Jakosky, 2022-10-18 Are we alone in the universe As humans are we unique or are we part of a greater cosmic existence What is life's future on Earth and beyond How does life begin and develop These are age old questions that have inspired wonder and controversy ever since the first people looked up into the sky With today's technology however we are closer than ever to finding the answers Astrobiology is the relatively new but fast growing scientific discipline that involves trying to understand the origin evolution and distribution of life within the universe It is also one of the few scientific disciplines that attracts the public's intense curiosity and attention This interest stems largely from the deep personal meaning that the possible existence of extraterrestrial life has for so many Whether this meaning relates to addressing the Big Questions of our existence the possibility of encountering life on other planets or the potential impact on our understanding of religion there is no doubt that the public is firmly vested in finding answers In this broadly accessible introduction to the field Bruce Jakosky looks at the search for life in the universe not only from a scientific perspective but also from a distinctly social one In lucid and engaging prose he addresses topics including the contradiction between the public's fascination and the meager dialogue that exists between those within the scientific community and those outside of it and what has become some of the most impassioned political wrangling ever seen in government science funding Critical Essays on Edward Schillebeeckx's Theology Corneliu C. Simut, 2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today's world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today's world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx s thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man s terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today s people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way

Reframed: Connecting Religion, Science, and Society in the Long Sixties , 2023-08-07 The Long Sixties 1955 1973 were a period of economic prosperity political unrest sexual liberation cultural experimentation and profound religious innovation throughout the Western world This social effervescence also affected the study of religion by reshaping the relationships between academic and religious institutions and discourses While the mainstream churches sought to deploy the instruments of the social sciences to understand and manage the changing socioreligious context prominent scholars regarded the bubbly spirituality of the counterculture as the harbinger of a new era some of them actively used their academic knowledge to further this revolution This book discusses the multiple entanglements of religion and science during these turbulent decades through theoretically informed case studies from both sides of the Atlantic

Modern Subjectivities in World Society

Dietrich Jung, Stephan Stetter, 2018-07-20 This book brings together theories of world society with poststructuralist and postcolonial work on modern subjectivity to understand the universalising and particularising processes of globalisation It addresses a theoretical void in global studies by attending to the co constituted process through which modern subjectivities and global processes emerge and interact The editors outline a key problem in global studies which is a lack of engagement between the local particular individual and the universalising processes in which they are situated The volume deals with this concern with contributions from historical sociologists poststructuralist and postcolonial scholars and by focusing in the Middle East religion in global modernity and non human subjectivities

Gnosis and Hermeticism from Antiquity to Modern Times R. van den Broek,Wouter J. Hanegraaff,1998-01-01 This volume introduces what has sometimes been called the third component of western culture It traces the historical development of those religious traditions which have rejected a world view based on the primacy of pure rationality or doctrinal faith emphasizing instead the importance of inner enlightenment or gnosis a revelatory experience which was typically believed to entail an encounter with one s true self as well as with the ground of being God The contributors to this book demonstrate this perspective as fundamental to a variety of interconnected traditions In Antiquity one finds the gnostics and hermetics in the Middle Ages several Christian sects The medieval Cathars can to a certain extent be considered part of the same tradition Starting with the Italian humanist Renaissance hermetic philosophy became of central importance to a new religious synthesis that can be referred to as Western Esotericism The development of this tradition is described from Renaissance hermeticists and practitioners of spiritual alchemy to the emergence of Rosicrucianism and Christian theosophy in the seventeenth century and from post enlightenment aspects of Romanticism and occultism to the present day New Age movement

Religion and the Modern World John Herman Randall,John Herman Randall (Jr.),1929

Easternization of the West Colin Campbell,2015-11-17 In this provocative and groundbreaking book Colin Campbell shows that the civilization of the West is undergoing a revolutionary process of change one in which features that have characterized the West for two thousand years are in the process of being marginalized to be replaced by those more often associated with the civilizations of the East Moving far beyond popular trends Campbell assembles a powerful range of evidence to show how Easternization has been building throughout the last century especially since the 1960s Campbell demonstrates how it was largely in the 1960s that new interpretations in theology political thought and science were widely adopted by a new generation of young culture carriers This highly original and wide ranging book advances a thesis that will be of interest to scholars in many disciplines in the humanities and social sciences

