Horsley, 2006 This collection of essays pursues two new approaches to Q the speeches of Jesus paralleled in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke The essays in Part One suggest that recent work in ethnopoetics the ethnography of performance and theory of verbal art especially that of John Miles Foley both complements and challenges standard approaches to the teaching of Jesus They explore how Q speeches might be appreciated as oral performance that resonates with listeners in a community context by referencing Israelite popular tradition The essays in Part Two examine how the work of anthropologist and political scientist James C Scott on popular tradition the moral economy of the peasant and hidden transcripts may illuminate the social context and political implications of Q speeches From publisher's description The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to African Religions Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2012-03-12 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to African Religions brings together a team of international scholars to create a single volume resource on the religious beliefs and practices of the peoples in Africa Offers broad coverage of issues relating to African religions considering experiences in indigenous Christian and Islamic traditions across the continent Contributors are from a variety of fields ensuring the volume offers multidisciplinary perspectives Explores methodological approaches to religion from anthropological philosophical and historical perspectives Provides insights into the historical developments in African religions as well as contemporary issues such as the development of African initiated churches neo traditional religions and Pentecostalism Discusses important topics at the intersection of culture and religion in Africa including the arts health politics globalization gender relations and the economy African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010 Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date Moreover up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally if at all in the study of African Christian Theology This book is probably the first deliberate extensive and well argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without as has historically been the case the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book Dr Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology Catholic University of Eastern Africa Nairobi Kenya The World's Religions in Figures Todd M. World J. Gordon Melton, Martin Baumann, 2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world's smaller religious outposts Religions of the World Second Edition A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe The encyclopedia's six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works Entries include profiles on religion in the world's smallest countries the Vatican and San Marino profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh as well as profiles on religion in some of the world's most remote places Antarctica and Easter Island Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world its major geographical sites and its major celebrations Unlike other works the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism humanism and other traditions Encyclopedia of African Religion Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2008-11-26 Numerous titles focusing on particular beliefs in Africa exist including Marcel Griaule's Conversations with Ogotemmeli but this one presents an unparalleled exploration of a multitude of cultures and experiences It is both a gateway to deeper exploration and a penetrating resource on its own This is bound to become the definitive scholarly resource on African religions Library Journal Starred Review Overall because of its singular focus reliability and scope this encyclopedia will prove invaluable where there is considerable interest in Africa or in different religious traditions Library Journal As the first comprehensive work to assemble ideas concepts discourses and extensive essays in this vital area the Encyclopedia of African Religion explores such topics as deities and divinities the nature of humanity the end of life the conquest of fear and the quest for attainment of harmony with nature and other humans Editors Molefi Kete Asante and Ama Mazama include nearly 500 entries that seek to rediscover the original beauty and majesty of African religion Features Offers the best representation to date of the African response to the sacred Helps readers grasp the enormity of Africa's contribution to religious ideas by presenting richly textured concepts of spirituality ritual and initiation while simultaneously advancing new theological categories cosmological narratives and ways to conceptualize ethical behavior Provides readers with new metaphors figures of speech modes of reasoning etymologies analogies and cosmogonies Reveals the complexity texture and rhythms of the African religious tradition to provide scholars with a baseline for future works The Encyclopedia of African Religion is intended for undergraduate and graduate students in fields such as Religion Africana Studies Sociology and Philosophy Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd, 2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Ecology John Hart, 2017-05-30 In the face of the current environmental crisis which clearly has moral and spiritual dimensions members of all the world's faiths have come to recognize the critical importance of religion's relationship to ecology The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Ecology offers a comprehensive overview of the history and the latest developments in religious engagement with environmental issues throughout the world Newly commissioned essays from noted scholars of diverse faiths and scientific traditions present the most cutting edge thinking on religion's relationship to the environment Initial readings explore the ways traditional concepts of nature in Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism and other religious traditions have been shaped by the environmental crisis Readings then address the changing nature of theology and religious thought in response to the challenges of protecting the environment Various conceptual issues and themes that transcend individual traditions climate change bio ethics social justice ecofeminism and more are then analyzed before a final section examines some of the immediate challenges we face in caring for the Earth while looking to the future of religious environmentalism Timely and thought provoking Companion to Religion and Ecology offers illuminating insights into the role of religion in the ongoing struggle to secure the future well being of our natural world With a foreword by Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew I and an Afterword by John Cobb Traditional Churches, Born Again Christianity, and Pentecostalism Yonatan N. Gez, 2018-09-08 In Kenya's vibrant urban religious landscape where Pentecostal and traditional churches of various orientations live side by side religious identity tends to overflow a single institutional affiliation While Kenya's Christianity may offer modes of coping with the fragilities of urban life it is subject to repeated crises and schisms often fueled by rumors and accusations of hypocrisy In order to understand the unfolding of Kenyans' dynamic religious identities and inspired by the omnipresent distinction between religious membership and church visits Yonatan N. Gez considers the complementary relations between a center of religious affiliation and expansion towards secondary practices Building on this basic distinction the book develops a theoretical innovation in the form of the religious repertoire model which maps individuals' religious identities in terms of three intertwined degrees of practice Religions in the Modern World Linda Woodhead, Christopher Partridge, Hiroko Kawanami, 2016-01-13 Religions in the Modern World Traditions and Transformations Third Edition is the ideal textbook for those coming to the study of religion for the first time as well as for those who wish to keep up to date with the latest perspectives in the field This third edition contains new and upgraded pedagogic features including chapter summaries key terms and definitions and questions for reflection and discussion The first part of the book considers the history and modern practices of the main religious traditions of the world while the second analyzes trends from secularization to the rise of new spiritualities Comprehensive and fully international in coverage it is accessibly written by practicing and specialist teachers Singing with the Dogon Prophet Walter E.A. van Beek,Oumarou S.ONGOIBA,Atimè D. Saye,2022-04-25 In the Dogon funeral proceedings a major song cycle called baja ni is performed in a session of at least seven hours The texts of the chants are attributed to a legendary figure called Abir who as a blind singer in the nineteenth century roamed the heartland of the Dogon The baja ni songs have escaped scholarly attention thus far Singing with the Dogon Prophet by Walter E A van Beek Oumarou SONGOIBA and Atim D Saye provides their first publication in English as well as an analysis of these songs These texts deal with the relations between man and woman man's ambivalent dependency on the otherworld and with life and death the whole night performance is one of the high points of the funeral Additionally Abir is a prophet and during his life has uttered a great number of prophecies on a wide range of topics from local issues to the relation of the Dogon with the Fulbe herdsman and from the arrival of the colonials to ecological transformation This book examines how these prophecies with these songs offer an inside view of the way the Dogon construct the present in a continuous dialogue with their past and their projected future

