for college theology students or inquiring general readers this anthology presents a concise history of Christian stances on other forms of belief and brief introductions to and excerpts from significant writings of the sacred books of the great world religious traditions

Christian Theological Understanding of Other Religions John Berchmans Barla, 1999 This book tries to give a theological answer to the question of religious pluralism that is the theological problem of the relation of other religions to Christianity according to Amalorpavadass Amalor sees other religions as God's providential ways of salvation God desires the salvation of all peoples with their religions and cultures There is only one salvation history centered in Christ Jesus the word become flesh The Church sacrament of universal salvation is sent out in the world to call all peoples to their unity in God through Christ to proclaim to the world in sincere dialogue and collaboration with others the on going revelation of God in Christ and its on going actualization in history

No Other Name? Paul F. Knitter, 1985 The college text examines the problem of integrating other world religions with the uniqueness and finality of Christ Secular approaches of Troeltsch Toynbee Jung as well as Christian evangelical mainline Protestant Catholic models are reviewed An evolving theocentric model which questions the universality uniqueness of Christianity is the revisionist position propounded by the author John Hiek Raimundo Panikkar Stanley Samartha others

Encountering World Religions Irving Hexham, 2019-05-21 The diversity of the world's religions has come to the West but believers are often ill equipped for any kind of serious engagement with non Christians In Encountering World Religions professor and author Irving Hexham introduces all the world's major religious traditions in a brief and understandable way Hexham outlines key beliefs and practices in each religion while also providing guidance on how to think critically about them from the standpoint of Christian theology African yogic and Abrahamic traditions are all covered Accessible and clear Encountering World Religions will provide formal and lay students alike with a useful Christian introduction to the major faiths of our world

Christianity Donald W. Ekstrand, 2008-04 In this broad comprehensive introduction to Christianity Dr Ekstrand explores science philosophy Scripture the teachings of Jesus Christ the message of the apostles and the essence of orthodox Christianity as represented by both Catholic and Protestant traditions Christian

An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies, Second Edition Cyril Orji, 2021-01-07 An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies walks students through topical issues to be encountered in the study of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as these religions encounter other religions in the context of the wider ecumenism The text is written from a Christian point of view and aims at helping students understand that to be Christian is to be ecumenical African Traditional Religions ATRs has been included in this survey to provide background for the religious traditions and cultures of peoples of Africa as Christianity moves inexorably southward The book has been written with undergraduate general education students in mind including meeting the needs of those in seminaries and theological institutes

Christianity and Other Religions John Hick, Brian Hebblethwaite, 2014-10-01 Edited by two of the most prominent names in interfaith dialogue this is an introduction to the complex relationships between Christianity and the other world faiths Featuring essays from some of the key thinkers in the Christian faith It covers both Catholic and Protestant approaches and features all the rival points of view including the uncompromising absolutism of Karl Barth and Pope John Paul II the more ecumenical approaches of Karl Rahner and Hans Kung and the religious pluralism of Wilfred Cantwell Smith and John Hick among others Christian and Islamic Theology of Religions Esra Akay Dag,2017-04-21 Cover Title Copyright Dedication Contents Preface Abbreviations Introduction 1 Christian theology of religions 2 Rowan Williams s theology of religions 3 Islamic theology of religions 4 Jerusha Lamptey s theology of religions 5 Theology of religions reassessed Conclusion Index Revelation in Christian Theologies of Religions Iain McGee,2024-06-04 What are non Christian religions How is God related to them How do they relate to Christianity In this original book Iain McGee explores five Christian theologians answers to these questions The study spans the history of the church covering figures from four different continents Justin Martyr Augustine John Calvin Jonathan Edwards and Daniel Strange Focusing on the revelation religion interface in the writings of these scholars McGee outlines and analyzes their varied understandings of Logos illumination the prisca theologia and the demonic alongside the relationships between them and their impact on non Christian religion McGee forwards an argument that each theology can be considered a biblically informed contextually reflective and reactive response to significant religious challenges faced by these Christian thinkers in their attempts to demonstrate the uniqueness of the Christian faith An Introduction to the Theology of Religions Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2003-10-23 How does Christianity relate to other religions Beginning with a consideration of the biblical perspective Veli Matti Kärkkäinen offers a detailed and comprehensive survey of the diverse explanations proposed by teachers of the church down through the ages This indispensable guide is for anyone seeking to grasp Christianity s relationship to world religions A Tapestry of Faiths Winfried Corduan,2002 Or do we hold out the Christian faith as the one true hope for all the world One of a Kind Adam Sparks,2010-01-01 A fundamental requirement in an inclusivist understanding of the relationship between Christianity and other religions is evidence of God s salvific activity outside any knowledge of Christ This is commonly identified in the religion of Old Testament Israel On this basis an analogy the Israel analogy is drawn between the religion of the old covenant and contemporary non Christian religions Closely related is the parallel argument that as Christ has fulfilled the Old covenant he can also be seen as the fulfillment of other religious traditions and their scriptures This study outlines the use of the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model subjecting these concepts to a biblical and theological critique revealing that the exegetical and patristic data are misconstrued in support of these concepts Furthermore the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model undermine the sui generis relationship between the old and new covenants and fail to respect the organic progressive nature of salvation history They also misconstrue the old covenant and the nature of its fulfillment in the new covenant The Israel analogy and fulfillment model rely on a correspondence between the chronologically premessianic Israel and the epistemologically premessianic other religions and therefore consider the BC condition to continue today In so doing they undermine the significance of the Christ event by failing to appreciate the decisive effect of this event on history and the nature of existence It marks a radical turn in salvation history a crisis point rendering the BC period complete and fulfilled Therefore the concept of a continuing premessianic condition or state is seriously flawed as are the Israel analogy and fulfillment model Thus the inclusivist paradigm reliant in large part on these defective concepts is also problematic and proponents of this paradigm need to reconsider its basis
