Religions and Missionaries around the Pacific, 1500-1900 Tanya Storch, 2017-05-15 This volume takes an interdisciplinary approach to the study of religious cultural exchanges around the Pacific in the period 1500-1900, relating these to economic and political developments and to the expansion of communication across the area. It brings together twenty-two pieces from diaries of religious exiles and missionary field observations to studies from a variety of academic disciplines, so enabling a multitude of voices to be heard. The articles are grouped in sections dealing with the Islamic period, the Iberian Catholic period, the Jewish diaspora, the Russian Orthodox church, the epoch of Protestant culture, and finally Asian immigrant religions in the West. A substantial introduction contextualizes these chapters in terms of both historical and contemporary approaches.

The Church in the World David Zac Niringiye, 2016-04-30 Historically studies of the church in Africa have tended to focus on church history or church-state relations, but in this publication David Zac Niringiye presents a study of the Church of Uganda focused on its ecclesiology. Niringiye examines several formative periods for the Church of Uganda during concurrent chronological political eras characterized by varying degrees of socio-political turbulence, highlighting how the social context impacted the church's self-expression. The author's methodology and insight sets this work apart as an excellent reflection on the Ugandan church and brings scholarly attention to previously ignored topics that hold great value to society, the church, and the academic community globally.

Cultural Dimensions of Strategy and Policy Jiyul Kim, 2009 There has been a growing recognition in the post-Cold War era that culture has increasingly become a factor in determining the course of today's complex and interconnected world. The U.S. experience in Afghanistan and Iraq extended this trend to national security and military operations. There is also a growing recognition by the national security community that culture is an important factor at the policy and strategy levels. Cultural proficiency at the policy and strategy levels means the ability to consider history, values, ideology, politics, religion, and other cultural dimensions and assess their potential effect on policy and strategy. The Analytical Cultural Framework for Strategy and Policy (ACFSP) is one systematic and analytical approach to the vital task of viewing the world through many lenses. The ACFSP identifies basic cultural dimensions that seem to be of fundamental importance in determining such behavior and thus are of importance in policy and strategy formulation and outcomes These dimensions are 1 Identity or the basis for defining identity and its linkage to interests 2 Political Culture or the structure of power and decisionmaking and 3 Resilience or the capacity or ability to resist adapt or succumb to external forces Identity is the most important because it ultimately determines purpose values and interests that form the foundation for policy and strategy to attain or preserve those interests Comparative

Cricket and Contemporary Society in Britain Russell Holden,2021-11-29 This book investigates the declining status of cricket within contemporary British society after the high water mark of England s Ashes victory in 2005 It considers the deep roots of the game within British national life as well as its ever changing nature and reflects upon the current significance and relevance of a sport that many still perceive as deeply traditional and conservative in outlook Adopting a socio political approach the book offers new perspectives on both the contemporary realities of modern cricket and the social cultural and political condition of modern Britain Rather than focusing on personality and the detail of match history the book looks at how the sport has coped with wider societal changes such as those in Afro Caribbean and South Asian communities and how this has demanded adaptation by cricket s governing authorities The book also considers the international context in which the game continues to develop and how the initiative with new formats such as Twenty20 has been lost to other cricketing nations and it offers insight into the continued expansion and recent professionalization of the women s game hinting at ways in which cricket as a whole could recapture the public s imagination Cricket and Contemporary Society in Britain is an invaluable resource for those studying the sociology of sport sport history cultural studies the politics of sport cultural identity sport management and sport development It is also a fascinating read for anybody with an interest in cricket or in the value of sport in an era of rapid socio economic political and cultural change Religion and Healing in America

Linda L. Barnes,Susan S. Sered,2005 Americans have long been aware of the phenomenon loosely known as faith healing During the 1990s the American cultural landscape changed and religious healing became a commonplace feature in our society This is a look at this new reality The Handbook of Cross-Border Ethnic and Religious Affinities Charity Butcher,2019-04-16 Increasingly ethnic and religious variables are taken into account to explain conflict and relations between nations However ethnic and religious groups exist beyond the confines of frontiers In Africa for example hundreds of ethnic groups were divided by colonial borders and many retained kinship connections to their brethren in other countries thus creating cross border ethnic religious affinity Such cross border connections affect a variety of foreign policy from diplomacy to the use of force An internal problem can spread to other states or external actors can become involved in domestic disputes due to such factors Therefore data on cross border connections are essential to measure and assess their actual or potential effects on foreign policy or conflict This unique resource serves both qualitative and quantitative researchers For ease of use it is divided in sections for each region of world with the entries organized by pairs of contiguous countries Each entry for a pair of countries briefly discusses the ethnic and religious groups that are common to both countries and the historical and current connections between these groups The entries are organized based on the Correlates of War country codes which are widely used by researchers and allow for country pairs to be organized geographically within each section to facilitate easy use of the data

Bemba-Speaking Women of Zambia in a Century of Religious Change (1892-1992) Hugo F. Hinfelaar, 2025-02-10 Bemba Speaking Women of Zambia traces the often painful religious changes that have occurred among the Bemba speaking women of Zambia since the last decade of the 19th century It argues that the religious tenets of the traditional domestic cult had already been undermined by the centralising tendencies of the merchant princes before the arrival of the missionaries who based their church structures on the concept of the Bemba hierarchy The body of the book describes with great authority the creative redress of the women as channelled through independent Christian movements and through the mission churches themselves These chapters are especially important as it is shown in the last part of the book that these genuine reactions of the women could well offer material for genuine inculturation

Animism of the Nilotics and Discourses of Islamic Fundamentalism in Sudan Kuel Maluil Jok, 2010 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of Animism as a religion and a culture of the Nilotic peoples of the Upper River Nile in modern Southern Sudan It gives an account of how the animistic ritual performances of the divine chief priests are strategies in conflict management and resolution For centuries the Nilotic peoples have been resisting changes to new religious identities and conservatively remained Animists Their current interactions with the external world however have transformed their religious identities At present the Nilotics are Animist Christians or Animist Muslims This does not mean that the converted Nilotics relinquish Animism and become completely assimilated to the new religious prophetic dogmas instead they develop compatible religious practices of Animism Christianity and Islam New Islamic fundamentalism in Sudan which is sweeping Africa into Islamic religious orthodoxy where Sharia Islamic law is the law of the land rejects this compatibility and categorises the Nilotics as heathens and apostates Such characterisation engenders opposing religious categories with one side urging Sharia and the other for what this study calls gradable culture Kuel Jok is a researcher at the Department of World Cultures at the University of Helsinki In Sudan Jok obtained a degree in English Linguistics and Literature and diplomas in Philosophy and Translation He also studied International Law in Egypt In Europe Jok acquired an MA in Sociology from the University of Joensuu Finland and a PhD in the same field from the University of Helsinki Finland