Explaining the Practice of Elevating an Ancestor for Veneration George Shakwelele,2023-06-13 The Bisa people of Nabwalya Zambia love their culture and gladly celebrate all their traditional festivals This book presents exciting research into Kusefya pa ngena rituals through which the Bisa elect ancestors for veneration The Bisa speak freely of how their belief in ancestor veneration does not conflict with their worship of God For them the two work hand in hand Traditional practices are considered vital to the community because they enhance life reinforce cultural values and explain life events Those questioned said ancestor veneration should continue because it benefits current and future generations For example their most celebrated ancestor Kabuswe Yombwe when petitioned provides rain and a good harvest for the community People affirmed that rain fell each time they petitioned Kabuswe One woman who is married to an elder in a Pentecostal church vowed not to give up ancestor veneration to which she attributed the healing of her son and daughter She pledged her allegiance to both Jesus Christ and to her family's ancestors In another story an ancestor appears in a dream to an expectant woman demanding that her child be given a feminine name The mother obeys to avoid the child being born with a sickness

Re-imagining African Christologies Victor I. Ezigbo,2010-02-08 Who do you say that I am Mark 8 29 is the question of Christology By asking this question Jesus invites his followers to interpret him from within their own contexts history experience and social location Therefore all responses to Jesus's invitation are contextual But for too long many theologians particularly in the West have continued to see Christology as a universal endeavor that is devoid of any contextual influences. This understanding of Christology undermines Jesus's expectations from us to imagine and appropriate him from within our own contexts. In Reimagining African Christologies, Victor I. Ezigbo presents a constructive exposition of the unique ways that many African theologians and lay Christians from various church denominations have interpreted and appropriated Jesus Christ in their own contexts. He also articulates the constructive contributions that these African Christologies can make to the development of Christological discourse in non-African Christian communities.

Faith in African Lived Christianity

,2019-09-16 Faith in African Lived Christianity: Bridging Anthropological and Theological Perspectives offers a comprehensive empirically rich and interdisciplinary approach to the study of faith in African Christianity. The book brings together anthropology and theology in the study of how faith and religious experiences shape the understanding of social life in Africa. The volume is a collection of chapters by prominent Africanist theologians, anthropologists, and social scientists who take people's faith as their starting point and analyze it in a contextually sensitive way. It covers discussions of positionality in the study of African Christianity, interdisciplinary methods and approaches, and a number of case studies on political, social, and ecological aspects of African Christian spirituality.

The Gender of Piety, Wendy Urban-Mead, 2015-07-15. The Gender of Piety is an intimate history of the Brethren in Christ Church in Zimbabwe or BICC as related through six individual life histories that extend from the early colonial years through the first decade after independence. Taken together, these six lives show how men and women of the BICC experienced and sequenced their piety in different ways. Women usually remained tied to the church throughout their lives, while men often had a more strained relationship with it. Church doctrine was not always flexible enough to accommodate expected masculine gender roles, particularly male membership in political and economic institutions or participation in important male communal practices. The study is based on more than fifteen years of extensive oral history research supported by archival work in Zimbabwe, the United Kingdom, and the United States. The oral accounts make it clear, official versions to the contrary, that the church was led by spiritually powerful women and that maleness and mission church notions of piety were often incompatible. The life history approach illustrates how the tension of gender roles both within and without the church manifested itself in sometimes unexpected ways, for example, how a single family could produce both a legendary woman pastor credited with mediating multiple miracles and a man, her son, who joined the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People's Union nationalist political party and fought in Zimbabwe's liberation war in the 1970s. Investigating the lives of men and women in equal measure, The Gender of Piety uses a gendered interpretive lens to analyze the complex relationship between the church and broader social change in this region of southern Africa.
