The

World's Religions Peter B. Clarke, Peter Beyer, 2009-05-07 This comprehensive volume focuses on the world's religions and the changes they have undergone as they become more global and diverse in form. It explores the religions of the world not only in the regions with which they have been historically associated but also looks at the new cultural and religious contexts in which they are developing. It considers the role of migration in the spread of religions by examining the issues raised for modern societies by the increasing interaction of different religions. The volume also addresses such central questions as the dynamics of religious innovation which is evidenced in the rise and impact of new religious and new spirituality movements in every continent. BASA 2020 Sumarlam Sumarlam, Sisyo Eko Widodo, Siti Muslifah, Prasetyo Adi Wisnu

Wibowo, Suyatno Suyatno, Robbi Rahim, 2021-12-01 This proceeding contains selected papers of The International Seminar On Recent Language Literature And Local Culture Studies In New Normal Kajian Mutakhir Bahasa Sastra dan Budaya Daerah di Era Normal Baru BASA held on 4 November 2020 with virtual conference in Solo Indonesia. The conference which was organized by Sastra Daerah Faculty of Cultural Sciences Universitas Sebelas Maret. The conference accommodates topics for linguistics in general including issues in language literature local cultural studies philology folklore oral literature history art education etc. Selecting and reviewing process for the The International Seminar On Recent Language Literature And Local Culture Studies in New Normal Kajian Mutakhir Bahasa Sastra dan Budaya Daerah di Era Normal Baru was very challenging in that it needs a goodwill of those who were involved in such a process. More than ten experts were invited in reviewing giving suggestions for revision and at last selecting the papers. On that account we would like to forward our appreciation and our gratefulness to such invited experts for having done the process. Papers in the proceeding are expected to give academic benefits especially in broadening the horizon of our understanding in language literature and local culture studies in new normal. We realize that what we are presenting for the publication is still far from being perfect. Constructive criticism is very much welcome for improvement. Finally the committees thank for the participation and congratulate for the publication of the papers in the proceedings of BASA 4 2020. The committees also thank all those who have supported and actively participated for the success of this event. Hopefully these Proceedings can be used as references in developing technology and improving learning activities in the fields of education social arts and humanities. An Introduction to Anthropology

Wilson Dallam Wallis, 1926 Peace on Earth Thomas Matyók, Maureen Flaherty, Hamdesa Tusso, Jessica Senehi, Sean Byrne, 2013-12-16 Peace on Earth: The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies provides a critical analysis of faith and religious institutions in peacebuilding practice and pedagogy. The work captures the synergistic relationships among faith traditions and how multiple approaches to conflict transformation and peacebuilding result in a creative process that has the potential to achieve a more detailed view of peace on earth containing breadth as well as depth. Library and bookstore shelves are filled with critiques of the negative impacts of religion in conflict scenarios. Peace on Earth: The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies offers an alternate view that suggests religious organizations play a more complex role in conflict than a simply negative one Faith based organizations and their workers are often found on the frontlines of conflict throughout the world conducting conflict management and resolution activities as well as advancing peacebuilding initiatives
