Turkey The articles convincingly show that women's agency cannot be unearthed without narrating how women were involved in shaping their own and others' lives even in the most unexpected areas of their existence. The women's activities described here do not simply reflect modernizing trends or westernizing attitudes or their defensive denial. They provide an array of local responses where the local can never be found and should never be conceptualized in its initial unchanged or authentic state.

Missionary Education Kim Christiaens, Idesbald Goddeeris, Pieter Verstraete, 2021 Missionaries have been subject to academic and societal debate. Some scholars highlight their contribution to the spread of modernity and development among local societies whereas others question their motives and emphasise their inseparable connection with colonialism. In this volume fifteen authors from both Europe and the Global South address these often polemical positions by focusing on education, one of the most prominent fields in which missionaries have been active. They elaborate on Protestantism as well as Catholicism with cases from the 18th to the 21st century and cover different colonial empires in Asia and Africa. The volume introduces new angles such as gender, the agency of the local population and the perspective of the child.
