Religion And Reality:

Religion and Reality TV Mara Einstein, Katherine Madden, Diane Winston, 2018-04-17 Why is reality television flourishing in today's expanding media market Religion and Reality TV Faith in Late Capitalism argues that the reality genre offers answers to many of life's urgent questions Why am I important What gives my life meaning How do I present my best self to the world Case studies address these questions by examining religious representations through late capitalist lenses including the maintenance of the self the commodification of the sacred and the performance of authenticity The book's fourteen essays explore why religious themes proliferate in reality TV audiences fascination with lived religion and the economics that make religion and reality TV a successful pairing Chapters also consider the role of race gender and religion in the production and reception of programming Religion and Reality TV provides a framework for understanding the intersection of celebrity media attention beliefs and values The book will be of interest to students and scholars of religion and media studies communication American studies and popular culture Religion as Reality, Life and Power Rufus Matthew Jones, 1919 Religion, Reality, and a Good Life Eberhard Herrmann, 2004 Do we have access to reality as it is conceptualized by us Against metaphysical realism and postmodern relativism Eberhard Herrmann develops a pragmatic realism It stresses reality as conceptualized reality while at the same time not ruling out objectivity Contents include The Nature of the Enquiry The Philosophical Problem Formulated Religion and Philosophy Philosophy Reasons for and Against Metaphysical Realism Critique of Semantic Realism Pragmatic Realism Realism from an Internal Perspective Religious Metaphysical Realism Religious Metaphysical Anti Realism Religious Statements as Purported Assertions Christian Theism The Character of Religious Utterances Pragmatic Realism The Function of Religion Two Material Definitions of Truth Perspectives on Views of Life The Role of the Emotions in Our Conception of Reality Emotions and the Conceptualization of Values Religion and Reality, 2016 Reality and Religion Sundar Singh, 1924 The Religion of Reality Didier Maleuvre, 2006 The book first argues that religious feeling persists in the secular western mind that it has taken refuge in the unlikeliest of camps indeed with the supposed debunker of religious creed the rationalist existential ego Religion and Reality, a Study in the Philosophy of Mysticism James Henry Tuckwell, 1915 Reality, 1925 Constructing Reality in Comparative Theology Paul S. Chung, 2022-09-29 Through an examination of Christian interaction with other religions Paul S Chung constructs a theology of comparative religion In the course of this construction he employs the work of Ernst Troeltsch Robert Bellah and Karl Barth while offering case studies of transformative interaction between Buddhism Christianity and Islam Chung's interdisciplinary approach opens up avenues for the inter religious understanding and melding for instance exploring the development of a Protestant Islam Throughout he provides new conceptions of the religions involved and the realities they assert Faith Facing Reality John W. de Gruchy, 2022-10-21 The COVID 19 pandemic and the war in Ukraine have starkly reminded us of the realities that threaten our future on planet Earth Christian faith is not a way of escaping these realities but of engaging them in the struggle for justice and peace motivated by love enabled by faith and sustained by hope This is based on the conviction that in Jesus Christ the reality of God has become redemptively embodied within the reality of the world Written within the context of South Africa but with global vision and in conversation with the legacy of Dietrich Bonhoeffer this book is an attempt to stir up discussion and inform action in connecting worldly and transcendent reality Inevitably this will be controversial not least because that is something that Bonhoeffer risked This is certainly true when it comes to the five realities that provide much of the book's substance the persistence of racism the will to power scientism and soulless technology the conflict in Israel Palestine and the threat of wars and pandemics Is it possible to believe in the God of Jesus Christ in such a world If so what does that mean and how does it help us live creatively redemptively and faithfully To answer these questions the author examines the meaning of faith the human desire for transcendence and the need for conversion wisdom solidarity and responsible freedom The Search After Reality Sundar Singh,1925 Language and Reality Wilbur Marshall Urban,2014-06-03 First published in 2002 This is Volume XV of seventeen in the Library of Philosophy series on Metaphysics Written in 1939 this book looks at Language and Reality and the Philosophy of Language and the Principles of Symbolism and is related to the movement of Logical Positivism initiated by Wittgenstein's Tractatus Logico Philosophicus The Reality of Religion Henry Van Dyke,1885 Edge of Reality William Thomas,2017-11-15 This book contains a discussion with a new perspective on the old string theory problems With respect to where all those extra dimensions are we need to make the theory work mathematically It has been said by many scientists that we may need to look at the string theory problem with a fresh perspective or find new ways of thinking to resolve its challenges Lets have a little fun with open minds and a new way of looking into reality with our imaginations turned on as we discuss possible new solutions to resolving the string theory challenges Exercising the mind is one way to look into things that are out of the reach of direct experimentation Einstein utilized the thought experiments to revolutionize modern physics by means of imagination insight and logic This discussion proceeds in a language that anyone can follow regardless of background This is an intuitive discussion with respect to known and accepted foundational science principles focused on solving the string theory challenges Fantastic Reality Jack Conrad,2012-06-02 Religion as defined by Marxism is fantastic reality Fantastic not in the trite sense that the claims religion makes about existence are verifiably untrue unreal or baseless but in the sense that nature and society are reflected in exaggerated form as leaping shadows as symbols or inversions So religion should not be dismissed as mere false consciousness Religion reflects something of the real but as Jack Conrad's book shows there is even more to it than that Religious ideas are not only determined by reality they can themselves become materially effective The ideas people have in their heads especially when mediated through institutions such as churches mosques and temples no matter how wrapped up in the godly and seemingly unrelated to the corporeal world impact on their surroundings The Church Quarterly Review ,1926 Schleiermacher, the Study of Religion, and the Future of Theology Brent W. Sockness, Wilhelm Gräb, 2010 This volume documents a significant meeting in the history of Schleiermacher studies at which leading scholars from Europe and North America gathered to probe key features of Schleiermacher's theological and philosophical program in light of its contested place in the study of religion Offering fresh interpretations of Schleiermacher's theory of religion revisionary dogmatics and hermeneutics of culture the book critically re-examines Schleiermacher's thought with an eye on the contemporary divide between theology and religious studies Publisher's website The Congregational Quarterly, 1927 Includes critical reviews What Do We Mean by God? Cyril Henry Valentine, 1929 The Science Religion and Reality Joseph Needham, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1926 edition
