-07-21 This book presents narratives of the social use of space in the divided city of Mostar Bosnia Herzegovina Through the narratives of movement in the city the work demonstrates how residents engage informally with conflict transformation through new movement and use of spaces This book will appeal across the social sciences and in particular to students academics and researchers in the fields of peace and conflict studies political sociology and human geography

Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Giulia Carabelli, Aleksandra Djurasovic, Renata Summa, 2021-05-25 The book Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Perspectives from Mostar questions the existing overrepresentation of Mostar as an ethnically divided city While acknowledging the existence of internal borders the chapters in this book assert that they are not solid nor fixed and by exploring how they become material or immaterial the book offers a deeper understanding of the city's complex dynamics. Accordingly, the chapters in this book are attentive to how ethnic divides materialise or lose importance because of socio-political contingencies. Events, groups and spaces that promote reconciliation from the bottom up are examined not necessarily to assess their success and failures but rather to look at how they create networks, gain trust and form platforms that generate novel understandings of ethnic loyalties and party memberships. Further, and drawing both on the empirical data and theoretical reflections, this volume contributes to broader debates about divided cities by suggesting the need to engage with these cities in their complexities rather than reducing them to their ethno-national divisions. The book engages with socio-political and economic complexities in order to shed light on how ethnic conflicts and resulting spatial partitioning are often just the surface of much more complex dynamics that are far less easy to disentangle and represent. The chapters in this book were originally published in Space and Polity. The

Political Life of Urban Streetscapes Reuben Rose-Redwood, Derek Alderman, Maoz Azaryahu, 2017-07-06 Streetscapes are part of the taken-for-granted spaces of everyday urban life yet they are also contested arenas in which struggles over identity, memory and place shape the social production of urban space. This book examines the role that street naming has played in the political life of urban streetscapes in both historical and contemporary cities. The renaming of streets and remaking of urban commemorative landscapes have long been key strategies that different political regimes have employed to legitimize spatial assertions of sovereign authority, ideological hegemony and symbolic power. Over the past few decades, a rich body of critical scholarship has explored the politics of urban toponymy and the present collection brings together the works of geographers, anthropologists, historians, linguists, planners and political scientists to examine the power of street naming as an urban place-making practice. Covering a wide range of case studies from cities in Europe, North America, Sub-Saharan Africa and Asia, the contributions to this volume illustrate how the naming of streets has been instrumental to the reshaping of urban spatial imaginaries and the cultural politics of place. Europeanisation and Memory Politics in the Western Balkans

Ana Milošević, Tamara Trošt, 2020-10-15 This volume explores how the process of European integration has influenced collective memory in the countries of the Western Balkans. In the region, there is still no shared understanding of the causes and consequences of the Yugoslav wars. The conflicts of the 1990s but also of WWII and its aftermath have created ethnically confined memory cultures. As such divergent interpretations of history continue to trigger confrontations between neighboring countries and hinder the creation of a joint EU perspective. In this volume, the authors examine how these memory wars impact the European dimension by becoming a tool to either support or oppose Europeanisation. The contributors focus on how and why memory is renegotiated, exhibited, adjusted or ignored in the Europeanisation process.

Bordered Cities and Divided Societies Scott A. Bollens, 2021-03-18 Bordered Cities and Divided Societies is a provocative, moving and poetic encounter with the hearts and minds of individuals living in nine cities of conflict, violence and healing: Jerusalem, Belfast, Johannesburg, Nicosia, Sarajevo, Mostar, Barcelona, Bilbao and Beirut. Based on research spanning 25 years including 360 interviews and over two and a half years of in country field research this innovative work employs a series of concise reflective narrative essays grouped into four thematic sections to provide a humanistic on the ground understanding of divided cities conflict and peacemaking Incorporating both scholarly analyses based on empirical research and introspective essays Bollens digs underneath grand narratives of conflict to illuminate the complexities and paradoxes of living amid nationalistic political strife and the challenges of planning and policymaking in divided societies Richly illustrated the book includes informative synopses about the cities that provide access for general readers while extensive connections to recent literature enhance the book s research value to scholars

The Pataphysician's Library Ben Fisher,2000-01-01 The Pataphysician s Library is a study of aspects of 1890s French literature with specific reference to the traditions of Symbolism and Decadence Its main focus is Alfred Jarry who has proved perhaps surprisingly to be one of the more durable fin de si cle authors The originality of this study lies in its use of the enigmatic list of books termed the livres pairs which appears in Jarry s 1898 novel Gestes et Opinions du docteur Faustroll pataphysicien his best known prose work The greatest interest of the livres pairs lies in a group of works by Jarry s friends and contemporaries primarily Leon Bloy Georges Darien Gustave Kahn Catulle Mendes Josephin Madan Rachilde and Henri de Regnier Several of these authors feature as the lords of islands visited by the pataphysician Dr Faustroll in his curious voyage around Paris In conjunction with Jarry s own works the contemporary livres pairs serve to illustrate the vibrant and experimental atmosphere in which these authors worked

