Recent Theological Debates In Europe Their Impact On Interreligious Dialogue:

Recent Theological Debates in Europe Georges de Schrijver, 2004 Postcolonial Europe in the Crucible of Cultures, 2007-01-01 Over the past forty years Europe has grown as a global presence and today it plays an important role in a variety of ways politically socially economically and culturally European theologians have no choice but to take cognizance of this fact and respond to the broad social challenges by clarifying their views on God and being a prophetic voice in cultural political and social decision making The authors in this volume take up four main contemporary global challenges i e globalization violence gender and the environment and the volume provides its readers with first rate theological reflections in Europe The articles offered here are the result of an intensive workshop held in Leuven in September 2004 and are sponsored by the European Commission and the VLIR as part of a three year study program on the understanding of God in Europe

Amidst Mass Atrocity and the Rubble of Theology Peter Admirand, 2012-03-16 It is hubris to claim answers to unanswerable questions Such questions however as part of their burden and worth must still be asked investigated and contemplated How there can be a loving all powerful God and a world stymied by suffering and evil is one of the unanswerable questions we must all struggle to answer even as our responses are closer to gasps silences and further questions More importantly how and whether one articulates a response will have deep lasting repercussions for any belief in God and in our judgments upon one another Throughout this wide ranging interdisciplinary work Peter Admirand draws upon his extensive research and background in theology and testimonial literature trauma and genocide studies cultural studies philosophy of religion interreligious studies and systematic theology As David Burrell writes in the Foreword T he work s intricate structure organization and development will lead us to appreciate that the best one can settle for is a fractured faith built on a fractured theodicy expressed in a language explicitly fragmented pluralist and broken

Back to the Rough Grounds of Praxis Daniel Franklin Pilario, 2005 What is praxis How do we do theology from its perspective These are the main questions which this book seeks to answer As propaedeutic to theological reflection it surveys the notion of praxis in the philosophical sociological and anthropological traditions from Aristotle and Marx to contemporary theories It argues that Pierre Bourdieu s theory of practice achieves a critical synthesis of these different traditions making it a viable theological dialogue partner Bourdieu provides us with a praxeological theory to scrutinize the complexity of the social realm and an epistemological theory to understand the mystery of God s presence in these socio historical conjunctures which serve as the privileged and only locus of His Her revelation The author thus engages two theologians who take praxis practice as central to their theological methods Clodovis Boff liberation theology and John Milbank radical orthodoxy From the perspective of its appropriated framework this work attempts to avoid the limitations as well as preserves the gains achieved by these two approaches as it also explores the rudiments of a theological method relevant to our post Marxist and postmodern global contexts

Autonomy and Food Biotechnology in Theological Ethics Cathriona Russell, 2009 What does autonomy mean

from a Christian perspective What could a Christian environmental ethics bring to the debate about genetically modified food This book investigates conflicting claims in the public realm about food biotechnology It critically evaluates the contribution such technologies make to sustainable agricultural production and environmental stewardship Challenging the received wisdom in popular environmental theology the book defends the role of the human person as steward of creation and presents a human centred Christian environmental ethics rooted in the Kantian tradition of moral philosophy From this vantage point the author critiques the partiality of many contemporary environmental theologies which argue for a return to the technological simplicity of an idealised past or emphasise virtue while taking little account of the role that institutional issues play in framing and defining policy and good practice In this context the author examines whether or not under current conditions transgenic food can contribute to sustainable agricultural production

Religious Identities and the Global South Felix Wilfred, 2021-01-04 This book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of religious identities in the Global South Drawing on literature in various fields Felix Wilfred analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications

Revelation, Reason and Reality Joris Geldhof, 2007 This study provides an in depth analysis of the relationship between modernity and Christianity The author argues that the notion of revelation is eminently reasonable and indissolubly connected with being and reality He takes Jaspers philosophy of religion as representative of the classical modern critique and gives it its due He then takes a step backward so to speak and by means of a consideration of the history of ideas seeks to rehabilitate the Christian understanding of revelation To do this he draws upon Schelling s remarkable philosophy of revelation and Baader s much less familiar speculative dogmatics However this study is much more than a profound philosophical and theological account of the thought of Jaspers Schelling and Baader It is above all an eloquent defence of the plausibility and intelligibility of what Christians have always believed In fact the author makes a compelling case for the claim that revelation is that without which Christianity cannot be thought

