The Politics of Faith during the Civil War Timothy L. Wesley,2013-05-13 In The Politics of Faith during the Civil War Timothy L Wesley examines the engagement of both northern and southern preachers in politics during the American Civil War revealing an era of denominational governmental and public scrutiny of religious leaders Controversial ministers risked ostracism within the local community censure from church leaders and arrests by provost marshals or local police In contested areas of the Upper Confederacy and Border Union ministers occasionally faced deadly violence for what they said or would not say from their pulpits Even silence on political issues did not guarantee a preacher s security as both sides arrested clergymen who defied the dictates of civil and military authorities by refusing to declare their loyalty in sermons or to pray for the designated nation army or president The generation that fought the Civil War lived in arguably the most sacralized culture in the history of the United States The participation of church members in the public arena meant that ministers wielded great authority Wesley outlines the scope of that influence and considers conversely the feared outcomes of its abuse By treating ministers as both individual men of conscience and leaders of religious communities Wesley reveals that the reticence of otherwise loyal ministers to bring politics into the pulpit often grew not out of partisan concerns but out of doctrinal historical and local factors The Politics of Faith during the Civil War sheds new light on the political motivations of homefront clergymen during wartime revealing how and why the Civil War stands as the nation s first concerted campaign to check the ministry s freedom of religious expression The Blackwell Companion to Religion in America Philip 1963 the Sunday after four black girls were killed by a bomb in a Birmingham church George William Floyd a Church of Christ minister preached a sermon based on the Golden Rule He pronounced that Jesus Christ was asking Christians to view the bombing from the perspective of their black neighbors and asserted We don't realize it yet but because Martin Luther King Jr is preaching nonviolence which is Jesus's way someday Martin Luther King Jr will be seen as the best friend the white man in the South has ever had During the sermon members of the congregation yelled You devil you and immediately Floyd was dismissed Although not every anti segregation white minister was as outspoken as Pastor Floyd many signed petitions organized interracial groups or preached gently from a gospel of love and justice Those who spoke and acted outright on behalf of the civil rights movement were harassed beaten and even jailed Based on interviews and personal memoirs Southern White Ministers and the Civil Rights Movement traces the efforts of these clergymen who deeply moved by the struggle of African Americans looked for ways to reconcile the history of discrimination and slavery with Christian principles and to help their black neighbors While many understand the role political leaders on national stages played in challenging the status quo of the South this book reveals the significant contribution of these ministers in breaking down segregation through preaching a message of love