Politics of Identity in Post-Conflict States Éamonn Ó Ciardha,Gabriela Vojvoda,2015-12-14 Ireland and the Balkans have come to represent divided and re united communities They both provide effective microcosms of national ethnic political military religious ideological and cultural conflicts in their respective regions and as a result they demonstrate real and imaginary divisions This book will specifically focus on the history politics and literature of Bosnia Herzegovina and Northern Ireland while making comparative reference to some of Europe s other disputed and divided regions Using case studies such as Kosovo and Serbia Lithuania Germany Poland Russia and Belarus Greece and Macedonia it examines space place and border discourse the topography of war and violence post war settlement and reconciliation and the location and negotiation of national ethnic religious political and cultural identities The book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of cultural studies history politics Irish studies Slavonic studies area studies and literary studies

Cities and Crises Dennis Day,Annette Grindsted,Brigitte Piquard,David Zammit,2009-01-01 Humanitarian crises caused by conflict or natural disasters have become a growing focus of multi disciplinary studies Research on response mechanisms to humanitarian crises have likewise undergone rapid developments This volume addresses in particular urban crises It is based on conclusions and case studies discussed by scholars and practitioners who gathered together for HumanitarianNet s Annual Forum 2008 in Odense Denmark

Jerusalem Unbound Michael Dumper,2014-05-27 Jerusalem s formal political borders reveal neither the dynamics of power in the city nor the underlying factors that make an agreement between Israel and the Palestinians so difficult The lines delineating Israeli authority are frequently different from those delineating segregated housing or areas of uneven service provision or parallel national electoral districts of competing educational jurisdictions In particular the city s large number of holy sites and restricted religious compounds create enclaves that continually threaten to undermine the Israeli state s authority and control over the city This lack of congruity between political control and the actual spatial organization and everyday use of the city leaves many areas of occupied East Jerusalem in a kind of twilight zone where citizenship property rights and the enforcement of the rule of law are ambiguously applied Michael Dumper plots a history of Jerusalem that examines this intersecting and multileveled matrix and in so doing is able to portray the constraints on Israeli control over the city and the resilience of Palestinian enclaves after forty five years of Israeli occupation Adding to this complex mix is the role of numerous external influences religious political financial and cultural so that the city is also a crucible for broader contestation While the Palestinians may not return to their previous preeminence in the city neither will Israel be able to assert a total and irreversible dominance His conclusion is that the city will not only have to be shared but that the sharing will be based upon these many borders and the interplay between history geography and religion

National-Level Spatial Planning in Democratic Countries Rachelle Alterman,2001-04-01 National level spatial planning in democratic countries has been all but ignored by researchers in urban and regional planning since the reconstruction years following World War II Being synonymous for many with repressive regimes and coercive government practices national level planning also fell into some disrepute A set of specially commissioned papers from leading researchers has produced this challenging and comprehensive study of current national level planning in ten countries of the developed world Challenging common assumptions this comparative international study finds that there seems to be a modest trend whereby on the threshold of the 21st century national level planning has grown in importance in democratic advanced economy countries

Governance in Ethnically Mixed Cities Sherrill Stroschein,2013-10-18 This collection of original essays breaks new ground by examining the dynamics of ethnic politics at the local level rather than following in the footsteps of many previous studies which focus on the macropolitical level of states and nations Governance in Ethnically Mixed Cities is based on extensive fieldwork and local observation providing perspectives from a range of academic disciplines including Political Science Geography and Anthropology It covers a variety of geographic areas from the Middle East Kirkuk Haifa and Tel Aviv Jaffa to Europe Mostar Bolzano Toulouse and Florence Central Asia Osh in Kyrgyzstan and the United States Durham North Carolina In spite of the variety of disciplinary approaches and geographic diversity of the case studies the contributing authors uncover a number of common elements of local ethnopolitical dynamics in mixed cities the power of informal institutions the effect of numerical balances between groups on local politics and the significance of local competition for material and symbolic resources Each of these areas provides a promising avenue for future research

Design Guidelines in American Cities John Punter,1999-02-01 This book is a study of design initiatives and policies in five US West Coast cities Seattle Portland San Francisco Irvine and San Diego all of which have had particularly interesting experience of relevance to urban design practice in Britain and other countries      Cities, Nationalism and

Democratization Scott A. Bollens, 2007-04-11 Filling a gap in the peacemaking and conflict literatures market and including a set of over 100 interviews with local political and community leaders this book will be helpful to scholars international organizations and grassroots organizations      Heritage Under Pressure - Threats and Solution Michael

Dawson, Edward James, Mike Nevell, 2019-09-20 Heritage under Pressure examines the relationship between the political perspective of the UK government on soft power and the globalising effect of projects carried out by archaeologists and heritage professionals working in the historic environment It exemplifies the nature of professional engagement and the role of the profession in working towards a theory of practice based on the integrity of data the recovery and communication of information and the application of data in real world situations Individual papers raise complex and challenging issues such as commemoration identity and political intervention A further aim of the volume is to illustrate the role of professionals adhering to standards forged in the UK in the context of world heritage under pressure Papers also contribute to the emerging agenda developing as a result of the re orientation of the UK following the Brexit vote at once emphasising the global aspiration of the UK's professional archaeological body the Chartered Institute for Archaeologists in relation to the global reach of UK academic practice By implication the volume also addresses the relationship between professional practice and academic endeavour The volume as a whole contributes to the emerging debate on the authorised heritage discourse and provides an agenda for the future of the profession