Approaches to Theological Ethics Maureen Junker-Kenny, 2019-11-14 Maureen Junker Kenny offers a systematic overview of the discipline of theological ethics in the variety of its approaches which draw upon different philosophical traditions and theological visions in treating its sources Part One examines the four sources of theological ethics the Bible tradition philosophical accounts of the human and the individual human sciences Part Two compares five frameworks in English and German speaking theological ethics based on virtue worship natural law autonomy and feminist analyses Part Three compares three types of vision integralist praxis oriented and discourse focused and Junker Kenny concludes by situating the investigation of the discipline within contemporary philosophical and theological exchanges on religion in the public sphere The book provides a framework in which students can locate the specific use of core ethical concepts and argumentations comparing how each approach relates to the Bible to historical reason theological thought practical self understandings and interdisciplinary perspectives on ethics in a scientific and technological culture In an age of globalisation where different cultures religions lifestyles and values meet in the workplace in schools and in public spaces shaped by religious and cultural traditions it is necessary to foster the ability to create possibilities and venues for dialogue between different self understandings Analysing the variety of approaches to theological ethics helps articulate different visions of what constitutes a fulfilled life of how the moral vocation of each human being can be supported and of the role of the Christian faith for ethics

Loss and Hope Peter Admirand, 2014-05-22 What are the spiritual consequences of abuse and trauma Where is God How and why does such senseless suffering occur What is the relationship between loss and hope What are the benefits of examining loss and hope from an interreligious focus These are some of the questions addressed in this volume written by leading international scholars and which also includes contributions by those who have suffered survivors of genocide and state terror Case studies of loss and hope from around the world are discussed including from the United States Ireland Sri Lanka India Iran Iraq Argentina China and Chile Religions examined include Buddhism Islam Christianity Judaism and Hinduism Three interconnected lenses are used to explore new perspectives on loss and hope survivors and victims testimony interfaith studies and ethical approaches The book highlights the need for responses to atrocity that transcend differences within gender class religion race and ethnicity The authors stress the need for partnership and dialogue from an interfaith perspective and while neither hiding nor unduly minimizing the extent of losses in the world attempt to establish an ethics of hope in the face of destabilizing losses in the realms of human rights and post conflict resolution Loss and Hope is the first book to bring together this high level and diversity of scholars living and working all over the world from different faith cultural and ethnic backgrounds examining the universal themes of loss and hope

Interreligious Learning Didier Pollefeyt, 2007 The growth of secularisation pluralism and globalisation have placed the West's traditional monoreligious education under pressure Christianity no longer possesses a privileged position in Western Europe Since the 1970s a number of scholars have been trying to formulate an answer to this question of multireligiosity by developing a multireligious concept of religious education As both a critique on and alternative for the multireligious model scholars in the 1990s developed the interreligious model of religious education This approach distinguishes itself from monoreligious pedagogy through acknowledging plurality among the pupils as both a part of departure and as a possible end result of religious education Moreover it openly approaches the plurality of religions and worldviews as a learning opportunity Religious education thus becomes a place of encounter and dialogue between different religious convictions Interreligious learning further distinguishes itself from the multireligious model by overcoming a purely objective representation of the multitude of religions In the interreligious model students are not only informed but are introduced to the cognitive and value commitments underlying the different religions giving them the opportunity to enrich and develop their own personal religious identity The teacher takes an explicit and particular religious Christian standpoint but also tries to bring in other committed religious and philosophical voices The interreligious model aims to teach students that holding a proper religious identity while having an openness to the religious other is not necessarily self contradictory What is more that authentic religiosity is able to welcome the other in his her vulnerability and strength as a witness to God In this volume scholars from various disciplines theology pedagogy psychology and ethics and from different religious backgrounds Jews Christians and Muslims face up to a total of ten challenges related to interreligious learning Challenges that may act as obstacles to the acceptance of this possible new paradigm for religious education     European Perspectives on the New