Polish Scientific Philosophy: The Lvov-Warsaw School Francesco Coniglione,Roberto

Poli, Jan Woleński, 2023-03-13 One can often encounter an opinion that Polish scientific or analytic philosophy or the Lvov Warsaw School deserves to be much better known than actually is. This book is thought of as a response to such a claim. The papers collected in this volume are divided into two parts: Background and Influence and History and Systematics. However, there is no sharp borderline between themes which are touched in both parts. Generally speaking, all papers of the first part relate the Lvov Warsaw School to some philosophical movements: Brentanism, phenomenology, and Marxism, external to it, whereas the papers collected in the second one focus on internal issues connected with the school only. Roberto Poli takes into account Brentano's views in his discussion of reism. Since the Polish school of mathematical logic is much better known than the Polish analytic philosophy, we decided to omit here any treatment of the former. Thus, this collection centers on purely philosophical matters. We projected this volume not as an exhaustive panorama of Polish analytic philosophy but rather as a series of essays on particular persons or topics. As a result, one can find here papers on Twardowski, Ajdukiewicz, Kotarbinski, Tarski, and Łukasiewicz, as well as on ethics, science, nominalism, and the methodology of psychology. We hope that this book will contribute to a better knowledge and evaluation of Polish achievements in analytic philosophy. We would like to express our gratitude to Professor Leszek Nowak, the editor in chief of Poznań Studies in the Philosophy of the Sciences and the Humanities, who initiated the idea of the collection and helped in its preparation. The Penguin History of Economics Roger E. Backhouse, 2002-01-31 The definitive guide to the history of economic thought, fully revised twenty years after first publication. Roger Backhouse's definitive guide takes the story of economic thinking from the ancient world to the present day with a brand new chapter on the twenty-first century and updates throughout to reflect the latest scholarship. Covering topics including globalisation, inequality, financial crises, and the environment, Backhouse brings his breadth of expertise and a contemporary lens to this original and insightful exploration of economics, revealing how we got to where we are today. Religion in Human Affairs Clifford Kirkpatrick, 1929 A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2002-08-22 Ira Lapidus's classic history of the origins and evolution of Muslim societies, revised and updated for this second edition, first published in 2002. Writing a New Society V. Matheson-Hooker, 2021-10-01 Writing a New Society is the first extended study of the novel in Malay and is a groundbreaking study of the relationship between social change and literary practice. The book traces the emergence of the genre from the 1920s and drawing on 26 of Malaysia's best-known novels, argues that the form was developed as a vehicle for transforming Malay ideas about themselves and their society. Virginia Hooker focuses on the underlying anxiety about racial identity which underpins much of Malay writing and examines how ethnic identity is constructed and expressed. In a radical break with the traditional notion of Malay society as being totally dependent on the Sultan, the book shows how the novelists centre their writings on descriptions of ordinary Malays and present the household as the primary site of change. Here the novels develop and describe a private sphere where Malays who previously had no rights begin to exercise their initiative. The concept of social equality which inspires the novelists subverts many of the themes of modern Malay politics

TECHNO CRITICAL MANIFESTO Lawrence J.

Terlizzese, 2020-03-10 A lot of confusion exists over the right ethical approach to new technologies Do we embrace it all as an unmitigated good Or should we take a more cautionary route that seeks to evaluate our own technology use and its impact on society from a critical perspective A new awareness of both the dangers and potential benefits new technologies offer will guide us through a morass of ethical questions We stress limits because it is here that the traditional dialectic of question and answer has broken down even talking about technological restraint is met with near universal scorn Nevertheless it is through the negative side of this debate that the antithesis will transition into a resolve for the technological problem raised in this Manifesto Chemistry in Modern Life Svante Arrhenius, 1925
